IMPURE MILK DEADLY

Germs Multiply if It Is Warm, Health Bulletin Says.

Tuberculosis, scarlet fever, diphtheria, typhoid fever and infantile ailments can all be caused by impure milk, according to the weekly bulletin of the Department of Health and Charities, which warns householders to guard the fresh milk used in their kitchens.

"It is just as necessary to keep the milk clean at home as to request care from the dealer," says the report. "If the milk is not kept cool until used and is allowed to stand in a warm room, germs will rapidly multiply. The milk bottle should be taken at once and placed in the refrigerator. If you can't do this, you should place a box containing a lump of ice on the porch or doorstep to receive the milk."

W. S. Tilling, an iron and steel manufacturer, with offices in the Real Estate Trust Building, returned with his family from an automobile ride last night to find a thief at work in his home at 229 West Upsal street, Germantown. The thief was discovered in Mrs. Tilling's bedroom on the second floor with the door locked when Mrs. Tilling went upstairs. By the time assistance could be summoned and the door opened the thief had escaped by jumping through a window. Two pearl stickpins and a purse containing $10 were stolen.

SCRAPPLE

Dentist—Open wider, please—wider.
Patient—A-A-A-Ah.
Dentist (inserting rubber gag, towel and sponge)—How's your family?

—Lampoon.

"You started before I was ready. I'll have the law on you for this!"

"Now, then, old submarine—none of yer frightfulness!"

—Punch.

A Reasonable Theory?

Boss—No; we have all the men we need, Laborer—Seems like you could take one more, the little bit of work I'd do.—Judge.

THE PADDED CELL

Thorough

The way they do things in some of the odd corners of the British Empire, where they are comparatively free from wireless telegrams, is unique, if thorough. The officer in charge of a certain hinterland received from his superior officer at the base some time in August this message: "War has been declared. Arrest all enemy aliens in your district." With commendable promptitude the superior officer received this reply: "Have arrested seven Germans, four Russians, two Frenchmen, five Italians, two Rumanians and an American. Please say who we're at war with."—Argonaut.

Left a Clue

Wife—Oh, Dick, I've lost my diamond ring and can't find it anywhere.
Husband—It's all right, dear. I found it in my trousers' pocket.

"Well, old chap, has the war affected you financially?"

"Financially? Why, laddie, I positively haven't been able to borrow a bob for over a fortnight."

—London Mail.

Esprit versus Kultur

—London Opinion.

Herr Hammerschlegel (winding up the argument)—I think you iss a stupid fool!

Monsieur—And I sink you a polite gentleman; but possible, is it, we both mistaken.

A "Saying"

"Every man," said Uncle Eben, "thinks he's right mos' of de time. An' de res' of de time he thinks his mistakes is puffeckly excusable."—Washington Star.

Percy's Progress

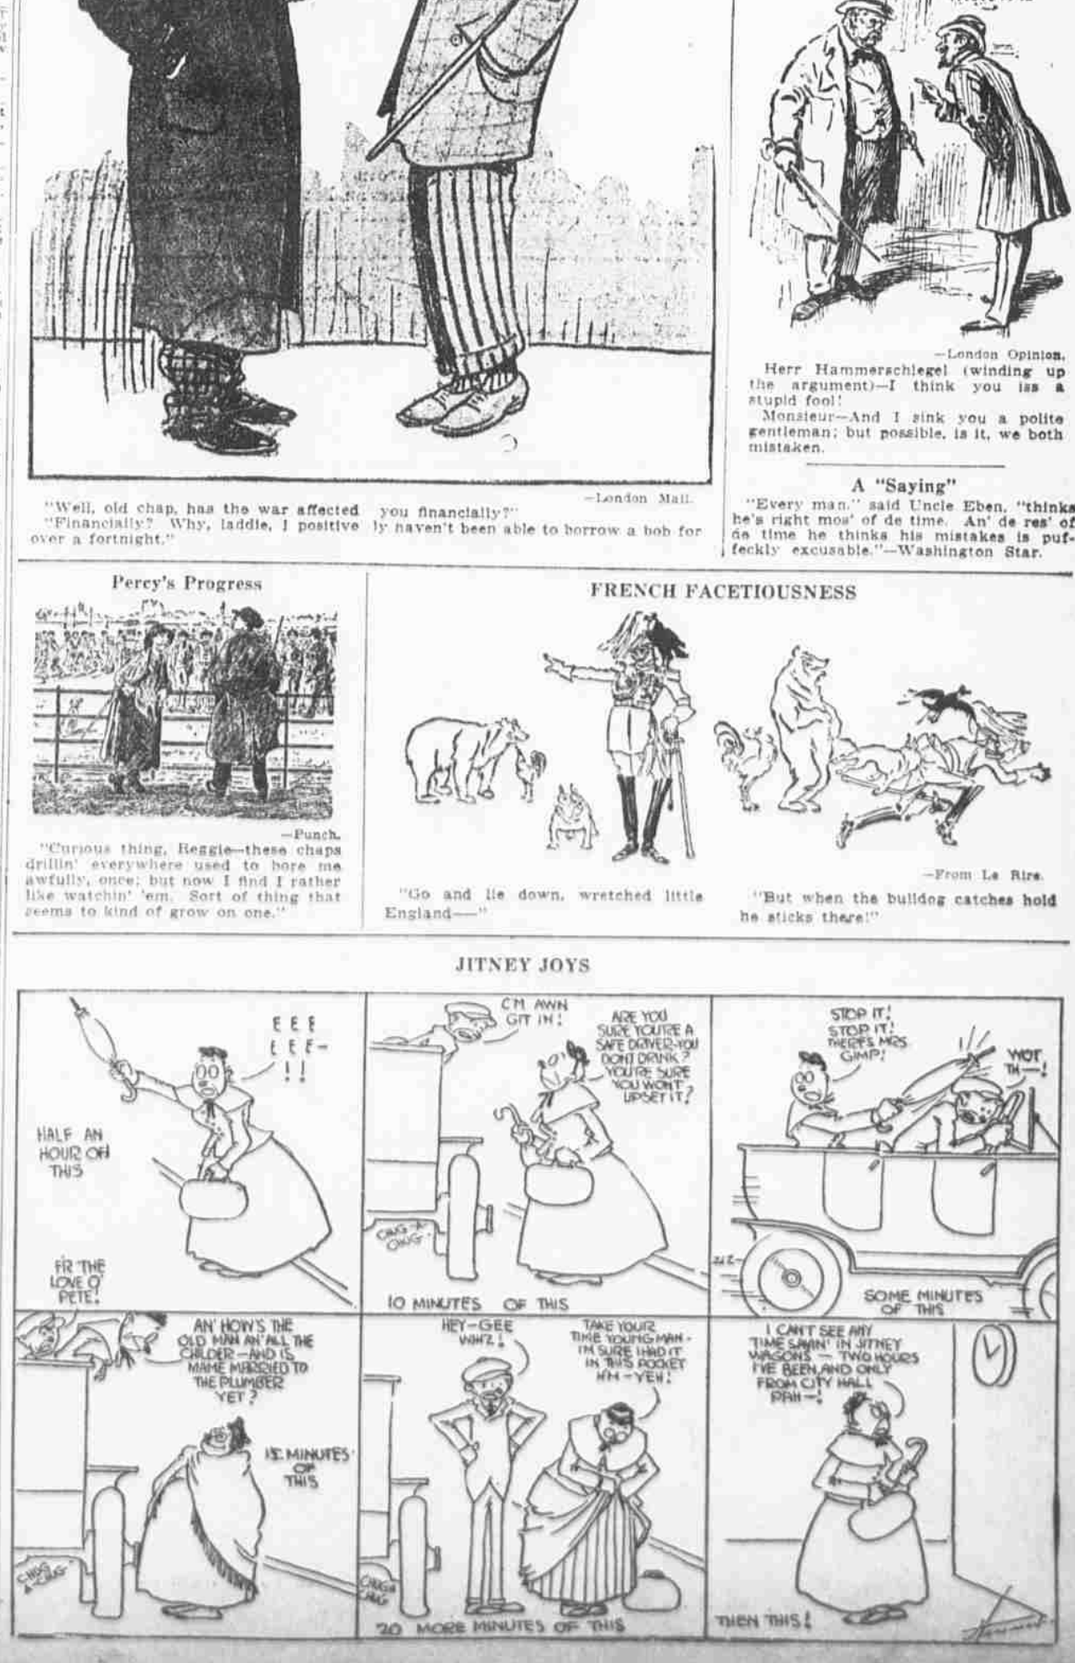
—Punch.

"Curious thing, Reggie—these chaps drillin' everywhere used to bore me awfully, once; but now I find I rather like watchin' 'em. Sort of thing that seems to kind of grow on one."

"Go and lie down, wretched little England——"

FRENCH FACETIOUSNESS

—From Le Rire.

"But when the bulldog catches hold he sticks there!"


JITNEY JOYS
