ROOF GARDEN REOPENS

BELLEVUE-STRATFORD

Society Attended Formal Reopening in Numbers Last Night.

Despite the fact that rain was falling In torrents within a few feet, many persons dined and danced and supped last night on the Bellevue-Stratford Roo! Gardens, secure from the outside storm, so well are the gardens protected from weather, and yet when the nights are clear the room effect of the roof disappears and the flower-decked gardens of the air make the observer forget that such things as walls and windows exist.

The spacious rooms were beautifully decorated last night with trailing vines and many gerantums of a rich red. The railings were outlined with boxes of flowers and inverted lights shed a soft glow over the diners. In the south garden a dance floor of polished wood has been raised above the stone floor some four inches.

A novel feature of last night's decoration were numbers of canary birds in small cages throughout the rooms, and there were also four rare Japanese singing blids who added their sweet music to the general galety.

Among thuse who attended dinner and Supper were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Oscar Wilhur, who had as their guests Mass Madeleine Elliott, Miss Ruth Ren. Miss Madeleine Eiliott, Miss Ruth Rea, Miss Elizabeth Craig, Miss Jenn Beasley and Miss Beatrice Wallace. Mr. and Mrs. John G. Carruth entertained Mis. Joseph Norris and her son, Alfred Norris. Absolutely Pure

Never Questioned

Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure and wholesome. It is made from highly refined, pure, cream of tartar, an ingredient of grapes. Not an atom of unwholesomeness goes into it; not an unwholesome influence comes from it. It perfectly leavens the food, makes it finer in appearance, more delicious to the taste, more healthful.

Its superiority in all the qualities that make the perfect baking powder is never questioned.
