PERSONS AND SCENES IN DAY'S GRIST OF NEWS FROM HOME AND ABROAD AS CAUGHT BY THE CAMERA

ENGLISH COLLEGE STUDENTS AND SCHOOLBOYS PRACTICE ARMY TACTICS UNDER DIRECTION OF KITCHENER'S AIDES
This picture, which has just arrived from England, shows the youthfulness of the recruits which the War Secretary is training to fill the ranks being fast depleted by such battles as recently took place at Neuve Chapelle. Boys from the schools and universities are pictured taking cover after a short bayonet charge on the downs at Epsom. Officers from the Royal Fusiliers are training these youths.

AMERICAN GIRL KIDNAPS ARMY HUSBAND
Mrs. H. F. W. Warden, formerly Miss Mary Easby-Smith, of Washington, married a British army surgeon. He accompanied her aboard a steamship, which sailed for America before he could get off. So she brought him to this side with her.

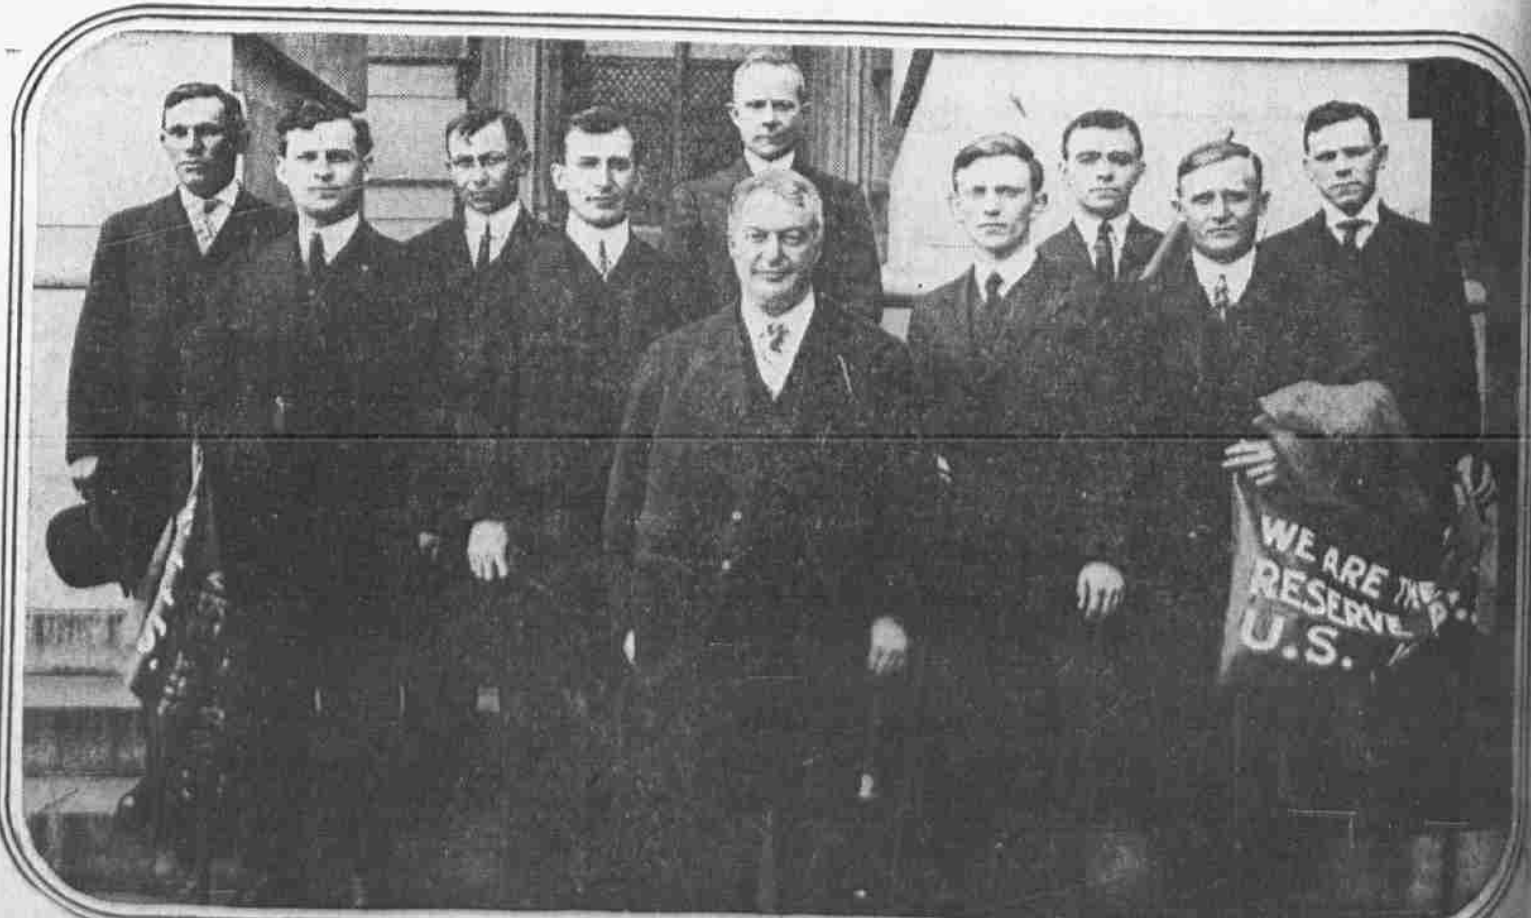

EASY ROLLER CHAIR TRAVEL
This strip of planking has just been laid lengthwise for about four blocks south from Connecticut avenue. It will obviate Boardwalk bumps.

SEASIDE FASHIONS FOR MEN
What's what for summer attire in the male world of fashion may be judged from this Boardwalk picture. Coats will button tightly around the waist and hats apparently will have their brims turned down.

THE GERMAN FIELD CENSOR
He has charge of the newspaper men on the war front. From a photo taken by James E. J. Archibald.

"RESERVE ARMY" OF THE UNITED STATES IS MOBILIZED AT A BANQUET
These nine men are the major portion of the forces which Representative Augustus P. Gardner recently gathered in Washington in order to make fun of the Administration. They are all veterans of the Spanish War. The other members of the "army" were too far away to attend.
