GERMANY TO HOLD LUSITANIA WAS UNIT IN BRITAIN'S NAVY

Reply to United States on Sinking of Liner Will Open Way for Further Negotiations.

BERLIN, May 28. That the German reply to the American note sent to Berlin after the Lusitania was sunk will not be final, but will open the way to a further exchange of diplomatic messages was intimated today by a high German official.

Dally conferences on the nature of the reply are now being held by Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg and Foreign Secretary Von Jagow. It is virtually complete, so far as the Lusitania incident is concerned. Germany's reply, it is said, will be that the destruction of that liner was justified because she was in reality an auxiliary cruiser. German official claim this is proved by the November navy list issued by the British Admiralty. German officials page 422 of that book, they asserted the Mauretania and Lusitania are listed sels." with this note: "The vessels named below are held by the Cunard Company at the disposal of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty and receive an annual subvention."

They further assert that Captain furner is named in the same navy list as an honorary commander of the Royal Naval reserves.

These facts, they contend, show that the Lustienia was a warship and that the commanded by an effect of the same commanded by an effect of the same commanded by a commander of the same commander commander of the

U. S. MAY GET GERMAN REPLY BY TOMORROW

THE HAGUE, May 28.—The German legation understands that Germany's re-ply to the American note on submarine warfare will be presented tomorrow, it is reported that the German reply will ask the American Government to confirm or deny that the Lusitania car-ried ammunition, and that further com-munications will depend upon the reply from Washington

Exporter and German Officer Among Men Accused.

NEW YORK, May 28 .- A conspiracy to defraud the United States through the filing of a false manifest on exports of rubber, in order to conceal its contra band character, is alleged in indictments found by the Federal Grand Jury yesterday against Harry R. Newman, a com-mission merchant; Franz Rosenberg, of Hanover, Germany, representative here of an Austrian rubber company, and Sig-mund Karman, of Budapest, Hungary, a rubber expert, who also is said to be in

Two shipments of a fine grade of rub-ber, valued at $50,000, are alleged to have been falsely manifested for export probably to Germany by way of Italy. One lot, it is stated, was found concealed in 300 barrels of resin and the other in 178 bales of cotton waste. The shipments were detected as the result of an X-ray examination and were seized.

A 15-year-old boy who ran away, he says, because he didn't like his step-mother, was found sound asleep early today at Germantown and Chestnut avenues. He has been turned over to De-testive Shea, at City Hall, and will be returned to his home. The lad is Charles Paul, of 723 West Allegheny avenue. Charles explained to Policeman Zinr of the Germantown station, that he ran of the Germantown Sation, that he ran away three weeks ago and had been working on a farm in New Jersey. He wanted to see his father, so he came back to the city last night. His father does not get home from work until about 3 o'clock, and Charles was "killing time," he said by riding around in trolley cars. he said, by riding around in trolley cars. The boy got off at Germantown and Chestnut avenues and leaned up against a wall to wait for a return car. Then he fell asleep. The bluccoat found him a short time later.

MEMORIAL EXERCISES IN SCHOOLS TODAY

Children of Various Grades Hear Addresses by Men Who Wore the Blue.

Memorial Day exercises were celebrated today in every public school in the city. Because the holiday will fall this year on Sunday a large part of today's sessions was devoted to ceremonies in honor of the men who died for the preservation of the Union.

In all of the schools members of the Grand Army of the Republic were among the list of speakers, they having been assigned to that duty by the officers of the organization:

Children of aix years listened to addresses by near-centenarians and the lesson of patriotism and self-sacrifice was deeply impressed upon the pupils. The classrooms and auditoriums were decorated with American flags.

At the Northeast High School, 8th street and Lehigh avenue, T. Asher Hess, chaplain of Post 114, G. A. R., delivered an oration. The veterans will be wel-comed by James R. Longstreet, president of the senior class. R. E. Hess, a stu-dent of the school, read an original poem on "The Vanishing Patriots."

on "The Vanishing Patriots," Specches were also made by Charles
W. Karsner, Post No. 5, G. A. R.; Captain J. G. Leiper and Captain James M.
Cox. An elaborate musical program marked the occasion. Miss Zipporah Rosenberg gave a soprano and there was singing by the entire body. The celebration at the Northeast High School was typical.

A pretty feature of the occasion was the presentation of blooms by the chil-dren in the elementary grades to be used for the decoration of the soldiers' graves. The youngsters carried the plants to the school this morning. They were placed in the hands of the teachers and then removed under their direction to the various cemeteries, where they will be arranged by the veterans.

INCOME TAX RETURNS

Philadelphia and Five Adjacent Counties Show Increase.

Philadelphia and five adjacent counties, which comprise the First United States district, will pay $2,714,570.70 under the in-dividual income tax, according to returns of the assessments received by Collector of Internal Revenue Lederer today. The figures are for 1914, and show that 18,000 persons in the district come under the purview of the tax, besides 5200 corpora-tions, the returns for which have not yet been received. This shows a gain of about $600,000 over 1913, when the assessments for individuals for ten months was $2,134,000. Payment must be made in cash, United States money orders or certified checks on or before June 30. A penalty of 5 per cent, is imposed for tardiness in paying, and an additional penalty of 1 per cent, for each month additional.

Five Women Caught in Vice Raid An alleged disorderly house at 2005 Arch treet was raided early today by Lieuternt Kunkle and detectives from the 15th and Vine streets police station, five women being arrested. LUTHERANS MAY STOP COLLECTION OF FUND

Much Opposition to Completion of $500,000 Amount Expected at Convention.

Strong oposition to the continuance of the campaign to collect the $500,000 education fund for the Evangelical Lutheran Ministerum of Peursylvania and Adjacent States is expected at the second day's sessions of the 168th annual convention in the Church of the Holy Communion, 25d and Chestnut streets, today. The committee in charge of the collection of this fund has prepared a communication to be submitted today, which tion of this fund has prepared a com-munication to be submitted today, which recommends that the work of collecting the amount be continued and efforts be made to complete it this year. The total amount subscribed thus far is only a little more than $150,000 and not much more than $100,000 of this has been paid in. There remains to be collected during this year about $400,000 if the fund is to be completed. ompleted.
Among the churches that have filled the strongest protest were the German Luth-eran. They ask to be relieved from contributing to the fund because of the heavy drain they have been under in assisting their native country's distressed and needy as the result of the European war. It is also said that other churches consider the fund too great a burden under the present business conditions, and that not a few of them will voice pro-tests at today's sessions. The fact that many of them did not assist the fund last year is taken as indicative of their feelng toward it.
