

Evening ILLUSTRATED Ledger

THURSDAY
May 6, 1915

PERSONS AND SCENES IN DAY'S GRIST OF NEWS FROM HOME AND ABROAD AS CAUGHT BY THE CAMERA

AIR AND SEA COMBINE AGAINST SONS OF EARTH

Photograph by Mgdam Photo Service

A photograph showing recent operations at the Dardanelles. A French hydroplane is seen starting on a scouting expedition. The gunners on the battleships, which are also French, are dependent on such reconnoitering for the accuracy of their fire.

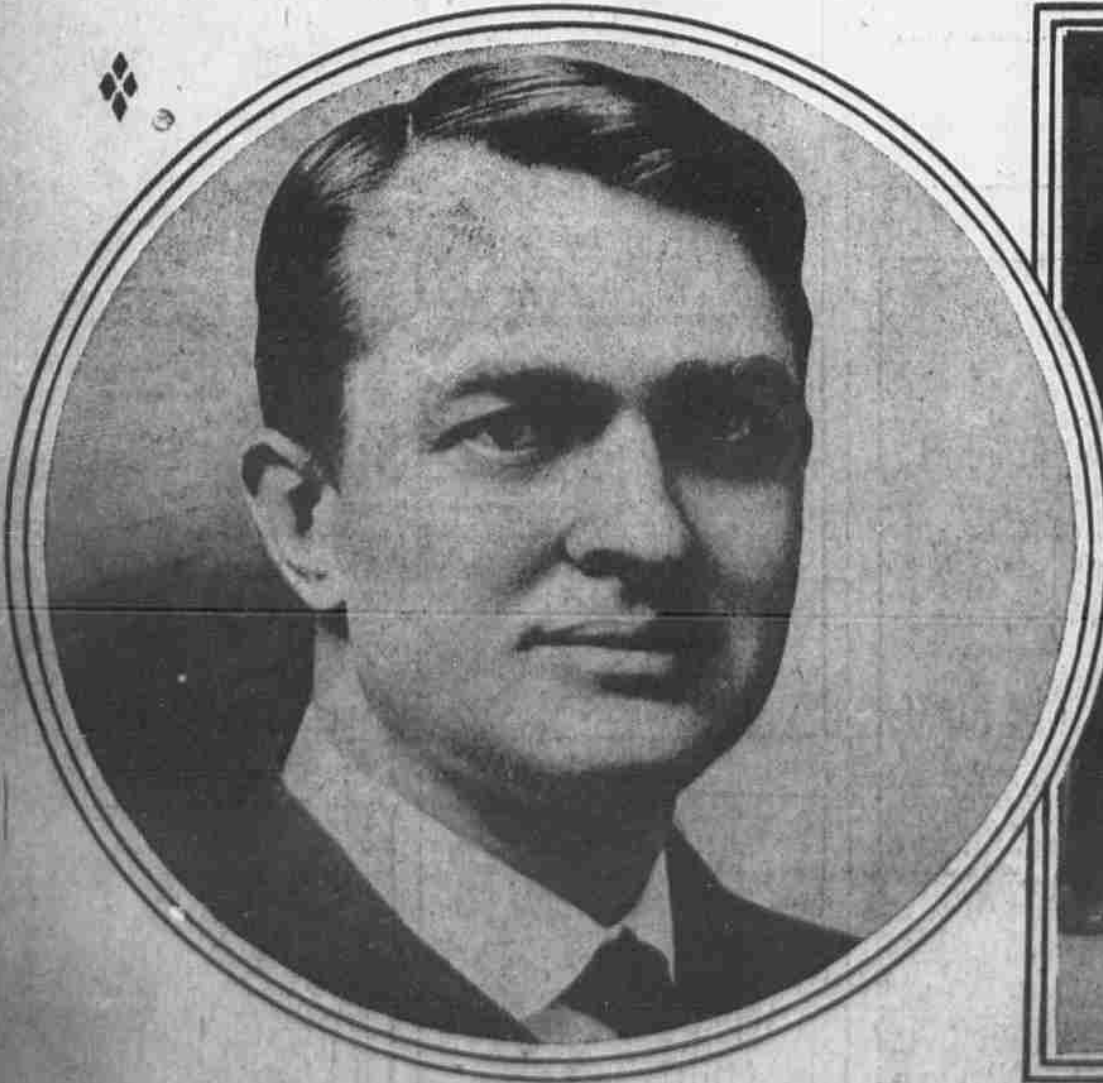

CELEBRATING A VICTORY IN THE ENEMY'S TERRITORY

The guns and ammunition carts shown in the picture are on exhibit in a Polish village, apparently with the intention of showing the inhabitants that the Germans, who captured them, are not yet through on the eastern frontier. —The Germans take great pride in exhibiting these great parks of captured artillery.

HERE TO RAISE FUNDS FOR TROUBLED CHINA

While Japan threatens more darkly each day, Li Sun Ling, envoy to the United States, is trying to negotiate a loan for the Celestial Republic. Agitators have threatened his life.

AMERICAN BECOMES RUSSIAN GENERAL

Dr. Edward H. Egbert, of Washington, D. C., in charge of the American Red Cross Hospital in Kiev, Russia, has been given the rank of brigadier general in the Russian army. His work caught the attention of the Czar.

YOUNG CADETS ON THEIR WAY TO THE NATION'S CAPITAL

They compose the graduating class of Nazareth Hall Military Academy. They started yesterday on a four-day educational trip to Washington, and were caught by the camera when they dropped off at Wayne Junction. On the left is the Rev. S. J. Blum, principal of the academy, and beside him Commandant Major Reusswig. Among the cadets here are William J. Schell, Albert H. Vaux, Jr.; Christopher H. Demuth, Charles E. Kistler, Arthur W. E. Hahn, Frederick Eastwagon, H. Samuel Callan, Harry E. Fischer, Stuart G. Eagle, Lewis E. Young, Earl Leslie Griggs, Charles E. Bray, Bangor, Me.; John H. Schultz, George H. Jones, James H. Paleman, Jr., and Frederick H. Williams, Kingsport, Va.