EVANGELIST SCORES NEGLECT OF CHILDREN'S TRAINING

Reading Revivalist Stirs Audience by Strong Sermon.

READING, Pa., May 8.—Picturing the consequences of neglecting the religious training of children and pointing out the tragic results of unhappy marriages, Evangelist Stough last night delivered one of the most stirring addresses in his campaign here thus far to an audience of 5000 at the tabernacle.

His subject was "Home Makers and Home Breakers," or "Why so Many Boys so to Hell." The evangelist gripped his audience from start to finish and there were frequent outbursts of "Amen" and hand-clapping. One woman in the rear of the tabernacle swooned in a religious frenzy, first uttering a plercing scream that caused some excitement.

"ROMANCE OF WORK" IN PAGEANT TONIGHT

Six Hundred Young Women to Appear in Spectacle at Convention Hall.

"The Romance of Work," a pageant, the result of weeks of work on the part of some 600 young women gathered from all sections of the city, will unfold itself on the stage at Convention Hall, Broad street and Allegheny avenue, tonight.

The pageant is in five parts, each depicting a different phase of women's work, its past developments, its present field and its future promises. The proceeds will be devoted to the vacation fund, which is administered by the Philadelphia Vacation Committee,

The Vacation Committee provides a beliday house in Fairmount Park and gives hundreds of women and girls from various commercial and industrial establishments throughout the city an opportunity for rest and recreation during the summer.

Episode I will depict work among the Indians, and will give a fire dance for a Working girls will play the principal parts, as in the case in the next episode, which represents the spirit of Colonial times. Moman Tries to Drown Herself

A young wife who attempted to jump into the Delaware River at midnight was prevented by a policeman, who sprinted to the pier and seized her as she was failing into the water. She is Mrs. Bessie Clark, 2 years old, 13 North 3d street. Reserve Policeman Burke noticed her as she was he walked to Pier 8 and was struck by her peculiar actions. He was about 50 feet away when he saw her take off her hat and Jacket and ran toward her as quickly as he could. The woman, who will have a hearing before Magistrate Carson today, said she had quarreled with her husband.

IN DREAD OF OPERATION. WOMAN COMMITS SUICIDE

Faithful Pet Dog, Wedding Gift, Dies by Her Side.

Fear and despondency over an impending operation for cancer drove Mrs. Carrie Householder, 45 years old, of 1306 West Auburn street, to end her life last night by inhaling illuminating gas, according to her husband, John Householder, who found her dead on the parlor floor when he went home about 11:45 last night. A pet dog, which had been given to the couple as a wedding gift 12 years ago, also asphyxiated, was found near the woman's side in the gas-filled room.

Mr. Householder said he had been to the German Hospital, where he had arranged for an operation on his wife for cancer of the breast. He reached home shortly before midnight, he said, and noticed a strong odor of gas as he stood at the door. Hastily letting himself inside the house, he met overpowering fumes emanating apparently from the parlor, the door of which was locked. Forcing it open, he stumbled over the body of his wife in the pitch-dark chamber. The windows were closed tightly and the shades were drawn

He notified the Park and Lehigh avenues police station and the woman was Philadelphia, won after three hurried to the Samaritan Hospital. forts to revive her with the pulmotor were unavailing.

Mr. Householder said that while his wife dreaded the operation she must undergo there was nothing in her man-ner to indicate she contemplated suicide when he left the house earlier in the wonder Philadelphia is called the City of Homes?

We want you to have your home at Penfield-Philadelphia's prettiest, nearest and best developed suburb. Twenty-five homes built and occupied-six more almost finished, and at prices from $4500 to $10,000. Beauties, every one of them!

Or you can buy a plot and build your own home. Lots 125 to 200 feet deep and priced from $190 to $890-a few higher. Every lot just about half usual prices, due to settling the Wood estate, with only $10 down, balance $1.25 to $2.00 weekly. The biggest value ever known in Philadelphia real estate.

Prove this-come out to Penfield. Take Philadelphia & Western, at 69th street Elevated Terminal—a 3-minute ride, a 5-cent fare—and get off at Penfield Station. Then you'll agree with us that settling the Wood estate brings you a homesite at just about half you expected to pay. But don't delay. The time to come is now!
