EVENING LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, THURSDAY, APRIL 29, 1915:

BOSTON BOWLERS ROLL IN TOURNEY TONIGHT

Prizes Aggregating $20,000 Offered by Atlantic Coast Association-Gov. Walsh Invited.

BOSTON, April 29 .- The international bowling tournament carnival of the Atissuic Coast Bowling Association starts pero this evening on 16 alleys in the Mechanics' Building. It will last three days, cash prizes aggregate $29,000. Governor walsh, of Massachusetts, has promised to throw the first ball down the runs.

The alleys are divided between tenpins. duckpins and candlepins. Special prizes are offered for high scores for individuals, two-men and five-men teams that enter all events. This is the first big tournament where duck and candlepins have been featured.

As an addition to the tournament there is a The Dansant, where 500 couples can dance and enjoy professional tangoing exsibilions. There is also a Midway, where various attractions are offered.

The 16 scoreboys will wear a headgear elephone, which enables them to have direct communication with the umpires.

Legal Term

The office boy in a law office of this town himself hopes to be a lawyer some day. He has begun his studies already by asking questions of the clerks whenever he hears a legal term about which he desires information.

O AND NOW HE'S SAT HERE FOR TWO HOURS WITH A TU-SWATTER IN KACH HAND, PRE TENDING TO BE ASLEEP, AND NOT A TLY HAS COME ROUND

The other day he approached one of the clerks with this question: "What do they mean by a contingent

"It's like this," explained the clerk. "If you lose the case your lawyer gets nothing; if you win you get nothing."-New York Times.
