

Evening Illustrated Ledger

MONDAY
May 31, 1915

EXERCISES AND SPORTS OF THE NATIONAL HOLIDAY ARE RECORDED HERE BY THE CAMERA

VETERANS OF ALL UNITED STATES SERVICES OBSERVE THE DAY OF MEMORIES WITH VARIOUS EXERCISES

The United States Army and Navy Union, which embraces in its membership veterans of battles fought by land and sea in defense of the United States, divided its Memorial Day services between Independence Square and Hillside Cemetery. At Independence Square, after the reading of Lincoln's Gettysburg address and other exercises, Colonel George Barnett Garrison No. 80 fired a salute over the statue of George Washington, which stands before the Hall. The Department then formed at Fifth and Chestnut and marched by way of Market street, as shown above, to the Reading Terminal. There the members entrained for Hillside Cemetery, where a monument to George Poinsett, who was killed at Vera Cruz, was unveiled.

CHINESE VISITORS SPEND QUIET MEMORIAL DAY

President Cheng Hsun Chang (in Oriental costume) and Secretary Li Chi Chu, of the Chinese Commercial Commission, now in this city, spent this morning at the Commercial Museums, 34th and Spruce streets, where this picture was taken. The president is said to be the richest man in China.

FIRING A SALUTE OVER THE FLORAL REPLICA OF THE "MAINE"

The U. S. Naval Veterans this morning consigned to the waters of the Delaware the flower-ship "Maine" in memory of their dead. The salute over the ship was fired by sailors from the Philadelphia Navy Yard.

U. S. SAILORS HONORING VETERANS OF THEIR SERVICE

The sailors are from the Philadelphia Navy Yard. They came from there to take part in the parade of the Naval Veterans. Behind the detachment shown above came the men dragging the cannons which were later discharged as shown in the picture immediately above this one.

"TRIS" SPEAKER FLINGS HIS BAT AWAY—AFTER HE HAS MADE A HIT

In this morning's game at Shibe Park "Tris" Speaker, of the Red Sox, made his accustomed hit. He is shown here making a quick "get-away" to first, sending his useful bat spinning back in the direction of Catcher McAvoy and Umpire Connolly.