DUKE OF CONNAUGHT INSPECTS SECOND CANADIAN CONTINGENT WHICH LEFT FOR FRONT A FEW DAYS AGO

Field Marshal H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught is seen here inspecting 3000 Canadian volunteers at Montreal on the eve of their departure for the European war. The spirit of unity shown among the Canadians and their devotion to the mother country has exceeded the highest English expectations. Most of these volunteers are of English, Scotch or French birth.

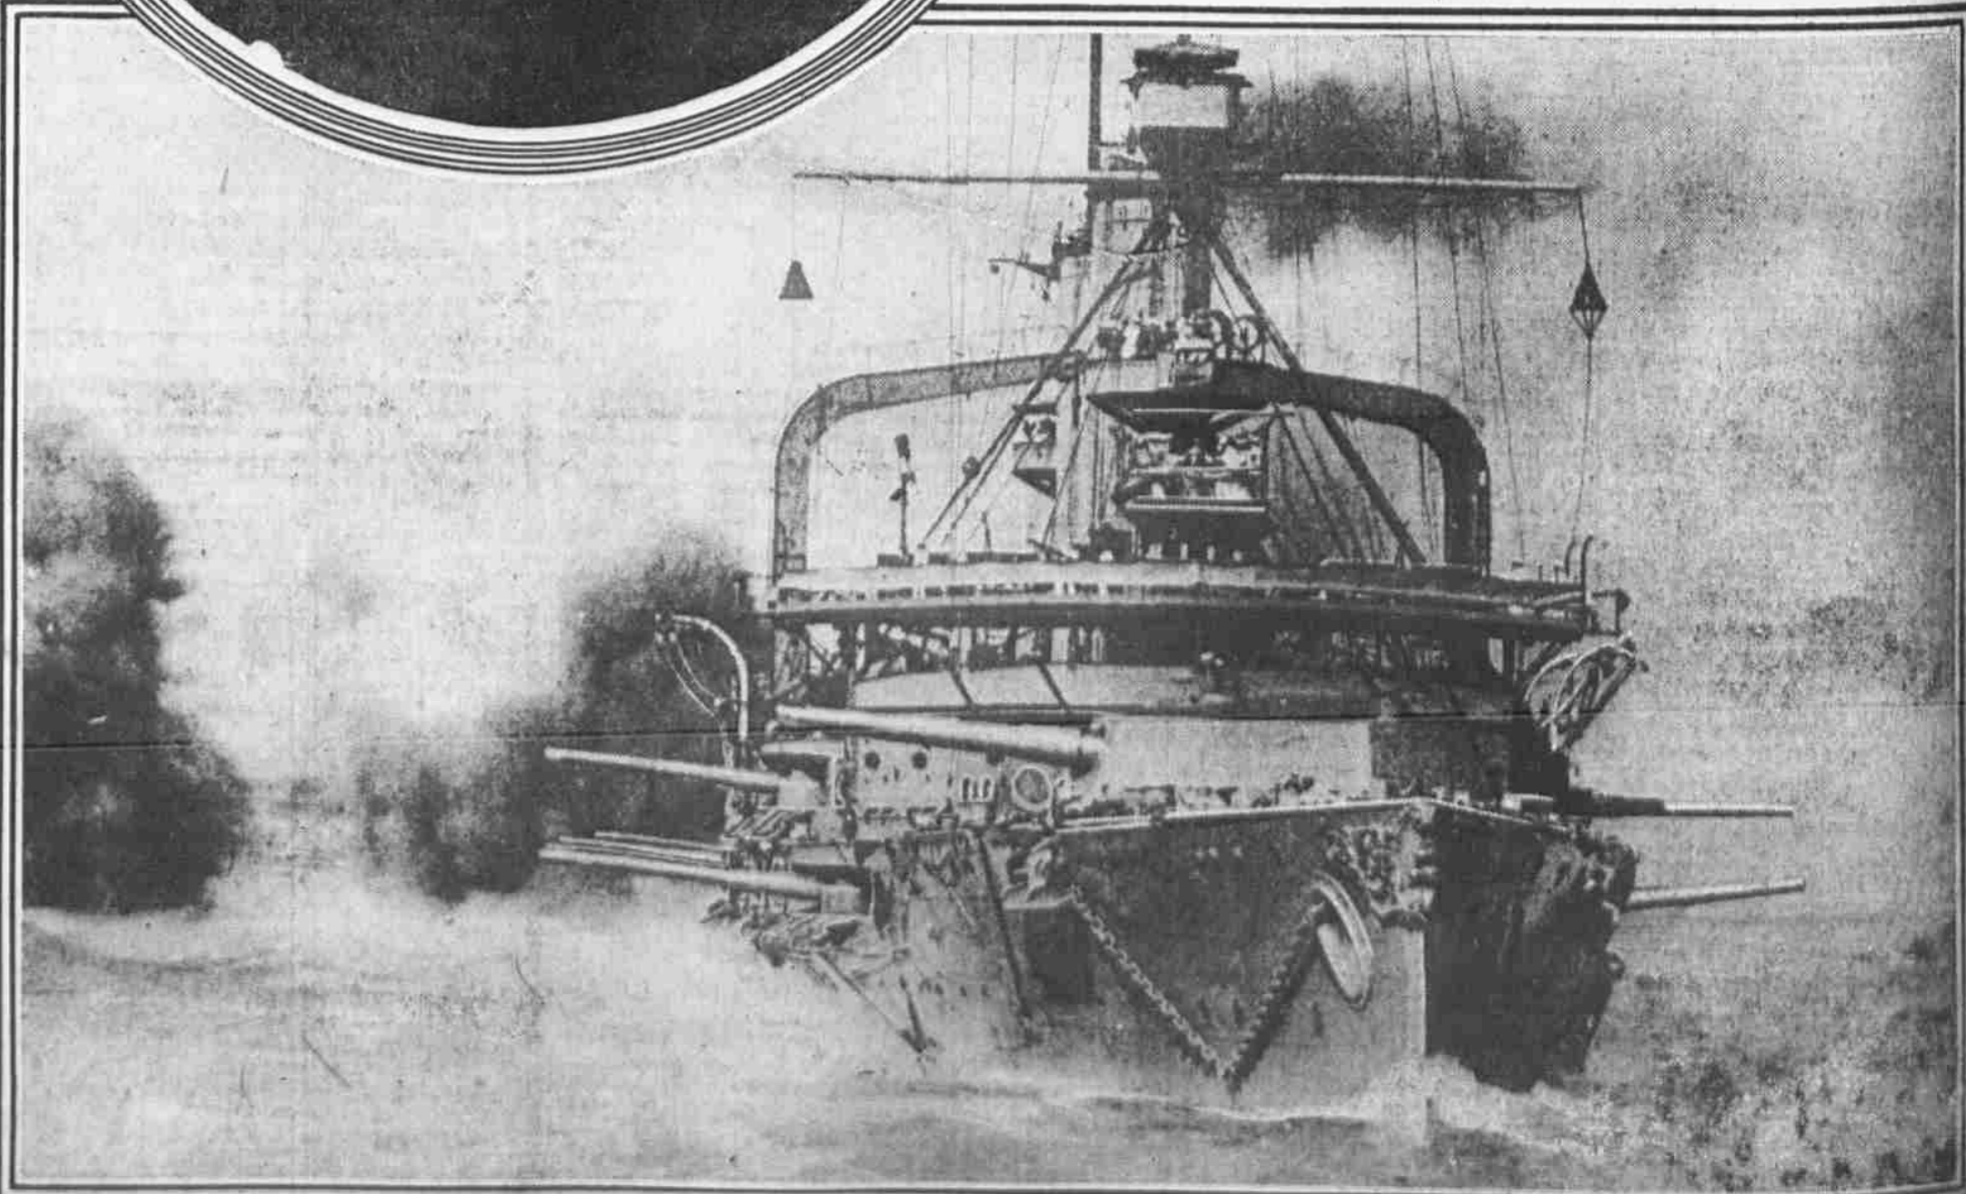

RUSSIA'S MINISTER OF FINANCE

N. Bark has attracted much attention in the diplomatic circles of Europe by the way he has kept the empire afloat financially, despite the loss of revenue caused by the cutting off of the vodka traffic.

A CONSERVATIVE DISPENSER OF JUSTICE

Magistrate William S. Beaton is, among other things, the terror of all persons who sell impure food. Such dealers get short shrift at his hands. He belongs to the Washington party.

BRITISH BATTLESHIP FIRING A BROADSIDE IN MEDITERRANEAN

The picture shows how a ship appears in battle. The smoke of the guns hides the ship from the enemy's view and partially protects it. The warship is of the Irresistible type. In the oval above are the twins of the navy yard's Marine Corps. They are Leslie and Hallie Woodcock, 20 years old, from South Carolina. At enlistment they were promised they would not be placed in separate companies.
