WOMAN'S DAY PLANNED

Will Be Discussed at Preliminary Meeting Next Wednesday

A call for a preliminary meeting of the Citizens' Committee to discuss plans for the national Fourth of July celebration in this city was sent out today by J. F. Neill. The meeting will be held next Wednesday night at the Hotel Adelphia. Representatives of various business, civic and improvement organizations have been invited to attend, and general co-operafion has been assured to make the Even-ing Languages suggestion for the country-wise celebration of the Fourth here a

At the conference in the Adelphia ar-rangements will be made for a general meeting, to which every delegate of every progressive organization in the city will be invited. Mr. Neill expressed the hope today that the women's organizations of the city would co-operate. -The Daughters of the Revolution, Daughters of the Con-federacy, the Civic Club, Equal Suffrage erganizations and many others will be saked to lend their aid.

As the women of the country have played a decidedly important part in its played a decidedly important part in its progress, it is proposed by many members of the Citizens' Committee that they have a conspicuous part in the ceremonies which will commemorate the nation's birthday and the 50th anniversary of the closing of the Civil War.

In keeping with the spirit of the City of Brotherly Love, the women of Philadelphia will be asked to act as hostenses to the wives of the Governors and other distinguished guests who have been invited. It is highly probable, too, that the vited. It is highly probable, too, that the committee will arrange a woman's day in connection with the dual celebration. Several prominent members of the committee have pointed out that inasmuch as the women of the country have from its very beginning proved themselves to be loval patriots self-sections and seader loyal patriots, self-sacrificing and ready to help in all movements for general bet-terment of the country, there should be a day set aside during which they would have full charge of the ceremonies. Such a plan would afford all the wom-en's organizations an opportunity to talk to the entire country at its birthplace, in Independence Hall, and arrange a pro-gram which would enable them to reap beneficial results.

PROBE WOMAN'S DEATH

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., April 8.—County detectives left for McKee City, a farming settlement, 15 miles from the city, this morning, to investigate the death of Mrs. Emma Yates, 70 years old, who lived alone in a small house on the outskirts of the place. Her remains were discovered last night by neighbors, who believe the old reciuse died alone on Saturday while a blizzard was sweeping South Jorsey and travel was suspended through-out the country districts. Bruises upon the aged woman's head at first gave rise to suspicions of foul play. Bankbooks and other personal property, however, had not been dis-A brother, the only known relative of the woman, was sent to the county asylum a few months ago.
