

SPRING INFUSES NEW VIGOR INTO LIFE OF CITY AS BETOKENED BY SCENES FROM PARK AND RIVER

A RUNABOUT DRIVE IN FAIRMOUNT PARK

Showing that the horse has not yet lost his popularity, since there are still those who prefer his gentle amble to the furious rush of the automobile.

STOPPING HIS OWN CAR TO LOOK OVER THE BIG ONES

A snapshot on one of the paths near the driveway, where an exceedingly young driver has paused to gaze critically at the "form" displayed by his elders.

GIVING THE POWERBOAT A FRESH COAT FOR THE NEW SEASON

A SPRINGTIME CANTER ALONG THE BRIDLE PATH

PAINTING HER ANNUAL NEW NAME ON THE OLD CANOE

"TWILIGHT SLEEP" BABY AND HIS PROUD MOTHER

Robert H. Steele is a small and recent arrival on South 50th street. He is one of the first "twilight sleep" babies born in this city.

TWIN BOYS TAKE A RIDE IN OWN "FIRE WAGON"

Mrs. T. F. O'Brien, wife of the captain of Engine Company No. 46, takes her sons out for an airing in a coach built by their "dad."
