

ADDITIONAL PRIZE IS NOW ADDED TO LONG LIST IN SCHOOLGIRLS' COOKING CONTEST

"I WANTU" Comfort Gas Iron Will Be the Fourth Award in Each of Four Divisions.

Great Care Being Taken in the Selection of Judges. Mrs. Carroll May Announce Her Program Tomorrow Afternoon.

Every day something new happens to make the EVENING LEDGER Cooking Contest for children enrolled in Philadelphia Cooking School classes more interesting and worth while entering.

Now comes an offer of a fourth prize, one prize more than originally had been considered for each of the four divisions of the contest. Both the third and fourth prizes have been donated by manufacturers.

A "wear-ever" aluminum teakettle will be given in each of the four divisions to the girl whose exhibit is judged to be third best and an "I wantu" Comfort gas iron, value $3.50, will be awarded in each of the four divisions to the girl whose exhibit is judged to be fourth best. The prize has not been decided on yet, but this will be something of greater value than the third and fourth prizes and will be well worth competing for.

The Aluminum Cooking Utensil Company of New Kensington, Pa., has given the aluminum teakettle, which are most appropriate for one of the prizes in this contest. The Straus Gas Iron Company, of Philadelphia, has given the "I wantu" Comfort gas iron. A gas iron is an ideal fourth prize, as it can well be considered one of the essentials in a modern kitchen.

With four prizes in four different classes, the cooking school children have an excellent opportunity to win something of real value as a result of their year's study in the cooking school classes. The addition of a fourth prize adds considerably to the chance of every girl who enters either of the divisions of the contest, and makes the competition far more inviting.

PICKING THE JUDGES.

Arrangements are being completed now for the judges. There probably will be six judges for each division of the contest. In order that any suspicion of prejudice may be avoided, it has been decided to select judges who are not in any way connected with cooking schools. The names of those who will be selected will be completed in the next few days, but it is expected that the names will be announced in the EVENING LEDGER that all of the 15 prizes shall be awarded shortly after noon.

The publicity given the coming contest and the cooking school, which will be conducted every afternoon from June 1 to June 12, inclusive, at Horticultural Hall for all housewives and others who are interested in domestic science, has aroused a great deal of interest throughout the city. Women are talking about the event in every neighborhood and it is expected that the hall will be taxed to the uttermost when the first lecture is delivered by Mrs. Carroll next Tuesday.

After a canvass of a number of housewives, 2:30 o'clock p. m. has been decided on as the most advantageous hour to start the lectures and demonstrations. It is considered that this will give the housewives and others the best opportunity to attend without interfering with their regular household duties and other responsibilities. Mrs. Carroll has practically completed her program for the course of lectures and it probably will be announced in the EVENING LEDGER tomorrow afternoon.

SUFFRAGISTS REFUTE CHARGE

Hotly Deny Assertion That Women Voters Are Political "Parasites."

ATLANTIC CITY, May 27.—Charges of anti-suffragists that women who have been enfranchised have in many cases been parasites upon the body politic were hotly denied by Mrs. Mary North Chenoweth, field orator for the New Jersey association, in an address here.

"They have made good wherever they held office," she said, "whether as magistrates, policemen or lawmakers. Thousands of them are familiar with financial methods of cities because they run their own home on the budget system. As a matter of simple justice they should have a voice in determining their sphere of action, their education, their taxes and the penal laws of the State."

Mrs. James Griswold Wentz, president of the Women's Republican Club, New York, declared that the ballot for women in the United States would help to put a stop to warfare in the world.

"Enfranchisement would help to many more about politics than many men of good families," she declared.

RULES GOVERNING EVENING LEDGER COOKING SCHOOL CONTEST FOR GIRLS

1. Entries are limited to girls who are members of cooking school classes of the schools of Philadelphia. Any individual may contest in all four divisions, but may make but one entry in each division.
2. Contest is to be limited to the baking of 1-pound loaves of bread, baking powder biscuits, sugar cookies and sponge cake, according to the recipes used in the public cooking schools, or in the schools from which contestants are registered.
3. That conditions may be identical in every case as to efficiency under which work can be produced, the baking is to be done in a Gas Range oven only. (Arrangements have been made with the United Gas Improvement Company to extend their free service during the continuance of this contest, and any gas range not operating satisfactorily will be adjusted and regulated free of charge.)
4. Judging is to be done by an accredited body of judges chosen as may later be determined.
5. All entries for the contest must be presented at Horticultural Hall, Broad and Locust streets, on Wednesday, June 9, between 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.
6. On the bottom of each loaf of bread and on the side of each sponge cake entered, there must be pasted an entry blank clipped from the EVENING LEDGER, giving the contestant's name, home address, name and number of school attended, name of gas range used (its number when obtainable), and the article of food contested for. Cookies and baking powder biscuits are to be presented in wooden plates, the entry blank, completely filled in as outlined above, in this case being pasted in the plate. Great care must be taken in this respect, because the great number of entries will make it necessary to eliminate any contestant whose blank does not accompany the exhibit.
7. The exhibits will be judged on Thursday, June 10, and will be on display in the Auditorium of Horticultural Hall on Friday and Saturday, June 11 and 12. The awards will be announced at the close of the cooking school lecture on Saturday, June 12, this particular session being given over to the girls who are members of the cooking school classes.
8. The goods exhibited in the contest will be dispensed through various charitable organizations under the auspices of the Society for Organizing Charity.
9. The prizes will be as follows:
For the first prize in each class, a modern Cabinet Gas Range valued at about $35. There will be at least a second and third prize and honorable mention in each of the four divisions. These prizes will be announced later.

domestic science event undoubtedly will prove of great interest to all thorough, careful, enthusiastic housewives. It is going to be one of the biggest domestic science events which has been held in Philadelphia or any other city in the United States, because every event and every word will pertain to the strictly modern or contemporary. It will not only give the housewives a more thorough understanding of what is most modern, most economical, most convenient and best for use for their kitchens of today, but will indicate to them facts about domestic science which are not yet generally known, but which will be the most common practice in the homes of tomorrow.

One of the most interesting features will be the all-gas kitchen idea as interpreted by Mrs. Carroll. She has learned to perform more kitchen work with gas at a smaller expenditure of money for this modern fuel than any other domestic science teacher or lecturer. In fact, she has found that proper use of this modern kitchen helps not only to save money, but to cut down expense as well. Many of her cooking operations are amazing to those who have not made a study of using the all-gas kitchen for all it is worth.

On the stage Mrs. Carroll will have, in addition to the gas ranges, other appliances which go toward lightening the housewife's burdens, shortening her hours and giving her better results than she has previously been accomplishing.

Of course there is a right way and a wrong way, an economical way and an expensive way of doing everything. Mrs. Carroll has given much time and effort in determining just the right way to perform every kitchen operation. She also has made a close study of effecting kitchen economies, but has not allowed her estimation of the value of kitchen economies to lead her to recommending cheap methods which would cut down efficiency, thoroughness or results. When the women of Philadelphia hear Mrs. Carroll lecture, they will learn the newest practices which make for the greatest efficiency with the least effort on the part of the housewife. That is what she will strive to give. She has been acclaimed as a real leader of domestic science thought in other cities and undoubtedly will win the same approval from Philadelphia women before she concludes her course June 12.

NO ORGANIZATION QUARREL OVER MAYOR, SAYS PENROSE

Says Republicans Will Win Here and Over State.

A clash between the McNichol and Vane factions of the Republican Organization over the naming of the next Republican candidate for Mayor is highly improbable, according to Senator Penrose. He predicted perfect harmony in the ranks.

"The hope is that there will be no factional fighting," said the Senator in the first statement he has issued regarding the approaching Mayoralty contest. "That would be unfortunate on the eve of a presidential election. That statement may be applied to all of the counties in Pennsylvania, where harmony of action is likely to prevail. The ticket will be successful in all of the Republican counties. In the other counties such as the anti-Wilson and the anti-Palmer sentiment among the Democrats that there are great prospects of the Republicans winning all or nearly all of the local offices."

Senator Penrose indicated that the Organization city and county "dates" probably would not be made up for about a month. He concluded by saying that there had been a general understanding in most of the counties, including Philadelphia, that local matters would not be considered until after the adjournment of the Legislature.

APPEAL FOR "DOGGIE" MILLER

Attorney Asks Aid for Slayer of Two Detectives.

An appeal to philanthropists and social workers to communicate with him has been issued by Francis Tracy Tobin, attorney for Jacob, alias "Doggie" Miller, who has been convicted of first-degree murder for the killing of Detectives Manely and Tucker.

Mr. Tobin, in his appeal, says the killing was not a willful, premeditated murder, and points out that Miller, who is but 29 years old, never had a home or any training, his parents having died when he was a child.

Miller is destitute, according to his attorney, and without means for carrying on a defense. He also is suffering from tuberculosis. His attorney contends he is too young to send to the electric chair.
