

PERSONS AND SCENES THAT FIGURE IN THE DAY'S NEWS OF A WORLD'S ACTIVITIES AT HOME AND ABROAD

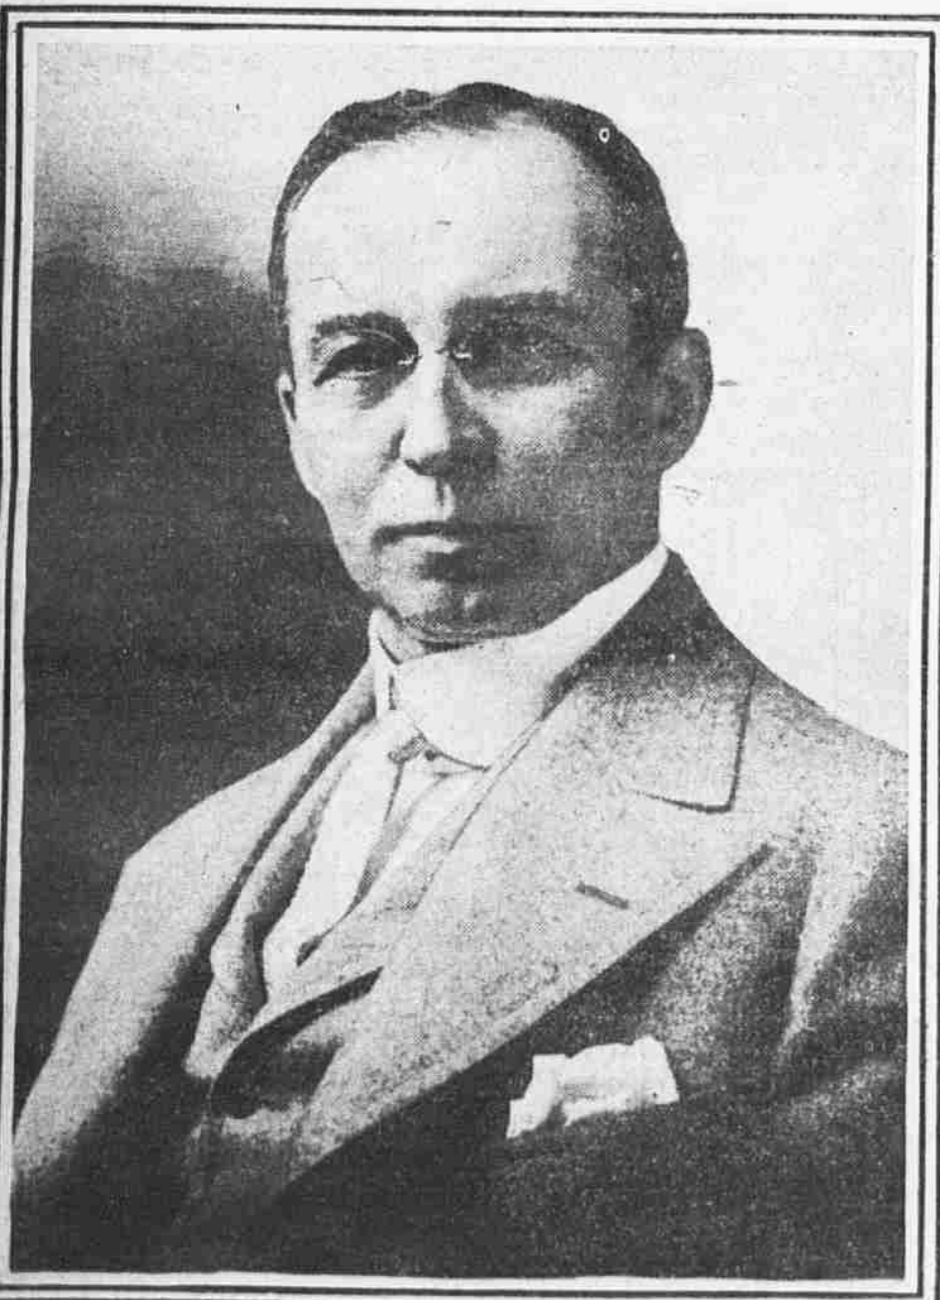

CHILDREN OF RITTENHOUSE SQUARE MOURN AT GRAVE OF DEPARTED "TOM"

Here in order, from left to right, are John Elliott, Jr., John P. Wheeler, Elizabeth Ellison, Frederick Gilmore, Jean Calbert, Ella Wilson, Ellen Howland, Francis Gilmore, Sarah Ellison and Thomas Stewart, keeping green the memory of "Tom Rittenhouse," the cat whose grave is the only one in the square.

YOUNG MEN PROMINENT IN CLUBBING

Howard Butcher, at left, is a member of the Union League and Merion Cricket Clubs and likes military things. With him is Chester N. Farr, Jr., a lawyer

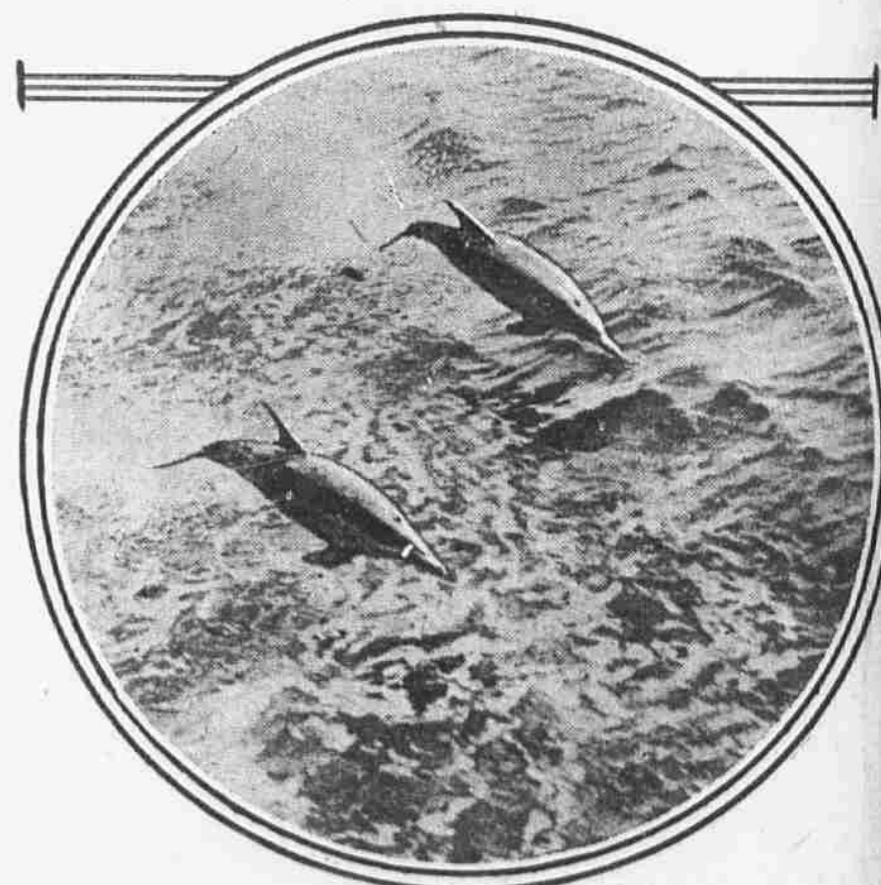

URGES "DRY" MARCH ON CAPITAL

Dr. E. C. Dinwiddie, superintendent of the Washington Anti-Saloon League, proposes that prohibitionists march on Congress and demand laws to kill the saloon.

FUTURE MARINE AND HIS SERGEANT FRIEND

Earl Morris, 6 years old, had rather be in the Marine Corps than be even a fireman. It is his greatest delight to chat with Sergeant Thomas G. Sterrett, of the Arch street recruiting office, which he constantly haunts.

SPRING TIME GAMBLERS OF THE SEA

Even the porpoises feel the season's cosmic urge, as is shown by this pair leaping simultaneously out of the waves off the Jersey coast. A rare feat in photography.

AMERICAN HOSPITAL CORPS RECEIVE AUSTRIAN THANKS AT BUDAPEST

Miss Clara Schofield, of Cleveland, O., who sends this picture, is third from the right. Next to her, on the right, is Miss Mary Graham, of Philadelphia. The photograph was taken the day Austrian and Hungarian officials presented the written thanks of their governments, shown in the nurses' hands.

THEY'RE PROUD OF THEIR BACKYARDS ON WALTON AVENUE

This picture was taken looking west from 50th street. Residents here believe in backyards that are good to look upon. Flowers blossom instead of the usual ash heaps, and green plants instead of tin cans greet the eye of the housewife who pauses to look out of the rear windows.