

EMMA GOLDMAN WILL HURRY TO PATERSON AND WAR ON SUNDAY

"I. W. W. Has Cold Feet," Says Anarchist, Speaking of Leader's Coming Next Monday—Will Attempt Meeting.

FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT. PATERSON, N. J., April 16.—Emma Goldman, anarchist, is coming here Monday to fight "Billy" Sunday. Every anarchist within 50 miles of Paterson will attend the meeting she will lead in Turn Hall. She is coming because the I. W. W. evidently has given up its attempt to prevent the Sunday campaign making headway among the mill people.

Dr. Benjamin Reitzman, one of the leaders in the Goldman group of anarchists, came to the city this morning. He conferred with the leader of the Italian anarchists, Frank Falco, editor of L' Era Nuovo, the anarchist newspaper, and with Frank Whitman, the Jewish anarchist leader. All plans were laid for the meeting to be held Monday night.

I. W. W. "HAS COLD FEET." "Emma Goldman is going to take this Paterson situation in her own hands," said Doctor Reitzman. "I. W. W. has cold feet and we are sick and tired of waiting for them to start something. We have no permit to do and we do not intend to get one."

"Billy" Sunday preaches Christianity, but had conditions exist just the same. Thousands of men and women are starving and cannot get work. There are thousands of them in Paterson. "They may be safe in the arms of Jesus, but that does not put food in their stomach. The world has had Christianity for 2000 years, but it has war, bloodshed, famine, pestilence and all that are menacing civilization. Doesn't that prove it is a failure? It is time to see mill owners and storekeepers hitting the trail when they treat their employees here in Paterson like slaves."

RUM-DEALER DENIES HURT. President Samuel Hainesworth, of the Passaic County branch of the Liquor Dealers' Association of America, today denied Sunday's charge that the liquor dealers' association had raised $100,000 a year to fight him. "Sunday never hurt our trade to the extent of one dollar," said Mr. Hainesworth.

"We have the finest idea of interfering with him," the saton trade in Philadelphia, figures show, picked up thousands of dollars from "Billy" Sunday's thirty crowd. You notice he keeps well within the law in what he says about the liquor men. If he gave us any good legal ground for action something might happen."

State Senator Peter J. McGinnis today said he thought the saton would be very wise if they attempted retaliation by way of the courts. Sunday spoke this morning at the City Normal School, and told the young teachers how to win out in the world.

"Don't waste your time," he said. "Don't be foolish, frizzle-headed gum-chewing ragtime ass, spending your evenings hanging about the piano singing." "Will the Spartans lose its Flavor on the Bed-post over Night." Sunday's service at the tabernacle this afternoon was fairly well attended. He preached on "Fishers of Men."

UNITARIANS BEGIN CAMPAIGN. The Unitarian ministers of the State met here yesterday and announced the beginning of their campaign against Sunday. Strangely enough, it is to be held, not in Paterson, but at the Unitarian church in Passaic, and the speaker is to be the Rev. J. T. Sutherland. Considerable amusement is being caused at the tabernacle by "Rodey's" forcing the newspaper men to sing "Brighten the Corner" at each service.

New York's former State Commissioner, "Big Bill" Edwards, is to conduct a tabernacle service today. He has reserved three chairs for the big, one-time, famous Princeton football center, Sunday has announced "chickens Come Home to Roost" for a men-only meeting Sunday afternoon. He has accepted an invitation to address the 15 barbers at the county jail.

He received a letter today from William T. Hoyt, president of the National Defense Association, which is fighting the liquor business. Hoyt says the organization is right with "Billy" in his work along that line. President Hoyt is coming here to help Sunday fight for a full enforcement of the liquor law, and for new and more effective legislation, to say nothing of straight prohibition.

These inspectors profess ignorance of the motives of the company in stationing them at the street corners.

For many years Senator Aldrich was regarded as a leader in the inner national councils of the Republican party. He was a prominent figure at conventions and the contemporary of many Republican veterans such as President McKinley, Mark Hanna, "Uncle John" Cannon and others. He was popularly regarded as intensely conservative, a member of the "old guard."

IRREGULAR METHODS IN MAKING ESTIMATES, CHANGE IN CLAY TRIAL

Baltimore Bidder Says He Couldn't Obtain Drawings of Work He Wanted to Figure On.

The first detailed testimony relating to the work done by John R. Wiggins & Co. in the City Treasurer's office at City Hall was heard today in the trial of Henry Clay, former Director of Public Safety; Wiggins and Willard H. Walls, charged with conspiracy to defraud the city. Albert A. French, an estimator for the Evans Marble Company of Baltimore, was the witness. He testified there were no drawings for the work in the City Treasurer's office.

French explained that Walls submitted to him colored sketches of the City Hall work and when he told Walls that he could not use these sketches in making an estimate, the contractor instructed him to go to City Hall and measure the "work in place."

Magistrate Rebukes Attorney. A wrothy battle between Magistrate Beaton, sitting in Central Station, and A. B. Gordon Davis, an attorney, took place today, when James Kelley, of 909 North 4th street, charged with maintaining an unsanitary stable, was cross-examining Samuel Mitchell, attached to the Bureau of Health. While Kelley was questioning the health officer, Magistrate Beaton told Davis not to prompt the prisoner with questions. Davis was not representing Kelley. He had a seat near the table occupied by newspaper men detailed to cover hearings in the court. Davis denied that he had been coaching Kelley. Thereupon an exchange of words followed. Magistrate Beaton threatened to eject Davis from the courtroom. Davis replied that he was a citizen and had a perfect right in the courtroom.

Thieves Loot Phone Boxes. It's a case of "on again, off again, on again," so far as the phone service of the Kansas City Bell Company, 524 Chestnut Avenue, is concerned. For the sixth time within the last six months the office of the company has been entered by thieves, who cut the phone wires and robbed the phone boxes of small change. Nothing else was disturbed. Miss A. Pinkerton, the cashier, nonchalantly informed her employer that the phone service was "out" again today. The employer's chief complaint, however, is that the temporary lack of phone service hurts his business.

ATLANTIC CITY, April 15.—Hosias Ireland, 38 years old, a pioneer resident of Pleasantville, was killed this morning, when he walked directly into the path of a West Jersey and Seashore Railroad third rail wrecking train. POLICE COURT CHRONICLES. The sound of crashing glass and jangling tinware aroused Policeman Joe Hill from a reverie as he stood at East Girard avenue. Glancing down the street he was amazed to see a man tossing pitchers and cups in the air for the edification of a number of youngsters. Several of the cups broke in the street. Then the juggler simply stepped to the front of a crockery establishment and took a fresh supply from a stand on the sidewalk. When a pitcher broke he did likewise. At one stage of the game he had a dishpan, two glasses and a coal scuttle whirling through the air at once. The cop made a dash for the juggler and reached him just as the proprietor of the store discovered the ruse. "There is no cause for excitement," said the open-air performer. "I'll pay for the damage." He figured that he broke seven glasses and five cups and paid the proprietor the balance and the juggler left. Then he had to clear the street of the debris. And after all that he was taken to the East Girard avenue station. The prisoner said he was Charles Ross, of California, and told Magistrate Stevenson he was practicing juggle for the summer fair.
