

THE biggest affair for Monday will be public reception to be held in Conention Hall, Broad street and Allegheny evenue. The committee includes represennatives from Austro-Hungary, Belgium, penmark, England, France, Germany, Ireland, Italy, Russia, Sweden, Turkey Wales, and the occasion will be to ome the 4000 allena who have lately become one and allens who have lately become naturalized citizens.

President Wilson has promised to attend and speak on the occasion.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Howard worts Page, of 1013 Clinton street, will give an auto hus party in honor of her daughter, Miss Edith Nelson Page, who will make her debut next year.

That afternoon Mrs. Joseph W. Wear will ansertain at auction at her residence.

will entertain at auction at her residence in Chestnut Hill, and Mrs. T. Maxwell in Chestnut Hill, and Mrs. T. Maxwell Marryweather will give "a white tea party" at her residence, Ardale, Spring lane, Chestnut Hill, in honor of Miss Mildred Thorpe, whose marriage will take page on June 10 to Mr. Frederick Stanley Whittaker.

All of Wednesday will be taken up by the bazaar and pony show to be held on the estate of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Gathler. Wynnewood. The fair will be open from 1 a. m. until 7 p. m., and the proceeds will be devoted to the Workman Place House. On Wednesday also Miss Margaret Cooper. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Cooper, of 2210 Pine street, will entertain at a luncheon at the Philadelphia Country Club, in honor of Miss Sarah Bescher Finck, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edward Beecher Finck. Mrs. Henry C. Riley and her daughter, Miss Edith Riley, of 250 Harvey street, will entertain at a small breakfast.

Miss Carolyn Sheppard and Miss Milded Sheppard, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A Maxwell Sheppard, of 2124 Walnut street, will give a skating party at the Palace on Thursday. The guests will be members of Miss Irwin's graduating class. A buffet luncheon will follow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard.

Mrs. John Markoe, of 1639 Locust street.

will entertain for several days Mr. George Macaulay Trevelyan, the English his-torian, who will arrive on Thursday. On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. George W. Childs Drexel will entertain at a dinner-dance at their country seat,

w. Childs Drexel will effect and a dinner-dance at their country seat.
Wootton, Bryn Mawr.
Over the week-end Miss Frances West
Bally, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Paul Bally, will give a house party at her parents' cottage in Bay Head.
A luncheon will be given on Friday by Mrs. Rowland Taylor, of 220 West Chelten avenue, in honor of her daughter.
Miss A. Marjorie Taylor. Miss A. Marjorie Taylor.

Saturday Miss Hope Truxtun Beale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Beale, and Mr. Oliver Eaton Cromwell, son of Mrs. Edward Stotesbury, will be guests of honor at a dance to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brooks, Jr., of Baltimore, at their country home, Fort Garrison, in the Green Spring Valley.

Garrison, in the Green Spring Valley.
There will be several weddings of importance on Saturday also. Miss Eleanor Pillsbury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus H. K. Curtis, will become the bride of Mr. Henry Beaumont Pennell, Jr. of Portland, Me., and Miss Katherine Wirt McIlvaine, daughter of Mrs. Henry C. Mclivaine, will be married on Satur-day to Mr. Thomas Wright Rudderow.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Townsend have glosed their town house, 2228 Locust arest, and are occupying their residence en Montgomery avenue, Bryn Mawr, for the early summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Liggett have taken a cottage at Ventnor for the sum-

Mrs. John A. McCarthy is spending sev-sral weeks at Atlantic City recuperating from a serious illness.

Mrs. James Henry Huston, of 118 East Oak avenue. Moorestown, announce huston, to Mr. Howard S. Coe, son of Mr. A. V. R. Coe, of Riverton, N. J. Both Miss Huston and Mr. Coe are well-known tennis players of West Jersey and their friends will be glad to hear of their engagement, as they have been close friends since childhood. The annual luncheon of the Alumnae Association of Mrs. Sutton's and Miss Roney's school was held today at the Bellevue-Stratford. This school for Siris was established in 1570 by Mrs. Annie M. Sutton, who was joined some years later by Miss Mary Elizabeth Roney. Sutton died in Dinard, France, in July, 1900. In that year Miss Belle Roney, the efficient head of the primary department, became associate principal. A few years age the Misses Roney gave up the larger work at Bala, and have since conducted a day school at 3931 Walnut street. The lumnae of this school is widely scattered, Japan, Hawaii, Trinidad and European countries being represented on its roll. The officers of the present year are: President, Miss Hazel DeWolfe Downs; vice president, Mrs. Daniel Sheaffer; secretary, Mrs. Allen R. Bartholomew; treasurer, Miss Florence C. Irish.

Along the Main Line

MERION.—Miss Adams, of Frankfort, Germany, who is now the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Horatio Connell, will, with her host and hostess, be entertained informally at dinner on Saturday night by Mr. and Mrs. John D. Carlile at their home on Merion avenue. Merion avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cunningham and Mes Cunningham, who have been motor-Miss Cunningham, who have been motoring through Lakewood and New York State, are expected home this week.

Miss Alice Winder, of Baltimore, who has been visiting her sister and brotheris-iaw, Mr. and Mrs. G. Wilson Heaton.

at Earkeley and Wynnewood roads, has returned home. Mrs. Edward Lloyd Winder, of Baltimore, is spending the month of May with Mr, and Mrs. Heaton.

ARDMORE .- Mr. and Mrs. Reuben B. Clark are spending the month of May with Mrs. Clark's mother, Mrs. E. A. Godshalk, Valley and Mill Creek roads. Mr. and Mrs. Clark will open their Cape May Cottage June 1.

Ar. and Mrs. Isaac R. Pennypacker, of It Bleddyn road, and the Misess Pennypacker will leave June 1 for Eagle's Mars. where they will spend the summer.

OVERBROOK.—The second of a series of the danagats which are being given at the Overbrook Golf Club every Saturday the Overbrook Golf Club every Saturday stismoon throughout the month of May will take place today. Rehearsals are soing forward for an entertainment to be two own Wednezday, May 26, in the clubions. The evening will be called Franks and a Play," and in addition to a small sketch, entitled "A Model Wife," there will be a black and white dancing thorus and a Japanosa chorus in which has club members will take part. Mr. Fhilip J. Castner is chairman of the entitialment committee. OVERSEOOK - The second of a series of Bala-Cynwyd Mr. and Mrs. William S. Bradly have coad into their attractive new home, isl sim avenue, Sala.

and Mrs. Herbert J. Tily, of Mont-ers arenue, Cynwyd, will give an trad dance in their new garage on examing of Tuesday, May 25.

Along the Reading

Today will be opening day at the Huntingdon Valley Country Club, on Old York road. There will be music, commencing at 4 o'clock and continuing during dinner and throughout the evening. Many din-ners are being planned and dancing will

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hucknell, of 5308 North Camac street, Logan, will enter-tain at cards this evening. Their guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Jerel Oldroyd, Mr. and Mrs. John Storts and Mr. and Mrs. William Kuhn, Jr.

and Mrs. Reiser, of Beechwood School, near Jenkintown Station, Pa., have had as their guests for several days Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shartz, of Chambers-Mr. and 2 burg, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Fries will enter-tain at dinner at the Huntingdon Valley County, Club on Friday evening, May 14.

Miss Olive Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Wilson, of West avenue, Mrs. S. H. Wilson, of West avenue, Jenkintown, will entertain as her guest for several days Miss Dorothy Blair, of Henderson, Ky., who will have many teas and entertainments planned in her honor, as she is the "Santa Claus Girl" of Ken

Mrs. D. A. Hitchner, of 12th street and Chelten avenue, Oak Lane, will entertain the Oak Lane Sewing Circle at her home Monday afternoon, May 10. Her guests will include Mrs. E. B. Neuhauser, Mrs. A. W. Dudley, Mrs. C. Howard Anthoney, Mrs. J. Hall, Miss Lily Marion, Mrs. Louis Beneke and Mrs. Albert Gee.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Magill, of Elkins avenue, Elkins Park, are receiving con-gratulations on the birth of a boy.

West Philadelphia

Miss Elsa Gross, of 809 Preston street entertained the members of the Pai Delta Pat Sorority yesterday afternoon. This meeting marked the closing of the Alpha Chapter, and each member received her sorority ring. Among those present were sorority ring. Among those present were Miss Ruth Appleton, Miss Helen Chatham, Miss Emma Clower, Miss Mildred Conray, Miss Margaret Gillmore, Miss Jenabelle Harkins, Miss Eleanore Long, Miss Genevive Long, Miss Estelle Wood, Miss Margaret Williams, Miss Naomi Ackley, Miss Marguerite Brown, Miss Mabel Hall, Miss Margaret Clair and Miss Marion Wilson. Miss Marion Wilson.

Mrs, Emil Guenther, of Hamilton Court, is receiving this afternoon, from 4:30 until 7 o'clock, in honor of Miss Dorothy Erwin Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Henderson, whose engagement to Mr. J. Jarden Guenther was announced recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mercer Hicks, of the Netherlands, 43d and Chestnut streets, will open their cottage at Chelsea the

The Regal Club will give another subscription dance at the Twentieth Century Club, in Lansdowne, on the night of

The T'raz'l Club, of West Philadelphia, will give its annual spring dance this evening at the Twentieth Century Club,

North Philadelphia

Dr. and Mrs. Henry J. Bartle, of 1727 North 17th street, entertained a number of friends at a luncheon and bridge Thursday evening. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frank X. Connolly, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Clark and Mr. and Mrs

William Bartlett. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rothouse, of 19th and Oxford streets, entertained a num-ber of friends at a luncheon and cards Thursday evening. Covers were laid for

WHAT MILADY WEARS

GOOL one-piece frocks for street wear hold one's attention at this season of the year, and a simply tailored gown of dark-colored serge or crepe is almost a necessity. The ever-becoming white combination of short white skirt and shoes with sweater, hatband and hose of a brilliant color holds first favor in the wardrobe of milady, of whatever age she may be, for country wear. At a recent out-of-doors charity fete the aides were much admired for their simple and be-coming costumes. These were merely white skirts and blouses with shoes and blue crepe de chine made quite simply and worn with a lerge flat blue straw serge is worn by Miss Virginia Rodman. The skirt is made with a number of narow plaits set in at the side, and the

Mrs. William Caner Wiederseim is wear-ng a good-looking one-piece gown for street wear of midnight blue serge, which is braided in bluck. Braid is used on each side of the skirt to simulate pockets. The matron's hat is of dark blue hemp. A trig little walking suit of sage green roughly woven cloth is worn by Miss Katherina Herman Kremer. The jacket is belted and set off by a collar of fine white linen. A small, close-fitting hat of black straw devoid of trimming is worn by Miss Kremer with this suit.

MISS MARTHA E. MORRIS Who will give a series of benefit recitals during the coming months. Miss Morris is a coloratura soprano of unusual range and is a member of the Behren's Opera Club, of this city. At the ballad concert of the Church of the Epiphany, Sherwood, on May 24, Miss Morris will sing several

Miss Angela Dorman, of Marshall road, is entertaining her bridge club this after-noon. Among the guests are Miss Eliza-beth Davis, Miss Margaret Brown, Miss Isabel Whiting, Miss Cora Rogers, Miss Dorothy Prendreville and Miss Marion

Mrs. Alexander Wilson, Jr., of 98 West Baltimore avenue, is entertaining the Cal-endar Club of St. John's Church at her home this afternoon.

imore avenue, is spending the week in TODAY will be the greatest in the history of fraternal organizations in Roxborough, Wissahickon, Manayunk and the Falls of Schuylkill. It will be Patriotic Order of the Sons of America Day, and will be celebrated with a monster parade, flag-raising and lawn fete, in which more than 2500 people will participate. The order was first organized in Philadelphia in 1847 and its membership now extends to nearly every State in the country. The celebration will commence at 2:45 o'clock, the parade forming at Main street and Green lane, Manayunk. The route will be down Main street to Walnut lane, to Burnside, to Manayunk avenue, to Green ane, to Ridge avenue, to Lyceum avenue, to Pechin street, to Roxborough avenue, to Ridge avenue, to Walnut lane, to the P. O. S. of A. athletic grounds, where the exercises will be held. Mr. Joseph Sister will be grand marshal and his aides will be exercises will be held. Mr. Joseph Sisler will be grand marshal and his aldes will be Mr. Horace V. MacFadyen, Mr. Edward E. Struse, Mr. Charles O. Struse, Mr. John Hendren, Mr. Charles O. Struse, Mr. John Hendren, Mr. Charence Maiden and Mr. A. C. Selfert. At 4 o'clock the flagratising exercises will take place, with the chairman, Dr. H. K. White, presiding. The Rev. Isaac Ward will deliver the invocation, the flag will be unfurled by Miss Florence Olga Steele and addresses will be made by United States Senator Roles Penrose and Judge Charles N. Brumm, of Schuylkill County. The musical program will be furnished by the Marine and Cadet Bands.

From 5 to 7 o'clock supper will be served by a committee of 100 ladies, of which Mrs. H. L. Wynne is president; Mrs. John Hendren, vice president, and Mrs. H. K. White, secretary. In the evening the speakers will be the following State officers of the order; Mr. Herman G. Miller, of Easton, president; Mr. C. L. Nonemaker, of Altoons, vice president; Mr. Ernest B. Clark, of Pittaburgh, master of forms; Mr. Irwin S. Smith, treasurer, and Mr. William Weland. The concert following the addresses will be by the Cadet Band, of Camden.

All the Grand Army men of the section

All the Grand Army men of the section will be the guests of the association and will ride in the automobiles of the resi-dents of the section, who have offered Band, of Camden.

Notices for the Society page will be accepted and printed in the Evening Ledger, but all such notices must be written on one side of the paper, must be signed in full, with full address, and when possible telephone number must be given.
Send all such communications to "Society Editor," Evening Ledger, 508 Chestnut street.

Unless these requirements are carried out so that verification may be possible, the notices will not be published. panamas to match, set off by hatbands, ties, belts, hosiery and tiny picturesque aprona of emerald green.

Mrs. Clayton French Banks, whose handsome little son causes so much admiration wherever he is seen, looks extremely well in a one-piece gown of dark blue crass do white made outer simply.

A smart walking costume of navy blue blouse opens down the back with thy round black buttons, which run up over the shoulder at one side. A wide-brimmed slightly curved sailor of dark blue straw, trimmed with a band of old rose leather and a large curing quill in the same shade, completes the becoming costume.

Lansdowne

Dr. DeForrest Willard, of 139 West Bal-

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Thomas, Jr., of end in Atlantic City.

them for the occasion. Lieutenant Colonei Meller, of the United States Marines, will be among the honor guests. The local business houses will close at noon

There will be 38 guests present. licks and Mr. Ernest Ritson. CELEBRATING THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY TONIGHT and many of these, as well as the homes of the citizens, will be gaily decorated with bunting and flags.

Miss Margaret H. Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Davis, of Hortter street, Germantown, will give a luncheon today at the Philadelphia Cricket Club.

Mrs. O. J. De Rousse, of 615 West Hortter street, will entertain a party of young people today at the the dansant to be given at Manheim under the auspices of the Alumnae Association of the Walnut Lane School. The affair will be in honor of Mrs. De Rousse's daughter, Miss Jean De Rousse. The party will afterward be entertained at dinner at the De Rousse home, and dancing will follow. The guests vill include Miss Elise Lewis Klapp, Miss Elizabeth Elilot Miller, Miss Helen Biddle Logan, Miss Mary Primrose Reeves, Miss Gladys Williams, Mr. John W. Logan, Jr., Mr. Edward W. Klapp, Mr. Kenneth Kiton, Mr. James Hooper, Mr. Allen Ad-

Northeast Philadelphia

Mr. and Mrs. John Kreider, of 2130 Miss Mary Agnew, of 2574 East Mem-South Broad street, have opened their cottage, 21 South California avenue, Atlantic City, where they will stay the remainder of the summer. her guests over the week-end.

MISS HELEN BALDWIN GLEASON

South Philadelphia

Wednesday evening in honor of wedding will take place in July.

Farrell and Mr. William Dacey is going on a piente shortly.

merly of this city.

phy, Mr. Raymond Lutz, Mr. James Duane, Mr. William Pound, Mr. Robert Keown, Mr. Frank Smyth, Mr. Charles

Mr. John O'Hara, 2219 South 2d street,

A most attractive May festival was held last evening in the parish building of Ali Saints' Church, 11th street and Snyder avenue, by the entire main Sunday school. The entertainment consisted of vocal and instrumental numbers by the senior and Elizabeth Catanach and Miss May Chris-

Prominent members of the Philadelphia Suffrage party will address a large meet-ing of the congregation this evening, and a delightful program has been arranged. The Rev. Dr. John E. Hill is pastor.

The engagement is announced of Miss Anna Josephine Kay, formerly of South Philadelphia, but now living at 2015 Wal-lace street, and Mr. Harry Andrew Mc-Ginnis, of Frackville, Pa. No date has whose engagement was recently an-

Tioga

Miss M. W. Asheraft, Miss L. Reier, Miss B. Callahan, Miss M. Van Glider, Miss L. Asheraft, F. Matick, J. Loniak, H. Smith, E. Wadner and A. E. Moniot.

The Misses Gladys and Florence Maur-er, of $233 North 15th street, will spend the week-end in Atlantic City.

Roxborough

The annual commencement of the Young

Women's Christian Association of the Falls of Schuylkill will take place on Thursday night, May 13. The annual exhibition of all class work will be held the following Saturday, from 3 to 10 o'clock.

In the evening there will be a musicale and

In the accompanying illustration are shown Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boehringer, of 2601 North 5th street. Mr. Boehringer holds in his arms one of his 12 grandchildren. This estimable couple were married 50 years ago by Pastor William Mann, of the Zion Lutheran Church. Mr. Boehringer and his wife were born in Germany. They opened a bakery business at Crown and Wood streets in 1865. Mr. Boehringer retired from business in 1913. He was then conducting his business at 5th and Huntingdon streets. Five children and 12 grandchildren will assist in tonight's celebration, together with hoats of warm friends and acquaintances, by whom Mr. and Mrs. Boehringer are held in the highest esteem.

Association.

been set for the wedding.

members, and was arranged by Mr. Robert Adams, professor of English in the Trades School, assisted by Miss

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Davis. of 2037 Mifflin street, entertained at dinner on daughter, Miss N. Mae Davis, and Mr. Ernest W. Hamblin, of New York, whose engagement was recently announced. The The Reliance Club held its seventh annual May hop last night in Lawrence Hall, Broad and Porter streets. The com-mittee in charge included Mr. Allen Mur-

A May rally of the Northeast Branch has gone to Austin Tex., to visit his grandmother, Mrs. Thomas Mayer, for-The Butchers' League of the 1st Ward

> A sketch and mock trial was held Thursday night in the Bethesda Presby-terian Church, Frankford avenue and Berks street, under the auspices of the Bethesda Athletic Association. The sketch is entitled "At the Postern Gate," and is interesting as well as instructive.

> fessor Calvin O. Althouse, of the C. H. S. The wives, mothers, sisters and sweethearts of the members will be the honored > guests of the evening.

>
> The committee in charge consists of Mr. Joseph Hangerty, Mr. Harry Grossman, Mr. William Emhart, Mr. John Boyle, Mr. Harry Derbyshire, Mr. James F. Smyth and president, Mr. John Walsh.

Frankford

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Cutlen. Miss Marie L. Tanner, of 3717 North Miss Marie L. Tanner, of 3717 North

Isth street, entertained at cards last Saturday in honor of Miss Myrtle Ashcraft.

Leiper street, will entertain at a small musicale Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. Culien's sister, Miss Alice Bromley, Mrs. Cullen's sister, Miss Alice Bromley, whose engagement was recently announced to Mr. John D. Fell. of Overbrook, Among the guests will be Mr. and Mrs. William J. D. Hirsch, Mr. and Mrs. John Martin, Miss Alice Woodward, Miss Martha Shell, Miss Anna Brown, Miss Helen Ware, Miss Caroline Burt, Miss Marjorie Ford, Miss Mildred Bock, Miss Frances Ash, Miss Marion Maxwell, Mr. Aifred Maxwell, Mr. Hugh Wood, Mr. George Williams, Mr. Bert Franklin, Mr. John Talley, Mr. George Endy, Mr. Frank Cullen, Mr. Edward Cullen, Mr. George Lipp, Mr. Walter Foulkrod, Mr. James Weaver, Mr. Albert Dunlap, Mr. William Kirk and Mr. Joseph Murray, nounced to A. E. Monlot. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. Fulforth, Mr. and Mrs. F. Knipe, Mr. and Mrs. F. Smith. William Kirk and Mr. Joseph Murray,

Mrs. William Kuhn, Jr., of 4836 North 5th street, and Miss Amelia Manning will be guests at a luncheon Saturday, given by Miss Grace Burt and Miss Alice Burt, at their home, 212 North Lansdowne ave-social. Tonight the departments of elocu-tion and music will give their annual en-tertainment. The program will include recitations by Mrs. Rausman, Miss Graf Woodbury Society of Woodbury was well represociety of vocatory was well repre-sented on Thursday evening when Gil-bert and Sullivan's opera, "Patience," was given, under the auspices of the Country Club. Mrs. Horace Keen di-rected the company and rounded the singers into excellent shape. All the lead-ing musicians of the club took part, and and Miss Jennie Smith; violin solos by Miss Mary Cull, Mr. John Cull, Miss Edith Katzenbach and Miss Elizabeth Schofield; piano solos by Miss Florence Salmons, piano solos by Miss Florence Salmons, Miss Priscilla Mason, Miss Hazel Willoughby, Miss Emma Snowden, Miss Sarah Tasker and Miss Katharine Hohlfeld. The speaker for May 13 will be Miss Irene Shepard, general secretary of the Buenos Aires Young Women's Christian those who were present say that even in the prime days of Woodbury's Paint and Powder Club nothing like it was ever seen on the local stage.

e, Lansdowne.

Miss Gleason, who is the charming young daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edward Baldwin Gleason, will make her debut next season.

Photo by Marceau.

phis street, has gone to Atlantic City for the summer. Mrs. Walton and daughter, Miss Verna Walton, will be

On Wednesday evening, May 12, a grand combination vaudeville and promenade concert will be given by the Northeast Catholic Clubs at Stanley's Casino, Kensington avenue and Cumberland street. The clubs represented will be La Suile, Bridesburg C. C., Iona C. C., Holy Name C. C., St. Anne's C. C., Immaculate Conception C. C., St. Michael's C. C. and ception C. C., St. Michael's C. C. and Ascension C. C.

f Christian Endeavor will be held in the Frankford Avenue Baptist Church, Frankford avenue and Letterly street, on Monday evening. The speaker of the evening will be the Rev. August E. Barnett, pastor of the Church of Our

Mrs. Joseph Biddle, of Everett, Pa., who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Thomas, of 2808 Frankford avenue, has returned to her home.

A social luncheon will be given by the Kensington Merchants' Association at Schroeder's Hall, Kensington avenue and Cumberland street, Tuesday evening. May 13. The speakers of the night will be City Solicitor Michael J. Kyan and Processor Calvin O. Althouse of the first School of the School of t

WHITMAN-FARRELL. Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Mae Farrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Farrell, of 229 South St. Bernard street, to Mr. Arthur Bradford Whitman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Whitman, of Washington, D. C., on Saturday afternoon, May 1. The ceremony was performed in St. Francis de Sales Church, the Rev. Father Hanney officiating, followed by a breakfast. On their return from their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Whitman will be at home after June 1 at 500 H street, N. E., Washington, D. C.

McFARLAND-MITCHELL The wedding of Miss Georgia Mitchell, of 5169 Morris street, Germantown, to Mr. Walter Griffith McFarland, Jr., of Oak Lane, took place on Wednesday, May 5, at noon. The ceremony took place in the Calvary Church, the Rev. Walter Jordan, of St. Martin's, Oak Lane, officiating, A small breakfast followed the ciating. A small breakfast followed the ceremony for the families and immediate riends. NOTTER-HAWKINS.

after May 19.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Mary T. Hawkins, of Carlisie, Pa. to Mr. George P. Notter, of Philadelphia, on Wednesday afternoon, May 5, at 5 o'clock.

PROVINZINO—MARINGOLA.

A beautiful wedding took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Roman Catholic Church of Our Lady of Good Counsel, when Miss Teresa Maringola, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Maringola, 638 Christian street, became the bride of Mr. Joseph Provinzino, 712 South 7th street. The bride wore white satin trimmed with silver net. She carried a huge bouquet of white roses. The maid of honor was Miss Josephine Curcio. Her gown was of the faintest green silk under chiffon. She carried a beautiful bouquet of roses. The best man was Mr. Samuel Porcope. Other members of the bridal PROVINZINO-MARINGOLA. Porcope. Other members of the bridal party were Miss Mary Isabella, Miss An-gelina Bucraffurni, Mr. Dominic Gulla, Mr. Dominic Sideric and little Dolly Isabella

SPRING AND SUMMER RESORTS

MT. POCONO, PA.

Delaware Water Gap, Pa. THE BELLEVUE Three minutes to sta-Excellent table. Rooms with running water. Dancing, golf and tennis. The popular house for young people. Booklet. CONWAY & BLAIR.

THE BELMONT Mod steam heat, baths, Special spring rates. Etev, high, sir piney and dry. J. L. Cornish. Stroudsburg, Pa.

CHURLEIGH INN Park and lake Grandest location in Hus Ridge Mis. Boating fishing, etc. Garage. Special rates May and June Booklet. MUCHMORE & BALD, Pregs. Cresco, Pa.

ROCKLEDGE Trout fishing. Booklet. Paradise Valley, Pa.

THE OLD INN Fermariy Paradise Inn.
Oresco Sta., Fenna, R. R.
Managed from the standpoint of the guest good food and the standpoint of the guest MISS KIRK, 4152 Fernald

Analomink, Fa. STITES' MT. HOUSE Four miles of Capacity 100 Booklet. THOS. H. STITES. Mountain Home, Pa.

Heller's Mt. Airy Fine location. Bill. CANADENSIS, PA.

The Pines Capacity 100. Booklet tells the SHAWNEE-ON-THE-DELAWARE, PA. Lenwood Excellent location. Bath's, boat's.

THE ANATOK Finest location Near golf links Booklet. FERN ROCK, PA. Terminal; now open. Alfred Larenters.

A Wednesday evening, when Miss Harriette A. Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Morris, of 429 Martin street.

became the bride of Mr. Roy A. Bittle, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bittle, of 416 Pechin street. The ceremony was performed in the new home of the bride-groom and bride, 531 East Martin street, by the Rev. Purdy B. Moyer, pastor of the Moyer Memorial Baptist Church, Krams and Manayunk avenues. The house was decorated with flowers, palms and ferns. Mr. Morris gave his daughter in marriage, and she was attended by her sister, Miss Florence Morris, as maid of honor. Mr. William Stitler was the bridegroom's best man. The service was followed by a reception for the families of the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Bittle will be at home after May 19.

PRINCE-HAMMETT.

The marriage of Miss Louise Adele Hammett, daughter of Mrs. William Frederick Hammett and the late Mr.

William Frederick Hammett, to Edmond

Lafayette Prince, Jr., of Louisville, Ky., will take place tonight at Pelham Court, the home of the bride. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. William Edwards, of St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal Church. The ballroom will be banked with palms and spring flowers of every description. Miss Hammett, who will be given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Royal Hammett, will wear white ratin, veiled in a full pointed tunic of tulle, enbrotdered in pearls. Her veil, which will be of old family lace, will be fastened with orange blossoms. A fairy-like touch is given by a tulle court trail.

like touch is given by a tulle court train which hangs from the shoulders. Her bouquet will be an old-fashioned lace one, the centre of which will be formed of lilies of the valley. Mas Josephine Hemmett, of New York, a cousin of the bride, will act as maid of honor, and will be growned to peach blow setin with a be gowned in peach-blow satin, with a tunic of cream-color lace net. A butterfly bow and girdle are of blue tulle. Miss Hammett's hat will be of peach pink and white and trinmed with French flowers. She will carry snapfragon, illace and other spring flowers. There will be and other spring flowers. There will be two tiny flower girls, Miss Martha Ham-mett and Miss Anne Adele Hammett, who will wear dainty lingerie dresses and pink ribbons. They will carry baskets filled with pink rosebuds.

Mr. Prince will have as best man Mr. F.

Walter Hentz. A reception will follow for about 250 suests. After an extended wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Prince will COMFORT-DUNN.

A quiet wedding will take place today when Mrs. Harry M. Dunn, of Dugan Hill. Staten Island, will become the bride of Mr. Edward T. Comfort, of German town. The ceremony will be witnessed by the families and immediate friends.

and on their return from their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Comfort will occupy lvy Lodge, Penn street, Germantown.

EVANS-KEATING.

bride, who were a gown of crepe de chine draped with lace, was attended by her sister. Miss Elsie Keating, as bridesmaid.

Her gown was of pale blue brocaded silk.

Mr. Roland Evans was his brother's best man. A reception was held after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Evans will live on North Gratz street and will be at home

WHITMAN-FARRELL

caide in Baltimore.

town.

and Dominic Damnico, who acted as flower girl and page, respectively. Fol-lowing the ceremony a reception was beld at Beneficial Hall, 220 South 8th atrest. at Beneficial Hall, 220 South 8th street, by the bride's parents. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Orosio Provinsini, Miss Anna Rotko, Mr. Vincent Curcle, Mr. Dominic Procepero, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Curclo and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Provinsino and family, Mrs. Angelina Cedarlo and family, Mr. and Mrs. Propero Sedario and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Isabella, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Maringola and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gula and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Gargaria, Mr. Joseph Rosci, Mr. Dominic Peloggi, Miss Mary Singer, Mr. Gernalli Giuseppe and family, Mr. and Mrs. Canibarto Caruso, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cucci, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bue-raffurni and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pulginiti, Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Valeo and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Man-

PINTEO-GALLASANDRA. and Mrs. Louis Gallasandra, 1809 Air, and Mrs. Louis Galiasandra, 1895 South Clarion street, gave a large recep-tion and dance at Lyrio Hall yesterday in honor of the marriage of their daugh-ter. Miss Rose, to Mr. Charles Pinteo, 1030 Carpenter street. The ceremony took place at St. Rita's Roman Catholic Church, Broad and Elisworth streets. The maid of honor was Miss Susan Tamasco and the best man was Antony Riszo. The bridal couple led the grand march at the hall later on. Among the guests were Miss Elizabeth Gentila, Miss Mary Cam-marota, Mr. Dominic Dallasandra, Mr. James Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pinteo, James Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pinteo, Mr. Charles Piagantino, Mr. Lawrence Piscola, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Cammarota, Mr. and Mrs. Antony Pisanso, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Concio, Mr. and Mrs. John Bonsvitecola, Mr. Pint Molley, Mr. John Mulligan, Mr. and Mrs. Peter de Nato, Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Cerri, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Escadso, Mr. James Dallasandra, Mr. and Mrs. James Genati, Miss Mary Niccola, Mr. Peter Nucci, Miss Mary Ragno, Miss Rose Cammorota, Miss Mary Ragno, Miss Rose Cammorota, Miss Mary Ragno, Miss Rose Cammorota, Miss Annie Camaca, Mr. Michael Williams, Miss Blanch Yettiro, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fiscola, Miss Mary Mann, Mrs. Susan Fiscola, Miss Mary Mann, Mrs. Susan Spangler, Mr. Abraham Weinberg, Mr. Michael Lipsom, Miss Rose Dilger, Mr. Antony Martinella, Miss Julia Masten, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vita, Mr. Salvido Bonivitola, Mr. and Mrs. Fred de Marco, Mr. and Mrs. Dominio Frascini, Mr. and Mrs. David Camera.

Germantown

Mrs. J. Edward Jacques, of the Manheim apartments, has gone to the Pacific coast with her little daughter, where they will visit relatives and friends for several

Mrs. Ida V. Beale, of 112 East Price street, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. lane, left this week for a short stay in Atlantic City.

The marriage of Miss Anna May Keat-ing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Keating, of 3724 North Gratz street, Tioga, to Mr. Harry H. Evans, of Germantown, was solemnized on Wednesday night at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. I. Chantry Hoffman, pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Nativity, Tioga and 17th streets, performed the ceremony. The Mr. Charles H. Edenborn, of 4850 North Broad street, will sail from New York on the steamship Momus on May 17 for New Orleans, where he will remain some time.

SPRING AND SUMMER RESORTS

Wildwood, N. J. BY-THE-SEA Wildwood Crest

All signs point to the biggest season in the phenomenal history of these wonderful resorts. They are teeming with activity. Preparations are under way for splendid entertainment. Their natural advantages of coolest breezes and best bathing beach are attracting thousands.

Rent your cottage, bungalow or spartment NOW. Don't leave this important matter until later, or visit important matter until later, or visit.

important matter until later, or you may not be able to get what you want. They are going fast, Wisdom dictates that you make your hotel reservations early this year.

Fast, convenient train service on both Reading and Penney. Dollar excursion every Sunday. For beautifully illustrated booklet write today to J. WHITESELL City Clerk Wildwood, N. J.

FRANCONIA NOTCH, GRAFTON CO., N. H. WHITE MOUNTAINS

TWENTY COTTAGES. OPEN JULY 18T. Catering to those who wish a Summer Home in a resort favored with a clientele of the highest order. ON IDEAL TOUR. Fine Garage. Golf, Tennis, Boating, Fishing.

C. H. GREENLEAF, Pres.
Booking Office in Charge E. B. RICH,
Hotel Vendome, Boston, Mass. SEASIDE PARK, N. J.

NEW ENGLAND

Saunderstown, R. 1. Saunders House Open May 29. Direction on Bay. Good heating bathing, fishing, tennis. J. L. RODMAN.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.

CHALFONTE Atlantic City, New Jersey

The Leeds Company Leading High-Class Moderate-Rate Hotel.

ALBEMARLE Virginia av., nr. Bch. Gap. 850. Steam heat, slovator, sun pariors, private baths, etc.; excel, table $10 up water.; 42 up dally. Batt. J. P. GOPAL BROWN'S-MILLS-IN-THE-PINES, N. J. THE INN" Open All Year

Five thousand acres pines; lakes, springs. Favorite week end and tourist resort. Farmers southern cooking. New management: 1. L. & M. S. HUHHERIS ISLAND HEIGHTS, N. J.

THE PERRENNIAL Prop 1 R RIGHT OCEAN CITY, N. J.

Every Comfort and Convenience at The BRIGHTON Ideally located in the finest section of the beach front. An establishment parallel wine and service; invigorating breases by Coman. Bay and Bulet, by hour by trotter front attention to the companies of the companies

THE BREAKERS