EVENING LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, SATURDAY, MAY 1, 1915:

USTRIAL PEACE PROSPECTS BRIGHT

.....

etary of Labor and Member of Mediation Board Take Optimistic View of Situation.

WASHINGTON, May 1 .- "Successful rogress has marked the course of la par arbitration throughout the last year and conditions are favorable for peace in the labor world during the next year." This statement was made today at the office of Secretary of Labor Wilson. "Conditions are as favorable today as hey were this time last year so far as milroad strikes are concerned," said adge Martin A. Knapp, of the United States Board of Mediation and Concilia-tion. "If anything, the prospects for in-dustrial peace are more favorable for the part year than they were on May 1, 1914."

Norristown Carpenters Strike NORRISTOWN, Pa., May 1-Building perations in this city were blocked to-ay by a strike of carpenters, who refuse accept the wage scale under which have been working. The carpen-object to working with higher paid brought from Philadelphia.

Pittsburgh Bricklayers Quit Work PITTSBURGH, May 1.-The first gun in he threatened building tie-up was fired als morning when the bricklayers stopred work on all contracts all over the Filtsburgh districts, calling the first big strike of the organization since 1892. There are a number of issues involved, principally an increase in wages from 70 to 75 cents an hour for an eight-hour day or 16 a day.

Plumbers Strike for Eight-hour Day JOHNSTOWN, Fa., May L-Journey-men plumbers of this city went on atrike today to enforce their demands for an eight-hour day at $4.50 a day.

WOMAN LEAPS WHEN FLAMES ENVELOP HER

Rescuer Faints at Top of Stairway-She Jumps, But Burns Will Cause Death.

woman, ablaze from head to foot. mped from the third to the second floor of 462 North Franklin street early today, when a man carrying her from a burning room in an attempt to reacue her collapsed at the head of the stairway. She is Mrs. Elizabeth Borneman. The man is David Scott. Both are at the Hahnemann Hospital and the woman is expected to die within a few hours. On the way to the hospital Mrs. Borne-man told Patrol Sergeant Gregory, the 15th and Vine streets station, that some one had set her room afire. Acting Detectives Kearse and Titus, of the 10th and Buttonwood streets station, are in-vestigating this, but they think the blaze was sarted by a cigarette carelessly thrown into a pile of papers. Magistrate Belcher made an unsuccessful attempt to get a statement from the woman later at the hospital, but she was unconscious. Scott is in a serious condi-tion, but physicians think he will recover. The fire started at $:30 o'clock this morn he he started at $30 o clock this morn-is. Mrs. Laura Myers and Mrs. Esther wain. who have rooms in the second our of the house, heard a acream from be third floor. They ran out into the allway and the next moment the blazing orm of Mrs. Borneman shot downward up the hellway. The two women extin the hallway. The two women extinished Mrs. Borneman's flaming clothing wrapping her in blankets. Iremen found Scott unconscious at the end of the stairway. They had little rouble getting control of the flames, high were confined to one room.

BOTH SIDES SHOW COLORS

ARMISTICE FOLLOWS SHOTS FIRED AT HOSIERY MILL

Saturday Closing of John Blood Co.'s Factory Brings Truce.

The Saturday closing of the John Blood Co.'s hostery mill, at 7th and Somerse streets, was welcomed today by residents of the neighborhood who fied to rear cooms and cellars late yesterday when a crowd of strikers hurled stones and fired revolvers at men who had replaced them in the mill. The mill does not run on Saturday and no trouble is expected

Police will be on duty Monday at the opening hour of the mill to prevent other attacks and will take steps to prevent disorder during the day. Several shots were fired in the riot yesterday, but so far as could be learned no one was nlured bullet fired from the crowd which at tacked the strikers struck the window o the home of Mrs. Annie Mathewson, 303 North 7th street. When police of the Parl and Lehigh avenues station arrived the flotors had field. No arrests were made. The trouble has been growing since last Monday, when several entployes were diacharged.

RUSHING VOTE COUNT TO QUICKEN TRANSIT

Judges Expected to Order Canvass Monday-Report Thursday to Councils.

Judges Audenried and Davis took their daces in Room 295, City Hall, at noon teday to arrange for the official count of the vote cast at the special $6,000,000 transit loan election Thursday. It is understood FOR THE TRANSIT that the Judges will order the count to begin on Monday morning in order that proper PLAN certification of the passage of the loan may be made before Councils meet on Thursday.

fore Councils meet on Thursday The immediate start on the actual trad-it construction will then be directly de-endent upon. Councils. Considerable egislative routine remains to be disposed before any construction contracts can let, but if the leaders in Councils agree all necessary bills paving the way transit can be passed before July 1.

The status of the 90-day option clause in the 1997 agreement with the Philadel-phia Rapid Transit Company, which re-quires that the company will be given 90 days to accept or reject any extension o the existing street railway lines, is stil much in doubt. Director Taylor has de clared the clause inoperative in the cases of the proposed Broad street subway and the proposed Frankford elevated, but Councilmen have taken the contrary view. While this may be the cause of a coniderable delay, there is even a greater langer. There is a rumor of a coming taxpayer's suit to test the constitution ality of employing the personal prop-erty tax as a basis for increasing the city's borrowing capacity for transit improvements. The rumor is vague but persistent.

SUICIDE'S WIFE MAY DIE OF SHOCK-BABY WEEK OLD

Hunter Brooke's Company Says Accounts Were Right.

Funeral arrangements are being made today for J. Hunter Brooke, society and club man, who ended his life early yesterday between the graves of his parents in the Media cemetery by shooting himself in the head. The funeral probably will take place at Media at the home of Brooke's aunt, Mrs. George M. Lewis. So far relatives have not been able to explain the motive of the suicide. A detailed statement has been issued by the Weyman Bruton Snuff and Tobacco Company, New York, of which Brooke was secretary and treasurer, declaring

BRYN MAWR WINNERS From the top down are Misses Gladys Cassel, Alice Worrall yrne and Rebecca Joachim, all Philadelphia girls to whom special scholarships at Bryn Mawr

6 WILLS IN PROBATE: HEIRS TO RECEIVE $25,000

College have been awarded.

Henrietta Thompson Leaves $12,000 Fortune-Estates Appraised.

Among the wills admitted to probate to-day was those of Henrietta Thompson, who left $12,000; Maria Stott, $3600; Mary A. Ahern, $3500; Lidle M. Himmelwright, $2641; James Datly, $2500, and August Scath From Soelk, $2000. Personal property left by John B. Wil-

Forsonal property left by John B, Wil-kinson has been appraised at $15,352,55; Hannah W, Eisen, $12,002,59; Mary G, Logan, $5760; Mary Nichels, $5053,67; Wil-liam F. McCandless, $2553. TRIES TO BRAIN WIFE

Woman Removes Furniture From

Home She Left-May Die. A man accused of beating his wife over the head with an iron pipe as she lay sleeping in her sister's home, was held in $1500 bail for court today by Magistrate MacFarland in the 3d and Dickinson streets police station.

He is Herman Lissansky, of 1540 South 2d street. According to testimony given at the hearing this morning, Mrs. Lissansky left her husband seven years ago and went to live with her sister at 227 Tasker street. Yesterday she is said to have sent a

UNDERTAKER'S HORSE BOLTS, KILLING HIM

Returning Fro mFuneral, Animal Is Frightened by Kite and Crashes Into Coal Wagon

John J. White, of 2340 Fitzwater street, a widely known undertaker, was instantly killed in front of his home last night, when a horse drawing his undertaking wagon bolted and ran into a coal cart. White, who was 50 years old, sustained s fractured skull and his neck was broken According to the police Mr. White was returning to his home after a funeral and was within a few yards of his front door when several boys flying a kits passed directly in front of his horse. The animal reared and dashed over Fitzwater street toward 22d. At the latter corner a heavily laden cart of the Hancock Coal Company was drawn up against the curb.

The undertaker tried to guide his frightened horse past the obstruction. The animal refused to heed the reins and dashed at full speed into the heavler vehicle. White was catapulted from his seat and struck the curbstone with enough force to break his neck. One of the first to reach the spot after the ac-cident was Edward J. White, a son of the injured man. He hurried his father to the Polyclinic Hospital, but doctora said death had been instantaneous. Mr. White was a Knight of Columbus and secretary of several building and loan associations. He was a member of the Foresters of America, St. Vincent de Paul Society and St. Anthony's Church. He had been in the undertaking business for more than a quarter of a century, and was widely known in the southern sec-tion of the city.

PLUCKY AUTOIST DRIVES HOME

Son of Magistrate Emely Slips From

Walter Emely, son of Magistrate Emely, of the Front and Master streets police station, is home again today, in spite of the efforts of physicians and nurses to prevent him leaving the Reading General Hospital. Bandaged, and with 11 stitches in his right leg, he slipped from the hospital and drove his Emely, who is a traveling salesman, vas on his way to Sandusky, Ohio, yeserday morning, when he stopped over on the crest of Mount Penn, near Read-ing. The machine "backfired" as he was cranking it and he was knocked uncencious, receiving bad cuts on his right leg and arm. He was driven to the hospital where, after being treated, he slipped out late in the afternoon and came home.

CAPITAL NEWSIES ORGANIZE

at Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, May 1.-Newsboys of Harrisburg to the number of 75 met last night and formed the Harrisburg Newsys' Association and elected the follow-

Treasurer, Arthur Koplowitz,

Samuel Sefrin and Fred Houston also

UNCLE SAM SECTION.

The Uncle Sam section, an aggregation in which beauty and youth predominated called forth round after round of applause

COURT WILL GIVE LIGHT the morning and the clouds depressingly heavy, the suffragists were not downcast

OLD SOL A FRIEND OF SUFFRAGE. "It never has rained on a suffrage parade day," said they optimistically and went ahead with their preparations. "Old Sol always comes out for suffrage. He's a friend of ours."

The six ambulances provided by the Woman's College Hospital and the Women's Southern Homeopathic Hospital to take care of the "wounded" or "all in" pilgrims found themselves with singularly little to do and if General Von Hindenburg had been stationed in the reviewing stand at Broad and Race streets or up at the Metropolitan where the parade disbanded for the mass-meeting he'd have mane an instant bid for such hardy material.

LEADERS ADDRESS MEETING. Undaunted by her long walk and regardless of the fact that she did not arrive from New York until noon, where she has been speaking, Doctor Shaw took the tage in the Metropolitan Opera House and delivered an extemporaneous address. She was followed by Madame Aine Malmberg, the Finnish feminist, and Mrs. Antoinette Funk, of Washington. Tonight street meetings will be held throughout the city, and many of the movie houses will insert suffrage slides in their regular programs.

Parade Information

March began at 3 o'clock. The line of march was up Seventh street to Market, to Broad street, to the Metropolitan Opera House, at Broad and Poplar streets. Parade formation as follows:

Division 1-Dr. Anna Shaw, na-tional and State officers, with band; executive board, parade committee and speakers. committee and speakers. Division 2—Philadelphia Suf-frage Pioneers, Woman Suffrage Society of the County of Philadel-phia, Pennsylvania Limited Equal Suffrage League, Woman Suffrage Party of Philadelphia, 1st to 26th Districts; county delegations, pro-fessional women, Pennsylvania Collega Equal Suffrage League fessional women, Pennsylvania College Equal Suffrage League, Equal Franchise Society of Philadelphia, Campfire Girls, school children, suffrage map, business women and tradeswomen, Univer-sity of Pennsylvania students; Pennsylvania Men's League, High-land Guard Pipe Band.

Division 3-Indorsing organizations, visiting suffrage leagues utomobile section. Bureau of Information, Farm Journal Building, South Washington Square. Mass-meetings will be held at 4.30 in the Metropolitan Opera House after the parade. Don't disband, however, until told to do 80.

FIND 50-YEAR-OLD REMAINS

Long Buried Bones Discovered When they marched along, led by Wilmer At-Digging for Tennis Court. kinson, veteran editor of the Farm Jour-

PHOENIXVILLE, Pa., May 1-While digging for a tennis court in the rear of the Methodist Episcopal parsonage, on Prospect street, workmen found bones of persons buried there many years ago. The place was once a cemetery. It is thought these are the remains of bodies interred there more than half a century ago. A picce of dress goods found, according to persons living in that vicinity, was in a remarkable state of preservation.

Court Aid Appeals for Funds

Funds are needed by the Court Aid arine. Association, which is making an appeal today for public contributions. Donations may be sent to Miss Constance

May hop.

TO PRINTING "GRAFT"

Roosevelt Wins Point When Testimony Relative to Albany "Ring" Is Admitted.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 1-With Colonel Roosevelt's foundation laid for Colonel Rockevelt's foundation laid for the proof of alleged printing graft at Al-bany, by which William Barnes and in-ferentially Charles F. Murphy profited, counsel on both sides of the Barnes-Rockevelt $50,000 libel suit today were hard at work streamthenes their determined.

at work strengthening their defenses. There was no session of court today, the trial being adjourned yesterday afternoon until Monday morning. It was a stinging blow to Barnes, though not exactly unexpected, when Justice William S. Andrews allowed in evi-dence the testimony of Michael B. Dolan, of the Albany Argue, tending to show Barnes' control, not to say monopoly, of the city, county and State printing at the capital.

the capital. When the court refused to allow Wil-liam Loeb, Jr., to tell of alleged vice graft conditions in Albany, in which con-nection Roosevelt's answer to the com-plaint alleged that Barnes' political henchmen out of State jobs profited from gambing and other illegal resorts, it was henced by the plaintif that on the same hoped by the plaintiff that on the same ground the printing evidence likewise would be excluded. Dolan testified at great length, detailing the wheels within wheels whereby the contracts for printing were let. He swore that, in order to obtain printing contracts that, in order to obtain printing contracts at all, the Argus was forced to pay the Journal Company, owned by Barnes, 15 and 20 per cent, of the total contracts. Dolan identified one check from the Argus company to the Journal company and it was exhibited to the jury. Dolan fill resume on the stand Mandau to Sata will resume on the stand Monday to finish his direct testimony and undergo cross-examination at the hands of William M.

Ivins. The Whitman letter still is a tonic of The Whitiman letter still is a topic of absorbing interest, which was not less-ened when Charles H. Duell, Jr., who re-ceived it from Whitman and turned it over to Roosevelt, was expelled from court by Justice Andrews because he ap-plauded the testimony of Senator Fred-erick Davenport, when he compared the reserve when didled this Roma Barnes to a Nero who fiddled shile Rome

This morning Colonel Roosevelt came to the Onondage Hotel and conferred with his attorneys. Barnes went to Albany for the week-end.

QUEEN OF MAY CROWNED AT THE VILLAGE GREEN

Brilliant Ceremonies When Ruler Begins Reign Over Villagers.

The Queen of the May was crowned in festive glory, while her court dancers pirouetted before her and her loyal subjects acclaimed hall to her fair reign on the village green at 25th and Master streets this afternoon. Queen Katharine, who in more presaic terms is Katharine Smith, rules over Athletic Recreation Park, the scene of the May-Day coron-ation. Worthy villagers and neighbors of the district crowded the green to wit-ness the ceremonies and partake in the revelries.

Following the procession of the May folk, the members of Queen Katharine's court gave greeting, with May song and court save greeting, with May song and dance, to the patricians. Then came the color hearers' review. During the bal-let, the "Dance of the Poppies," the queen was crowned. The jesters' frolic, a dance by maidens, calisthenic and gym-nastic drills by the youths, a minuet by the court stiendants and an Indian dance the court attendants and an Indian dance by boys of the woods followed in rapid succession. The ceremonies closed with a May-pole dance by the village girls. Genevieve Block, Gertrude Fredericks, the court attendants and an Indian danc Helen Heichhold and Katharine Kirsch vere ladies in waiting to Queen Katharine. A grand review of organizations of Athletic Recreation Park and a receasional of the May folk cleared the green of villagers. This was to make room for the track and field events and the baseball game between Second Dutch and Athletic. This evening members of the clubs and classes will hold an annual

Candidates for Mayor of Wilmington

WILMINGTON, Del., May 1.-Today ended the time for Democratic candidates ended the time for Democratic candidates for Mayor to file their names. Dr. J. Harvey Spruance and Charles D. Bird, both of whom have been Mayor of the city, filed their names. There is ex-pected to be a lively-contest between the pair for the position, as both men are popular. It had been expected the are popular. It had been expected that Bird would be unconcord

THE WEATHER

Official Forecast

WASHINGTON, May 1. For eastern Pennsylvania: Generally fair tonight and Sunday; slightly cooler tonight in south portion; gentle to mod-erate winds becoming northwest.

U. S. Weather Bureau Bulletin

144400000824004444

.90 .01

0.05

.58 SW NE W

.30

W WE

WE SA

10018

Cloudy Cloudy Cloudy Cloudy Cloudy Cloudy Cloudy Cloudy

Cloudy Cloudy Cloudy Joudy Toudy

antis City. smarck, N. D. ston. Mass.

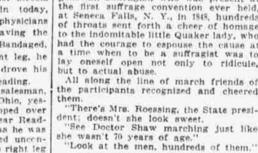

ron. S. D. ksonville, Fia. nses City, Mo. lisville, Ky. mphis, Tenn. v Orleans...

delphia Aris. -Pa. Neb. Og tland, Me... tland, Ore... tbec, Can Louiz, Mo... Paul, Minn... t Lake, Utab. Francisco. anton, Fa...

Pa...

Bird would be unopposed.

nal.

spirited sons."

WILLIAM H. KELLER

Junior member of the law firm of Coyle & Keller and one of the foremost members of the Lancaster Bar, who has been named

Keller is a native of Centre County, but since his graduation from Franklin and Marshall College in 1891 has been a resident of Lancaster. He has been foremost in all civic movements and Society of Lancaster. Mr. Keller is a stanch Republican and was a delegate to the last Republican National Convention, where he supported Governor Hughes for the nomination.

MEN PROUD TO MARCH.

There were more men than have ever marched in a suffrage parade before, it

The huge banners which they carried ore unanswerable arguments. Some of them which the crowds deciphered were: "Public-spirited mothers mean public-

"Paupers, criminals, idiots, children and omen are disfranchised in Pennsylvancounsel for the Law and Order

Deputy Attorney General.

Governor Brumbaugh as

Seventy-five Boys Form Association

ing officers:

President, W. H. Hoffman. Vice president, Morris Koplowitz, Secretary, David Klawanski.

A board of governors of seven members, consisting of the officers and I Darrow,

Women will be found in States where Equal Suffrage has been granted to weigh all question carefully and vote in was chosen. he best interests of the people and the nation-Senator Penrose

Couldn't Pay $80, Attempted Suicide Inability to pay a debt of $50 was the reason given by Richard Mausfner, 7008 Torresdale avenue, for wanting to kill himself by inhaling gas yesterday morn-

WOMEN IN MIGHTY SUFFRAGE PAGEANT Hospital, Though Injured. Continued from Page One genarian suffragist, who was present at automobile the 55 miles from Reading.

is said. Heads up and chests out, proud to give visible evidence of their belief In their women-folks' right to the ballot, Pink Roses and Yellow Chrysanthemums Emblems of the Day.

The pink rose of the anti-suffragists oppose the yellow chrysanthemum of the suffragiats today. These two em-blems, the former, according to its wear-ers, symbolical of the best in womanhood and the latter said by champions of votes for women to signify light and knowledge, will be worn by many thousands today floral display will be contemporary with the great suffrage parade today, supporters of the "cause" desiring to have as many thousands as possible wear their emblem as a pledge that they are for votes for women, while, on the other hand, anit-suffragists wish to show their strength and backing, and will have their emblems for all who will wear them as a sign that they desire the voting tranchise to remain in masculine hands. The emblem and pins of either side can a had at either side's headquarters. The suffragists, at 35 South 9th street or at 1721 Chestnut street, and the "antis" at Chestnut street, their temporary downtown headquarters.

BREWERIES FACE STRIKE

Workers, 2500 Strong, Union Threaten to Walk Out.

Five local unions of brewery and hot-ling house workers, representing a membership of 2500 men, have voted to strike if demands which they will place before the Lager Beer Brewers' Association toare refused. While no date for the walk-out has been decided upon, the ing of the Joint Executive Board of the on at Labor Lyceum, 6th and Brown sets, last night. International Secreresta.

Kugier, of the Brewery Workers' on, attended the session, and his pres-was taken to indicate that thousands employes are on the verge of striking, he strike will affect every brewery in city with the exception of Jacob reiber & Sons. This concern, which ties a well-known beer, employs only nen, but pays a higher scale of wes than the achedule in effect at other il establishments. The average wages the broweries is $17 per week and $14 the bottling houses. The men demanu would increase these ages to $19 and $16 respectively.

urt at Sea; No Doctor; Man Dies heavy block of wood, falling into the the vessel was at sea last week, a and fatally injured Charles Harris, according to the report made to or Captain Denver upon the vessel's a. Captain Denver administered ald for two days, but was unable to Harris' life. He died Monday. day the yessel was run into Norfolk he body landed. Harris was a na-England. The Benheather comes les via Oran, in ballast, to load of grain out.

notit for Narberth Baseball Narberth Glee Club gave a vaude-recommines for the benefit of the Or Basehail Club in Eim Hall shit. Among the local talent tak-M. Among the local talent tak-in the performance were Miss constt. Miss Hilds Smooller, Mise Witherow, Miss Midred Smith, Bestern Miss Theims Fowler, Miss Denny, George Base, Walter William McCargo, Harold William McCargo, Harold William McCargo, Harold William Ward, William Bennas, Watson Gennge, Earl F. Converte The enter-

It is feared today that the shock of the wagon to her husband's home and removsuicide to Mrs. Brooke may result se-riously. She became a mother a week riously. Every effort was made at her Garago. den City home to keep the fact from her, but somehow she learned of her husband's deed. Her condition is now critical.

PENN VS. PRINCETON: STRAW HATS SUPREME

Continued from Page One

many halting moments before the game began in the awful fear that bad weather might delay the summer hat inaugural and force them to face a laughing world for several days yet.

The fellow who bought a new derby hat a month or so ago with the idea of wear-ing it a while and, when forced to a straw, putting it away in the cample cheat to start the winter right next fail, had a poor time. In fact, he never had a chance at all. First a little derisive as he walked in, then a jostle as he sought his seat, then a wild torrent of taunting Finally a relentless hand tore hoots, the hat from his head and he had a last glimpse at it as it bounced like a rubber ball from the stand to the air to disapnear over the end of the stand.

The Penn-Princeton clash draws the aggest crowds of the season at Franklin Field. Aside from the attraction of the fun over the straw hats, the game by some freak of chance is always an interesting contest, and there is an es-pecially keen rivalry between the stu-dents of the two universities. It is the first big girl game on the schedule, and the stands were full of them in bright summer clothes. The Penn cheering sec-tion was jammed to overflowing and Princeton sent down a delegation that rivaled previous records. The Pennsylvania team has not been overing itself with glory this year, but t is expected to give the Tigers a fight oday. The Tigers have what promises to be an unusually good team this year with two pitchers in Deyo and Link, who are much above the average. They have beaten Williams and Cornell. The Quakers, on the other hand, have been struggling along, their greatest weak-ness being their pitching staff. The chances are that Link, who struck out la men against Williams, will be the Tigers' twirler, and that Spielman will pitch for Pennsylvania. The batting order PRINCE/FON. PENNSYLVANIA PENNER, 2b. Armstrong, rf. Irwin, If. Koons, c. Montehol, cf. Wallace, 15. Schimpf, 3b. Spisiman, p. Hanks, if. Gill, ss. Greene, rL Douglass, 1 Hoyt, ef, Shea, 3b, Law, 2b, Salmon, c., Link, p. 16 house last night and assaulted his wife with intent to kill. He was arrested by Policeman Bley, of the 3d and De Lancey streets station. Mrs. Lissansky was rushed to the Mount Sinal Hospital. streets where she is reported in a critical conittion

William Thaw Uninjured

PARIS, May 1.-A letter received from William Thaw, the aviator, dated April saying that all is well with him, ems definitely to disprove the reports of an accident to him.

from the onlookers Garbed in short white skirts and natty taken by fellow employes who frustrated his act, he was held by Magistrate Borie for a further hearing at the Frankford police station today. He was discharged with a reprimand.

Will Celebrate 80th Birthday Four generations will take part in a reception to William Opperman, 743 Spring Garden street, who will celebrate his 50th birthday tomorrow. Mr. Opperman, who has been a basket manufacturer since 1566, is one of the pioneers in the business in Philadelphia. His daughter, Mrs. Min-the Falk, her son, William M. Falk, and year-and-a-half-old daughter will attend the celebration.

sergeant at the Ridge and Midvale av and is about six months old.

iddy blouses with blue collars and red ties and wearing tri-corn white hats decorated with rosettes of red, white and tlue, the girls, led by Miss Caroline Katzenstein, marched along with a verve and snap that was truly inspiring. One of the largest, and perhaps one of the most effective, sections was that of professional and business women. Bearing aloft big banners calling atten-Bearing aloft big banners calling atten-tion to the innumerable lines of work in which women are now co-operating successfully with men, they formed an imposing division. Nurses, doctors, dentists, writers, artists, sculptors, den-tists, writers, artists, sculptors, social workers, stenographers, saleswomen, dressmakers, clerks, lawyers, librarians, muaicians, players, teachers, architects, kindergartners, all were represented.

AUTOS AND JITNEYS IN LINE. The automobile section brought up the rear. Several hundreds of cars had been ionated to the cause, and those who were not physically able to take the walk paid for the privilege of riding at $2 per seat. The ubiquitous jitney was pressed into service, too. Several dozen of them which had gathered at the place of nobilization were hired by women at the mobilization were hired by women at the last minute, who, desiring to go into the parade, felt that the distance to the Metropolitan was too much for them. If the parade was the main event, the street speakers who set up their boxes all along the route and addressed the spectators constituted the side show, and much good promaganda work were seen much good propaganda work was accom-pliahed with the "ready-made" audiences.

SPECTACLE OF VIVID BEAUTY

Policeman Stowman. He picked the chicken up at 29th street and Allegheny avenue, and she wouldn't answer any questions. Stowman then called up the The fakers reaped a rich harvest. As early as 11 o'clock this morning they sergeant at the Ridge and Sudvale ave-nue station. "Send the wagon," he said, "I got a chicken." "The wagon's out," replied the ser-geant, "better keep the chicken with made their appearance in South Washington Square, and by noon the plaza looked like one vast futuristic garden sprung suddenly into bloom.

And the prisoner became quarrelsome. She wouldn't walk one way or the other, and finally Stowman was compelled to carry her from place to place. Every hour he called up and every time he got the same answer, "the wagon's out." In despair, he finally took the prisoner to the station house, and when ahe re-fused to give her name she was slated as "a bird." When brought before Magia-trate Grelis she was charged with va-grancy. No one in the neighborhood seemed to know her and she was held to await identification. Stowman said he ploked the bird up to save it from an attack by a dog which wanted to pluck its feathers. It is attired in yellow feathers and is about siv months old. Brilliant yellow bladder balloons nod-And the prisoner became quarrelsome. ded blithely here, there and everywhere and sold like hot cakes. Gay pennants bearing the slogans, "Victory 1915" and "Votes for Women," waved in the breeze. Many who hadn't quite made up their minds as to whether they approved of women parading or could not resist purchasing, and from curbs and windows the cheery yellow encouraged the women in their tramp. not Few women dropped out. Perhaps it was the ideal weather, or perhaps it was their indomitable courage to go the whole distance. The day meeted es-pecially designed for a sufficient of the second sec Few It is attired in yellow feathers pecially designed for a suffrage parade, and although the sky was overcast in Lancey The organization has been successful in uplift work among delinquent women, and the members have been put to considerable additional expense during the last year owing to the "hard times."

The parade, forming in south Washington Square at 2 o'clock, started at 3 o'clock, the line of march being up 7th street to Market, to Broad, to the Metropolitan Opera House, at Broad and Poplar atreets, where mass-meetings will be held at 4:30. STREET MEETINGS.

(All to be held immediately after the parade preses the designated points.) Washington Square-South stand, Mrs. Holmes in charge; aides, Miss Dorothy Jenkins and Mias Ebbert; speakers, Mrs. Jennie Dornbium, Villiam E. Wright and Mrs. Ella O. Guilford. Stand at northwest corner, Mrs. P. Ethering ton Hughes in charges; aldes. Miss Olivet Rob-(b), Hughra and Mias Mabel Robertson; speakers, Mrs. Scott Nearing, Miss Adella Folter and Miss Densa Ebbort. City Hall plaza-East side, Miss Lucy Lawis in charge; aldes, Mrs. Harrell and Mrs. Wran-sis.

A moderate disturbance is indicated off the Atlantic coast this morning and has caused increasing cloudiness from Marny in New England and New York. Shower also covered a large portion of the Central Valleys the Plans States stand No. 1 (at the south end of the east plaza)-Speakers, Miss Anna McCue, George O. Swarts, Miss Bertha Sapowits and Royd Morrison. piaraj-Speakers, Mias Anna McCue, George O. Swantz, Miss Bertha Sapowita and Royd Stand No. 2 (north of the centre of the east piaza)-Speakers, Mrs. Florence Bayard Hilles, Miss Marker, Miss Anna O. Constabile and Mrs. Jennie D. Dornhlum.
City Hall piaza (north aids)-Miss Julia Lewis in Charge: aldes, Miss Olivet Hobertson and Miss Mabei Robertson.
Stand No. 3 (northeast end of the north piaza)-Speakers, Mrs. Florence Bayard Hilles, Miss Anna O. Constability of the sector of t also covered a large portion of the Central Valleys, the Plains States, and the Far-West during the last 24 hours. The dis-turbance that overlies the Rocky Moun-tains and plateau regions has lost en-ergy to some extent. Seasonable tem-peratures prevail across the northern por-tion of the country, with a slight ex-cess in most of the Southern States. Freezing temperatures are reported from Freezing temperatures are reported from the plateau States.

Observations taken at 5 a. m. Eastern time. Low Iast Rain- Veloc-Station. S a.m. n't fall Wind its Weather

Antic Boaton, M. Boaton, M. Chicasod, O. Vioine, M. Noine, 44 Minn. 44 Minn. 44 Pa. 55 Pa. 55

Potter. Metropolitan Opera House, 4:30 o'clock: Mrs. George H. Wobenamith, in charges aldes, Miss Clivet Robertson and Miss Mabel Robertson: speakers. Mrs. Gvorzo H. Wobenamith, Mrs. William Albert Wood, Miss Dille Hastings, Mms. Alno Halmberg and Miss M. Estelle Rus-sel.

SUFFRAGE SLIDES SHOWN TONIGHT. Theatre, 5th street, above Cambria

reet. Star Theatre, 5th street, above Lehigh avenue. Counte Mack Theatre, Germantown avenue, above Lehigh avenue. Casino Theatre, Broad street, below Erie

Keith's Theatre, 12th and Chestnut streets, EVENING MEETINGS.

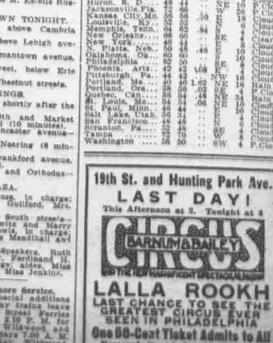

All to begin at 8 o'clock or shortly after the hour. Kalckerbocker Theatre, sôth and Market Streets-Boaker. Miss Russell (10 minutes). William Forn Theatre, Lancaster avenue-bits Russell (5 minutes). Tuluehonken Theatre-Mrs. Nearing (8 min-[feal]. Frankford Thesize. 4711 Frankford avenue. Illue Bird-Mrs. Lowenburg. Calino Thesize. Frankford and Orihodox-dr. Harbert. 8.50. CITY HALL PLAZA.

CITT HALL PLARA. CIT Hall Plaza-Miss Gross in charge: creaters. Miss Folter, Mrs. Guilford, Mrs. Wedonamith and Mrs. Funk. Sorthwest corner ith and South streets-plateman. Miss Borths Sapowits and Harry Ilebran. Miss Anna V. Lawis, in charged shites, Dr. E. H. Moore, Miss Mendihall and Mrs. Leavill.

The E H. Moore, Miss Dr. E. H. Moore, Miss Leavith a and Cambria streets-Speakers, anden. Miss Earch Flaher, Fardiaan ser. Mrs. Long, in charge, aides, ser. Miss Lucy Lewis and Miss Jen-deon. Miss Lucy Lewis and Miss Ruth nd H. Miss CASOT.

Reading's Improved Seashore Service. New scheduls May 2d-Special additions Saturdays only, haif holday trains leave saturd Breest and South Streat Parries O'F. M. for Atlantic City. E10 P. M. for ean City, Stone Harbor, Wildwood, and pa May. Raimrning Weakdays 7.00 A. M. Im Allantic City. Cape May, Wildwood, and he flarbor and Organ City. New Inte-hea at all a provi CO P.

Grand Stand Chairs as point about which all sorts of questions were asked at the hearing of Stanislas Petrowski, father of Vincent: not, by the way, the father of Vincent Palatski, he cause he is Mrs. Petrowski's son by a every charge made by his wife. She had him arrested and Magistrate Glenn at the 4th and York streets station was trying to reconcile them. At last, through the dingy crowd of police station hangers-on. the star witness struggled to the desk-

five-year-old Vincent himself. "I failed out window meself," he called up in a pathetic piping voice to the man on the throne of justice. "Nobody throwed me, and me pop he beat up mom for throwing me. See where I hit m' bean?" and he pointed to his bandaged head, the bandage coming down to the top of his

Who threw Vincent Petrowski out the vindow-Vincent, a pretty little Polish noy five years old? That was a mooted "All right," said the Magistrate, "can't you forgive Stantslas, madam?" But she wouldn't, because, she said, not only had he beaten her, but he had driven the other

Vincent out of the house at 2839 Elkhard street. He was held under $300 bail. It's pretty hard when a "cop" has to go around on his beat all night with a quarrelsome chicken. Such was the lot of Policeman Stowman. He picked the was the accused Pole's reply to former husband. "My wife, she throw the boy out window."

