PERSONS AND SCENES IN DAY'S GRIST OF NEWS FROM HOME AND ABROAD AS CAUGHT BY THE CAMERA

FIRE HORSE ACTS AS MASTER'S VALET
When Driver N. P. Smith, of Phoenix Hose, Hook and Ladder Company, of Phoenixville, comes in tired, "Harry" takes off his coat and hangs it up. "Harry" and "Duke," his mate, are both blue ribboners.

SPRING ENTICES THE SURF BATHERS
These warm days have had the effect of opening Atlantic City's bathing season early, despite recent unfavorable weather.

YOU MAY NOT RECOGNIZE THEM AS SUCH, BUT THEY ARE UNITED STATES SOLDIERS
At first glance any one might think this was a scene from one of the European fronts, but as a matter of fact it comes from no further away than the Catskill Mountains and shows some of New York State's soldiers charging over a hilltop during maneuvers. Their unfamiliar head-pieces are modeled after the famous "coonskin cap" worn by Davy Crockett and other pioneers who spent most of their times in the hills and forests.

SECOND ANNUAL BOY SCOUT DAY IS HELD AT SHIBE PARK

Scouts to the number of 3000 turned out under the leadership of their captains yesterday and witnessed the victory of the Athletics over the Phillies. Afterward they fell into line and marched around the field with flags flying and band playing. They were accompanied by W. B. Cowley, scout executive; E. W. Goodman and H. O. Merrill, field commissioners, and L. S. Bishop, office secretary.

CONQUEROR OF PRZEMYSL

General Radko Demastrieff is now being hailed by the Russians as a hero for his capture of the strong Galician fortress.

STEEPLEJACK ON HIGH CHURCH SPIRE

"Jack" Haasler is shown here making preparations to take down the spire of St. Mark's Evangelical Lutheran Church, at 1 1/2th and Spring Garden streets.
