

HOSPITAL CAMPAIGN STARTS WITH DINNER

Archbishop and Others to Address 5000 Tomorrow Night to Help Sisters of Mercy.

The first gun in the campaign to raise $200,000 for the construction of a new hospital to be managed by the Sisters of Mercy will be fired tonight when 5000 persons will attend a dinner at the First Regiment Armory, Broad and Callowhill streets.

The list of speakers for tonight includes Archbishop Prendergast, Bishop John J. McCort, president of the campaign; the Rev. John D. Maguire, of the Catholic University, Washington; Dr. James J. Walsh, of New York; Miss Lydia Striling Plimtham, and Frank A. Converse, City Solicitor Michael J. Ryan will be toastmaster.

Announcement will be made at the dinner that $10,000 of the needed fund is already in hand. It has been voluntarily subscribed. With this encouragement the campaign workers will start out tomorrow to solicit funds from approximately 80,000 members of the Roman Catholic Church in Philadelphia and its suburbs.

The proposed hospital will be non-sectarian in its benefits, and no non-Catholics will be asked to help the cause. More than 12,000 men and women will spread over the city asking all classes, all races, all denominations to contribute.

A feature of the campaign will be the pledge cards. Six months' time is given for the making of the campaign to recognize pledges. The management stresses the fact that no sum is too small to contribute.

The amount of daily contributions will be shown by clock clocks at the entrance of the Philopatrian Club, 141 Arch street. Philadelphia is one of the few cities that have no hospital managed by the Sisters of Mercy.

TOWN OF FUNNY DREAMS

THE POLISHED PARK By Bob Williams The Baby Lake that floated the Sun Was full of Ripples, Bosh. And Other Things that Furnished Fun For Kids in Kolored Kouts.

You should have seen the Funny Paths That ran around the Park; As crooked as the Knotty Laths Pa purchased in the dark! Sev'n sorts of Flowers grew around In Places where the Heat From Funny Sun would toast the ground And warm the Postes' Feet.

One night my Brother snapped Limb Right off the Finest Tree; The Man in charge yelled, "Join a Gym!" The Springs tuff Brother's Knee!

Beauty reigned in Funny Town; The Mile-wide Park was kept as neat as a pin. The children's hair was washed daily and combed, The trees and bushes felt their share of attention, daily strokes of the magic hair brush.

The Leaves were moved three times a day; The children were washed May 17, 1915.

The progress of the work on the new home Philadelphia lodge is very pleasing to the members. It looks rather certain that the building will be ready for occupancy by Labor Day.
