Globe's New Policy

Beginning with today, the Globe Theatre will join the ranks of the high-class photoplay houses, the opening attraction for the first three days of the week being "A Celebrated Case," based on the famous romantic play of Alexander Dumas. Theda Bara and William E. Shay will enact the principal roles. A private view of the film confirms the general repute that it is one of the most striking which that master producer. William which that master producer. which that master producer, William Fox, has ever turned out.

For the last three days, Valli Valli will be seen in Mrs. Fiske's success, "The High Road," a play of great power.

Tom Ince, vice president and general manager of the New York Motion Fleture Corporation, one of the best known directors in the business, was dangerously injured in Los Angeles by the overturning of his automobile, he being pin-ned under the car. He was on the verge of a nervous breakdown as the result of work on a big production, and the accident may prove very serious, owing to internal injuries.

Mr. Ince is a brother of Raiph Ince.

of the Vitagraph. He will be laid up for some time, according to the present word from the coast.

"A Price for Folly"

One of the most remarkable film stories ever produced by the Vitagraph Company, and but recently completed by George D. Baker, is entitled "A Price for Folly." When Mr. Haker first recelved the manuscript he had instructions to produce it in one part of a thousand feet, with 35 scenes. No less than three people lost their lives in the original short story, and the action was so crowded with dramatic situations, so powerful to sway the human emotions and so full of the "meat" that makes for a feature picture, Mr. Baker kept adding, first scenes, then reels, until, when the negative was turned in, the film story measured 7000 feet, with 270 scenes. This, later, was cut to five parts, with 182 scenes, the length amounced with 152 scenes, the length announced for release. Mr. Baker had accomplished the hitherto unheard of feat of completing a five-part story from a one-part manuscript.
The heads of the Vitagraph Company were skeptical as to the "holding" power of this elaborated story, and as a test, assembled the members of the negative, printing and joining departments, numprinting and joining departments, numbering 70, workers who are continually handling film and become immune to the usual film "stunts," and had "A Price for Folly" run, that they might see how it would be taken by a disinterested audience. The unanimous verdict, in the veracular, was "great," and arrangements are now under way for an early release. In the cast for "A Price for Folly," the principal members include Edith Storey, Antonio Moreno, Charles Kent, Louise Beaudet, Charles Kent Brown and Harry Beaudet, Charles Kent Brown and Harry

The Film Came Back Exchangemen know what it means to have a real of pictures come back with a hundred feet or so missing. Sometimes the lost film is recovered; more times it is not. Who takes it, and what they do with it is not always clear, but operators are suspected of making these cut outs.

MISS BELLA FLOCK whose engagement to Jay Emanuel, of the Exhibitors' Exchange, was announced last night

Joe Miles, of Lloyds Films, who is handling a series of comedy pictures, recently had an experience along these lines that was so unusual he could not resist telling about it. One of the reels he was handling was 150 feet short when he took it. No effort was made to locate the missing part and the reel was continued In service. The other day when the pic-ture came back to the Lloyds Film ex-change for inspection, behold the missing 150 feet had been restored. In all his long experience Joe declared that this is the first time a piece of film ever came back.

Copies of the Thanhouser two-reel photoplay, "The Final Reckoning," and photoplay. "The Final Reckoning," and the Reliance single reel photoplay. "ANTIS" SHOW GROWTH AT N. J. CONVENTION

Leaders, Both Women and Men, Plan to Fight Suffrage Amendment in October.

TRENTON, May 3.-New Jersey antisuffrage leaders, both men and women, opened an enthusiastic meeting in Masonic Hall this morning for the purpose of planning a vigorous campaign against votes for women in this State. The New Jersey Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage has grown tremendously the past year, and this growth was noted with a great deal of pride when the 27 branch organizations of the body, including twothirds of the counties of the State, made reports this morning.

The president of each branch organizaion reported as to the work and activity of the branch during the year to Mrs. E. Yarde Breese, president of the association, who presided at today's session.

Among the branch presidents in attendance were Dr. Theodora Krichbaum. Montelair; Mrs. Theodore C. Woodbury, Orange; Mrs. Stockton Colt. Elizabeth; Mrs. Sherman B. Joost, Plainfield: Mrs. John R. Emery, Morristown; Mrs. Robert W. Smith, Spring Lake; Mrs. F. V. Thompson, Belmar; Miss Emina L. Bridges, Westfield, Mrs. A. S. Higgins, Mannsquan, Mrs. Henry M. Darcy, Newark; Mrs. Robert C. Maxwell, Trenton, Mrs. Frank M. Stillman, Rahway; Mrs. Thomas P. Graham, Paterson; Mrs. E. J. Waring, Perth Amboy; Mrs. C. Howard McFadden, Hackensack; Miss McKeen, Moorestown; Mrs. Allan L. McDermott, Jersey City; Mrs. J. C. Hutchinson, Sewaren; Mrs. L. C. Read, Camden; Mrs. Burton Hall, Fanwood, Mrs. T. H. Adams, Summit; Mrs. Thomas J. Craven, Salem; Miss Mary Bergen, Haddonfield, Mrs. Charles W. MacQuoid, Roselle; Mrs. Alfred McMurtrie, Boonton; Mrs. Wright Stout, Bloomfield, and Miss Helen A. Price, Newton, Thompson, Belmar; Miss Emma L.

Each leader represented several thousands of women. The meeting today is believed to be the largest demonstration against votes for women ever held in this of the State, headed by Colonni William State. The women, in speeches, declared Libby, of Princeton. Former Chancellot they are thoroughly aroused. Their slogan Magie headed a delegation from that city. from now until election day will be,

The Commonest Mistakes Made in Buying a Player-Piano are:

1—Buying a Player that has not passed the theory stage.

2—Buying a Player upon which you cannot express YOUR OWN feelings as they are swayed by the subtle skill of the composer.

LESTER PLAYER-PIANOS

are not in any sense a theory or experiment. They represent years of careful, scientific study, years of the hardest kind of work, years of successful manufacture.

In support of this we point to the fact that there are more Lester Player-Pianos in active every-day use in Philadelphia than any other high-grade make.

Some players on the market today may sound pretty well to the average ear when heard in the store. They may play fairly easy when you first try them. But when you get them home-oh, what a difference!

We are manufacturers of the Lester Player-Piano. We are right here to back it up, just as we have been for 45 years. Our absolute money-back guarantee goes with every Lester. It MUST give satisfaction. That's why it will pay you to buy from the manufacturer.

Another reason is that by selling direct from our great factories to you we cut out all "in-between" profits of jobber and agent and you can, therefore, get a standard, high-grade instrument as easily as you can one of the inferior makes. Terms absolutely confidential, too. Let us show you how easy it is to own a Lester.
