GERMAN LINERS TIED UP IN NORTH RIVER AT HOBOKEN

There are ten big passenger vessels in sight here, all belonging to the Hamburg-American Line. An idea of the superiority in size of the great Vaterland may be gained by observing her funnels here, which loom up so as to dwarf those of her companion ships.

THE TALLEST ROLLING CHAIR PUSHER IN CAPTIVITY

Charles Stone propels a perambulator of adult size on Atlantic City's Boardwalk. When he's feeling good, he measures 6 feet 9 1/2 inches from end to end. He is offering passersby a chance to estimate his height by holding his arms outstretched over the heads of two lady friends.

REMINDER THAT THE FISHING SEASON IS ON

New Jersey's season opened the first of the month and fair luck is already reported, though the water is still too cold for the best luck. Pennsylvania's season opens on the 15th inst.
