

THE CAMERA REPORTS THE VARIED NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING A BUSY WORLD'S DOINGS

UNITED STATES CONGRESSIONAL PARTY, ON WAY TO HAWAII, VISITS THE PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION. Senators and Representatives on their visit to the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, at San Francisco, posed for their pictures in the Great South Gardens in front of the Fountain of Energy. In the background, from left to right, are: Palace of Education, Court of Palms, Palace of Liberal Arts, Tower of Jewels, Palace of Manufactures, Court of Flowers and Palace of Varied Industry. In the party were Senator J. E. Martine and Mrs. Martine, of New Jersey; Senator Saulsbury and Mrs. Saulsbury, of Delaware, and Representative Barchfeld, of Pennsylvania.

Photograph by Harris & Ewing.
ATTENDING PAN-AMERICAN CONFERENCE
Dr. Leo S. Rowe, professor of political and social science at the U. of P., is secretary general of the Pan-American Commercial Conference now in session at Washington.

FIRING THE SUNSET GUN AT CAMP OVERTON, PHILIPPINES
A reminder that the United States also has an army occupying a conquered territory, where soldiers stand on watch night and day to guard against oft-threatened outbreaks of the inhabitants.

RETIRED WITH HONOR, AND A PENSION
John Hagenbucher, of Roxborough, was recently retired on a pension by the United States Steel Corporation after a period of service exceeding the half-century mark, at the Pencoyd plant.

A FRIENDLY RIVALRY IN BABIES—WITH NO WARLIKE SUGGESTIONS

At the recent "Twilight sleep" exhibit in New York the babies born in the "Daemmer schlaf" were shown with the national "tags" as shown above. Daemmer schlaf, in its most recent form, got its greatest publicity in Freiburg, in Germany.