

SCENES AND PERSONS IN DAY'S GRIST OF NEWS FROM HOME AND ABROAD AS CAUGHT BY THE CAMERA

HEROINE OF A TRIPLE PLAY, SO TO SPEAK

Court, to stage, to films, is record of Mrs. Keith Donaldson's triple play. After an unsuccessful fight to obtain the custody of her child, she went into musical comedy. When "Little Mary Mack" failed, she turned to the movies. She has written and will star in "The Million Dollar Bride"—the name by which she is best known herself.

TAKING POT-LUCK WITH SOME NEW RECRUITS TO SUFFRAGE

Miss Olga H. Gross (left) and Miss Bertha Sapowitz (right), stopping for lunch with the men at Baldwin's Locomotive Works, whom they had just addressed in the cause of votes for women. An outdoor "snack" was shared at noon at 15th and Hamilton streets. Workingmen make good and attentive audiences, say the suffragists, there being rarely any disorder or discourtesy shown.

CELEBRATING GREEK FOURTH OF JULY

Mike and Mary Busha, aged 1 year and 8 months, and 3 years, respectively, children of Mr. Socrates and Mrs. Xanthippe Busha, of 5312 Ludlow street, as they appeared recently taking part in the double celebration of the Annunciation and the anniversary of the Independence of Greece.

DEMANDING THE RIGHT TO BE SHOT IN ITALY

A clamorous crowd in the streets of Milan. For 24 hours there was a general strike, in which practically the whole population fought over the question as to whether Italy should go to war. This picture shows the police holding back a crowd at the funeral of a labor leader shot in a strike demonstration.

COOL WEAR FOR WARM WEATHER

The new summer shirt for the male sex will have a broad collar and open throat. The model has long been popular in England.

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.

Courtesy of Jacobs's