THE PADDED CELL

Salesman-Now that you've seen all the blankets, which kind do you wish? Lady-Well, I was only looking for a friend and didn't expect to buy. Salesman-Well, ma'am, if you think she is in that remaining blanket up there I'll take it down for you.

"There's your mother." "Oh, we don't speak now." "Why not?"

"Well, just before John and I were married she told him that I always trimmed my own hats, and now I never get a new one."

Doctor-Well, Casey, are the eyes improving? Patient—Sure, they are, sir. Doctor—Can you see better; can you see the nurse now?

Patient-Sure, I can thot, sir. Faith, she gets plainer and plainer ivery day.
