

GOVERNOR OBTAINS MORE SUPPORT FOR LOCAL OPTION BILL

With 12 Votes From Philadelphia Now Reasonably Sure, Chances of Measure Increase Materially for Final Passage by House.

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 20.—Governor Brumbaugh's chances of having the Williams local option bill, which comes up for a final vote in the House tomorrow, have materially increased. He is now reasonably sure of 12 votes from Philadelphia, notwithstanding Senator Vars' noncommittal attitude.

The Governor yesterday held conferences with former city leaders in Philadelphia, upon whom he could count if he enters the majority contest this fall, and as a result four Philadelphia representatives are expected to cast their votes for the bill.

The Governor called the Philadelphia ward leaders to see him as one of his last steps for the passage of the bill. The last party he saw was Thomas B. Smith, city commissioner, David Martin, ex-Register of Wills, John J. McKinley, Jr., ex-City Commissioner, and Harry B. Beaton, ex-City Commissioner.

They admitted that they discussed local option with the Governor. Between them they have six followers who are members of the House.

Today the Governor saw only members of the Legislature and discussed local option with the "doubtful" ones. Among these were Representatives Dunn, Deinkhouse and Vogler.

Charles A. Howell, of the 25th Ward, City Commissioner of the former postmaster, is now taking a referendum of his district, and the results so far have caused him to incline toward local option.

TO AMEND "MOVIE" BILL Sponsor of Measure Loses Point on Salary Appropriation.

HARRISBURG, April 20.—The Senate is expected to amend the Daix bill, which provides for a new system of State censorship of moving picture exhibitions, before it passes the measure. The bill, which was introduced at the request of the Official State Censor, J. Louis Bretzinger, was recommitted when it came up for third reading in the Senate last night.

REPEAL OF FULL-CREW LAW NOW ASSURED

Passage of Measure in Senate Certain—Action of House Was Dictated From "Above."

HARRISBURG, April 20.—This Legislature will repeal the full-crew law of 1911. The action of the House last night, which was by a vote of 135 to 88 passed the repealer, was dictated from "above." The Senate will pass the repealer without much opposition. The full-crew repealer places the jurisdiction over railroad crews in the Public Service Commission.

The attitude of the Senate leaders was shown in the vote of the Philadelphia delegation. Only six of the 11 members from Philadelphia voted against the measure, the other 25 Philadelphia Representatives obeying the mandate of the Philadelphia Republican Organization bosses.

NOW IS THE SEASON FOR STERN WARFARE AGAINST TYPHOID FLY

Bureau of Municipal Research Points Out Peril That May Be Averted by Prudent Householder.

TYPHOID-FLY FIGHT RULES Destroy breeding places of the fly. Stay now; because breeding time is upon us. Have all filth destroyed at once or removed. See that manure from stables in the vicinity of dwellings is covered and speedily removed. Cover the garbage can. Get rid of decaying vegetable and animal matter. See that sewage is removed; not only about your home, but within at least 250 yards of it, for that in the radius of the ordinary activity of the typhoid-breeding housefly.

Reverend in the light of recent knowledge the housefly is more dangerous than the tiger or the cobra. It is now generally accepted that it is a pestiferous, disease-carrying insect and in every respect a menace to the public health.

GREY TIGER RULES Housefly is too weak a term for this menace—typhoid fly, the bureau declares, is more truly descriptive.

Destroy the breeding places of the fly. Have all manure from stables in the vicinity of dwellings efficiently covered and speedily removed. Cover the garbage can. Destroy decaying vegetable and animal matter. Have the sewage and filth generally removed.
