PENN RELAY CARNIVAL ON FRANKLIN FIELD-BOSTON VS. PHILS-ATHLETICS' GAME OFF

PHILLIES' RATTLING ATTACK REVELATION TO BALL FANS

12 ...

Hard Hitting, Daring Base Running and Heady Plays Mark New Style of National Leaguers-Outgamed Braves-Bancroft's Fielding a Feature-Boldness of Killefer's Bunt.

Manager Moran's Phillies yesterday convinced 20,000 fans that the six straight victories over the Braves and Glants were not flukes. They did it all aver again, and handly. The game yesterday was not very well played in the field, but was remarkable because of the things the Phillies revealed in the way of attack.

For five or six years the Phillies have possessed a hard-hitting team, but one which was slow afoot and inclined to hesitate on the bases. This weakness always had held the team back, and it was difficult for the fans to believe that just a few additions to the team could make such a difference.

Players like Luderus, Cravath and Killefer, who have been chided for their flow moving on the paths, amazed the fans by taking an extra base on every throw and completely bewildering the Braves' infield, which is known as one of the best in the major leagues. Clever base running naturally would be expected of Bancroft, Whitted, Paskert, Neihoft and Byrne, although the latter two are by no means fast, but such work as that shown by Luderus, Killefer and Cravath was a revelation. . . .

The Phillies Show Wonderful Attack

The fans cannot recall seeing a local National League team with such an aggressive and versatile attack. The usual style of play by the Phillies in the past has consisted of hitting the ball and waiting to be moved.

As soon as a man reached first base yesterday he started for second. The batsmen protected the runner in great rashion. If the man had a good lead he was permitted to steal, with the batter interfering with Gowdy in every manner possible without breaking the rule covering this point, while a hit-and-run play was used when the runner could not get off to a start.

Every trick known in offensive baseball was used. Infielders were worried by halting base runners just when it seemed as though an easy out would result. . . .

Killefer's Bunt Surprise of Day

Killefer's perfect bunt, with two men out and Luderus on third, was a sample of the unexpected baseball pulled by Moran's team. It was absolutely the last thing the rattled Braves' infield were looking for, and Hess became so excited that he threw the ball fully 30 feet in the air over Schmidt's head in a hopeless attempt to catch the Philly catcher.

The fans were simply amazed by the feats performed by Moran's men. The same comment was heard that often followed the same sort of a victory by the Braves last season. "Were they lucky?" was the question asked by thousands. There is no doubt of the fact that the Braves played poor baseball, but to say that the Phillies were lucky is an injustice. They simply forced the breaks and completely rattled and outgamed a team that has been called the gamest that baseball ever saw. . . .

Phillies Have Off-day in the Field

In the field the Phillies did not show so well, and made a game that should have been easy for Alexander a hard one to win. Every run scored by the Braves was due to a misplay. Paskert's poor judgment permitted Schmidt's single to go for a triple, and he scored on a sacrifice fly. Byrne's error was made on an easy chance that would have retired the side in the fifth inning. Hess and Moran followed with two base hits and two runs were scored. Again, in the eighth, an error permitted the Braves to tally when Cravath dropped an easy fly with two men out.

Though these errors were on easy chances and allowed runs to tally, they were somewhat excusable, as all were made through the anxiety of the player. These two errors of commission, and one of omission by Paskert, were the only misplays of the day, while several pieces of brilliant fielding more than atoned for these breaks. . . .

Bancroft's Stop Feature of Game

A wonderful stop by Bancroft of a hard drive was easily the feature fielding play. Bancroft made this play on Sherwood Magee and robbed the ex-Philly outfielder of a hit. The ball went like a rifle shot, straight over second, but Bancroft, by a wonderful effort, scooped it up with both hands and made a regular Mike Doolan throw to Luderus. Magee and the spectators were amazed. Had he scooped the ball up with one hand, the amazement would not have been luck and be keen on hustling against the so great, but his feat in getting both hands on the ball is a little beyond those who have not seen much of the little fellow.

Boost for Phillies; Jolt for Giants and Braves.

The victory meant much to the Phillies, as the Giants were beaten by Brooklyn. It is early to be watching the scoreboard of the team considered the most dangerous contender aside from the champions, but every game the Giants and Braves lose will add that much confidence to the play of the home team. Today is a day of glory for Manager Moran, but he realizes that his hardest test has not arrived. This test will be in keeping the Phillies on the ground floor. Overconfidence is as bad, if not worse, than lack of confidence, and several other year. Philly teams have developed that to such an extent that an excellent chance for a pennant was tossed away. The owners and fans, however, have great confidence in the level-headed Moran and are convinced that such a barrier will not be placed in the road of the club's chances for future success.

BANCROFT MADE A SENSATIONAL STOP AND THROW OF MAGEE'S SIZZLER

April and say just what sort of a machine it will be in July-how many of its men will be injured-how much bad luck it will have-or how it will meet tough rugged blows of old Doc Adversity. But if early form and early spirit are to be considered-a worthy rival has come at last to give the Braves a royal battle down the summer trail.

by many to come back. It isn't the Cubs, of whom many kind words were delivered with eloquence. It isn't the Cardinals, the answer. Pat Moran was supposed to have a joke machine. But a rare thing

Stray Shots

Two miracle achievements—Fanning Ty-rus and keeping T. R. off the front page. "Time and tide." they say, "wait for no man." But Teddy and Tyrus don't even wait for Time and Tide. Queen Lane Manor and is believed to be the smallest thing in the way of golf links in the country. Queen Lane Manor is a suburb to the west of Germaniown, and the new green in the section also with

ADD NEW MELODIES. ADD NEW MEMORIES. The only tune that Cobb can play— Cobb and Crawford and Yeach— s "Over their heads and far away— Out of the fielders' reach." —R. L. H.

many fashionable householders, are devotces of the Scotch game in spite of the Why all this adulation? As we flounder o press the trio named above is only batfact that their new links are less than ting slightly above 500 for a general aver-age. They rarely ever drive in above five or six tallies per afternoon. Rarely ever. three acres in extent, and the putting drives will be impossible, and most of the play will be with light clubs, but Benja-In the hazy interim Mr. Welsh is keep-

25 13

19

HEFFERNAN KNOCKS OUT TRINCKLE IN SECOND GO

West Philly Welter Easily Disposes of Opponent at Broadway.

Joe Heffernan, the West Philadelphia welterweight, added another to his long list of knockouts last night at the Broad way Club by flooring Sammy Trinckin way Club by flooring Sammy Trinckin in the second round of the wind-up. The termination of the context was decidedly sensational and proved that Heffernan just now is one of the most dangerous fighters in the welterweight class in the country. He has generally been credited with being a one-hand puncher, but last night he showed that he could hit hard from any angle and with either hand.

with either hand. In the semiwind-up, Johnny Clark de-feated Lew Stinger in six lively rounds. Lew Hunter knocked out Joe Bradley in one round. Mike Russell knocked out Al Edwards in four rounds. In the opening bout Eddie Rando stopped Bobby Dougherty in three rounds.

END OF O. B.-FEDERAL BASEBALL WAR NEAR

Outlaw and National League Clubs May Amalgamate and Peace Will Reign Is Rumor.

CHICAGO, April 23 .- Chicago was afloat today on a sea of rumors regarding possible peace in the Federal-Organized-Baseball war. The rumors were no whit easier traceable to their lair than are rumors of peace in Europe, but, on the theory that where there's so much gumshoe work there must be several persons with a secret, here's the dope on the latest cry of "nuff" among baseball magnates. About three hours before the Sox and Browns opened at the Sox park yester-day, Phil Ball, of the St. Louis Federals. dashed into Chicago. After a long con-ference with President Gilmore, of the Federal League, Ball, in company with his attorney, went into conference with Ban B. Johnson, president of the Ameri-can League, and Judge George H. Will-iams, of St. Louis. Judge Williams, co-incidentally arrived in Chicago from St. Louis with Robert L. Hedges about the same time Ball did same time Ball did.

After the Ball-Gilmore conference there were long distance telephone parleys with W. E. Robertson, of Buffalo, and George B. Ward, of the Brooklyn Federals, from B. Ward, of the Brooklyn Federals, from Gilmore's headquarters. These phone talks were going on while Phil Ball was at Ban Johnson's office. Ball, by the way, went with Johnson and other O. B. officials to the White Sox opening in

IN QUEEN LANE MANOR Johnson's automobile. Early today the magnates refused ab-solutely to talk for publication. The pure dope on the situation, however, was of the middleweight title. Jimmie is pure dope on the situation, nowers might that the following developments might result from a possible treaty of peace: The St. Louis Federals and the Only Three Acres in Links, But Enthusiasts Expect Great Cardinals to amalgamate, Phil Ball to become the owner.

Amalgamation of the Chicago Federals Amalgamation of the Chicago Federals and the Cubs, the composite team to make its headquarters at the Whales worth Side park, and to be known as the Whales, with Weeghman a big fac-tor and Charles Taft in the background. Consolidations in Brooklyn, Baltimore, Pittsburgh, Buffalo and Kansas City.-A miniature golf club will be organized tomorrow night to go with a miniature course which has just been completed in Queen Lane Manor and is believed to be

TAYLOR AND DUNCAN, GOLF and the new green in the section also will EXPERTS OF ENGLAND, COMING be notable because of the fact that part

Will Compete in National Tournament at Baltusrol.

ABSECON, N. J., April 23.-Wilfred Reld, professional of the Seaview Golf Club, received word from London here yesterday that J. H. Taylor and George Duncan have decided to come to America and compete in the national open golf championship tournament at Baltuarol in Heretofore there have been rumors of little finger in the pic, figuratively apeak-

June

"HOW I WON WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP"-TOLD BY WILLARD HIMSELF

Great Fighter Tells of Dining in Chicago With Newsboys - Clabby Is Praised for Tips and Fine Points in Boxing.

By JESS WILLARD

Heavyweight Champion of the World. Despite the fact that Chicago never could quite see me as a championship possibility I have many friends there.

made during my nu-merous stops in the merous stops Western big Western etty, and I must say that and I must say that I was more kindly irreated there thas in any other big diy in the country. Once in a while now I figure to my-self that perhaps they felt sorry for me, and particularly after they had heard I was going to fight Jack Johnson. In view of my indiffer-ent showing against Jack Johnson. In view of my indinge-ent showing against Rodel in Milwauke L don't blame the Chicago fans for feeling that way. The last night I spent in ChiCago was a mighty happy one for me, because I spent it in my own original way. I was on my way to Excelsior Spring for a brief stay before going on to El Paso to start for the Johnson fight, which was first scheduled for the Mexican border, We had a little theatre party and while on the way to get a bite of food I was attracted to a bunch of newsies and other young fellows around the corner of Madison and Dearborn streets. Like-wise they were attracted to me, and, sathering around, wished me all sorts of good luck in my adventure with the big colored fighter.

of good luck in my adventure with the big colored fighter. I invited the whole bunch to lunch with me and every one of them accepted. We had a merry party for over an hour, and I had to tell them a lot of my experiences in the ring, along with many other things. I never had a more attentive audience in my career and never enjoyed myself quite as much as feeding the little band of night workers. Guess I made band of night workers. Guess I made some boosters there, too. In all of my running around the country I have generally taken much interest in the young-sters, because I've always felt that I would like others to take an interest in

One of the most helpful of the many of the middleweight title. Jimmie is a sort of rough-toss young fellow with a mighty bright mind and one of the world's greatest boxers, that's sure. I took a liking to him from the start of our acquaintance and found that he dropped many a telling hint to me about my style my hitting, how I should con-dition myself and all of the rest of it that is of interest to an ambitious ab-lete.

lete. What I liked about Jimmy was the fact that he never set out to give me a lecture, although 1 knew that some of the cruds work I showed must have grated on the work I snowed must have grated on the finished Clabby. He rather kidded me about certain things and suddenly turning seriou-yould ask me why I didn't do it this way or that way. He frolicked around me like a kitten and during that time I got many a pointer that I used later to immense advantage. Right here I want to say that Clabby was one of the very few fighters that of-fered to go with me to El Paso when I first started training for the Jack John-son battle. And he didn't want me to pay him a penny for his services; he

It doesn't take a fortune teller to tell the cause of most

auto breakdowns

or breakups. Friction puts many cars on the scrap heap.

DIXON'S

Graphite Grease

No. 677

For Transmissions

and Differentials

It will keep Fric-, tion caged with a

Ask your dealer for the

Dixon Lubricating Chart

JOSEPH DIXON CRUCIBLE

COMPANY

muzzle on.

Another Upset

No, it isn't the Giants who were picked who made such a rare uphill fight last The Standing of the Clubs furnished

No man can look at a ball club in machines in either league this season of the old Cub of Mackian type.

Not Superstition; Common Sense

For 33 years the Phillies used the players' bench on the left side of the field until yesterday. When the spectators arrived and saw the Phils on the right side of the field they were puzzled, and most of them believed that Moran was superstitious; but there was method in Moran's madness. Sitting on the bench on the left side of the field, with the centre of attraction always the pitcher, the men are constantly staring into a background of mixed colors from the signs on the fence. Manager Moran believes that this is not good for the batting eyes, hence the change for a background of green and black, which is expected to help the hitting.

Phillies Have New Spirit of Hustle

A striking illustration of the spirit of the rejuvenated Phils was shown on a little slow roller from Gowdy's bat in the ninth inning. The ball rolled down the foul line, first inside and then out. When Byrne, Alexander and Killefer reached the line the ball was in foul territory. Had the ball rolled back into fair territory there would have been no chance to catch Gowdy. All three players dived for the ball to touch it in foul territory and thereby make it a foul. Alexander escaped the bump, but Killefer and Byrne were both shaken up and knocked to the ground in the collision. It was just a little incident, but it illustrated the hustling spirit of the team.

. . .

It is a pleasure to watch Alexander pitch. A more confident and daring performer has never been seen on a local ball field. Many times during the opening game the big Nebraskan used curve balls with three and two on the batsmen, and twice with Magee up he was curving them with the count three and one, in preference to giving the slugger a fast ball. "Alex" got away with it every time, and so great was his control that not a man was passed during the game except Magee, who was intentionally passed in the eighth inning. . . .

A number of persons were heard to say the Phillies used the squeeze play in the eighth inning, when Killefer bunted with Luderus on third, but that was not the case. There were two men out at the time, and the squeeze cannot be worked with two out, as the object of the play is for the batter to sacrifice himself when he sees that the runner from third may score, if the batter manages to hit the ball on the ground in fair territory. Killefer's play yesterday was merely a bunt-and-run play, made famous by the old Baltimore Orioles in the nineties. . . .

Baseball Magnates Now Ignore Players

During the winter months the Players' Fraternity was treated so well the powers that be in Organized Ball that it locked for a time as

During the winter months the Players' Fraternity was treated so well by the powers that be in Organized Ball that it locked for a time as through the chances of future trouble between the players and magnates were slim. But since the sesson is under way and most of the players have been tied to long-term contracts the magnates' attitude has changed. There is but little doubt that the National Commission is sidestepping the issue with the Players' Fraternity. The decision of the commission on several of the requests of the players proves conclusively that but little is to be gained by the players through appeal to this body at this time. When the players were not lined up with long-term contracts. President Fults had little trouble in getting recognition, as the magnates feared that the Fraternity might recognize the Federal League; but now that they are apparently out of the woods. Fults is ignored. President Fults is likely to have a few things to say in the near future, and a storm may brew that will surpass even that of the clash between the players and magnates in 1913.

ing on the field.

Of the Future

Of the future in this bizarre and fickle can the Phillies hold up? Not without luck in the way of a paucity of injuries. With this fortune there is no reason why they shouldn't. Killefer is catching fine ball. Alexander is the ruling twirler of his league, ably supported so far by May-er, Chalmers and Demaree. The infield is no wonder, but it is working steadily, reinforced by a Mr. Ban-croft at short, who looks to be another Maranville. This debutante is a bird of exceeding rare plumage. He is one of the great finds of the game or April dope fades quicker than April blossoms. And in the outfield Cravath, Whitted, Becker and Paskert are championship cal-

And So It Goes

The Phillies permitted their stars to jump where they listed. "Suit yourself," was the reply to each Federal League threat. So Knabe, Doolan and Seaton left, while Magee, Lobert and Dooin had to be traded. McGraw, on the other wing, output hash Ked anorachements by sign fought back Fed encreachments by signing his men for long-term contracts. The Phillies apparently stood still and permitted their club to be wrecked and looted. The Giants paid out vast shoals of kale to protect their property. And once again the Standing of the Clubs shows quite eloquently how the two schemes worked out.

ficult to figure how the Phililes can hope to outlast the Braves. Stallings is too much stronger in the box and around the infield. Man for man, the Braves look better in at least six of the nine official spots. And they have it, whatever the bally game.

April and August

We have seen a number of ball clubs rise up in April and May with the cham plonship aspect. But August is another month-and only those clubs, as a general rule, can hold out that get the pitching. Strong pitching only can hold a sligping club together. Minus this only a great machine in other ways can stay put, and there are no great ing quiet and only collecting about $2000 a week here and there through the Middle West. Hardly a cent more, blast the rotten luck!

> About the only thing the National Com-mission is now willing to grant the Play-ers' Fraternity is permission to select the deepest spot in the Atlantic Ocean and dive for the bottom.

> PHILS' AND ATHLETICS' BATTING AVERAGES

Below are the batting records of the local taseball clubs, including games played yester-day:

ATHLETICS. R. 14 8 12 App McAvo; ibre, for Cravath alone is equal to any two average outfield fusileers.

PPILLIES A.H. R. 27 0 26 8 H. T.B. S.B.P.

10 境 WILLARD'S SHARE WAS $13,000

Champion Made "a Little" in Defeating Jack Johnson.

CHICAGO, April 23 .- Thirteen thousand dollars was the sum Jess Willard re-Unless another upset occurs, it is dif- ceived for defeating Jack Johnson at Havana, the heavyweight champion told friends here. "Johnson received $30,000, and when I defend my title I am going to get the same amount of money he did." Willard said. The champion handed Charles Cutler, the wrestler, who first attempted to develop him as a heavyweight boxer, a check for $1250 as compensation for the Chicagoan's services. Cutler obtain-ed a judgment against Willard in Mil-waukes for $2500, but when they met yesterday a compromise was reached and Cutler cut the judgment in half.

Cutler cut the judgment in half.

Street Run Tonight

Local athletes are invited to take part in the two-mile "all-for-glory" street, run tonight from the West Branch Y. M. C. A., 52d and Sansom ptreets, at 7.30 octock. At 6.30 p. m. a photographer will take a picture of the West Branch indoor athletic squad.

proposed the pocket-edition green, is the abroad several times, came to this coun-of it will be on the site of the battle of Residents of the suburb, which has greens are one-tenth regulation size. Long

Germantown

TINIEST GOLF COURSE

Play-To Form Club.

'man of the hour." say the Manorites. Professional golfers who laid out the links right in the centre of the manor say that it will be difficult even for the most seasoned golfer to round the nine holes in less than 27. Hazards had to be manu-factured, but the bunkers and "traps" are so cleverly devised that "slicers" will have to use as great a care on their temper as they would foozling on a man's size green. The shortest distance between holes is 23 yards and the longest drive must be restrained to a 73-yard trap. The new restrained to a 73-yard trap. The new club will have about 60 members and the meeting for organization tomorrow eve-ning will be in an old tenant house on the property which was formerly occupied by dependents of the historic Carlton family, Edwin I. Atlee is president of the new club; E. H. Fitch, vice president, and John M. Wood, secretary and treasurer. The official name of the club is the "Queen Lane Manor Golf Club."

EVANS AND EGAN IN FOURTH

ROUND OF COAST TOURNEY

Pair Defeats Walter and Wilhelm in Amateur Meet.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.-Charles (Chick) Evans and H. Chandler Egan passed into the fourth round of the Panma-Pacific Exposition amateur golf ournament yesterday by defeating Dr. C. H. Walter, of San Jose, Cal., and Rudolph Whilhelm, of Portland., Ore., respectively.

E. P. Bankard, of Chicago, and Harry Davis, of San Francisco, won their matches in the third round, Bankard de-Davis, feating Robin Hayne, the northern Cali-fornia champion, and Davis defeating W. F. Garby, of Burlingame, Cal.

E. S. Armstrong defeated A. A. French, both of Los Angeles. Jack Neville lost to Heinrich Schmidt, both of Claremont Club,

Six Races Dally-including a steeplechase. Special Trains - Penna. R. leave Broad St. 12:34 p. m., West Phila, 12:38 p. m.; B. & O. leave 24th and Chestnut Sis 12:45 p. m. Admission, Grandstand and Paddock, $1.50. Ladles, $1.00. First Race at 2:30 p. m.

TOMORROW NIGHT-TOMORROW NIGHT National A. C. 11th & Catharine Sts. JACK McCARRON vs. TOMMY TEAGUE SAM ROBIDEAU vs. AL THOMAS

OLYMPIA A. A. Broad & Bainbridge MONDAY NIGHT, 8:30 SHARP GEORGE CHANEY vs. EDDIE O'EKEEFE Adm., 25c., Bal. Bes., 50c. Arena Bes., 70c. $1 PHILLIES vs. BOSTON Game at 3:50 P. M. Admission, 25c, 50c and 75c. Box Seats, $1. On sale at Gimbels' and Spaldings'.

such a proposition.

try about 11 years ago and finished second to Harry Vardon in the United States Golf Association open championship. Duncan also was in this country a few seasons ago.

Although never a champion Duncan has long been recognized as one of the leading professionals in Great Britain. He is probably the quickest of all exponents of the game, 'either amateur or "pro."

COLUMBIA CREW IN SPEEDY TRIALS FOR PENN MEET

Quakers to Clash With New Yorkers on May 8.

NEW YORK, April 23.-The Columbia varsity eight showed surprisingly good form in a four-mile row last night, ending with a brush with the junior boat, in which the second combination was out-distanced by half a dozen lengths in a little more than a mile. The varsity eight rowed together in better style than at any time since the shake-up of a month ago, and the boat traveled with a splen-did run between strokes, even when the beat was raised to 56 in a sprint at the end. Rice sent his freshmen out in shells, but he didn't let them try any sprinting The youngsters do not have a race until they go to Poughkeepsie, and Rice will bring them along gradually, putting plen-ty of emphasis on the early season work. The varsity eight has its first race on when it meets Princeton any May 8. Pennsylvania on Carnegie Lake.

RACES TODAY

At HAVRE DE GRACE

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA RELAY CARNIVAL

TWENTY-SIX EVENTS TODAY Medley Relay Championships and Other New Fratures-College Championship Pentathian Decided FRANKLIN FIELD, S F. M. Gen. adm. 50 cla. to all parts of the grounds.

NATIONAL LEAGUE PARK

EVENING LEDGER MOVIES-THEY ARE THERE TODAY, CLARISSA, THE BEST OF THE NATION, ON FRANKLIN FIELD

Phillies vs. Braves already shown that they can absorb the worst that Fate has to offer and still swarm back to the assault with unfalter-ing courage. Which is quite a chunk of