FAVORITES WIN AT LAWN TENNIS TODAY

Centianed from Page One ractly in front of the women's clubhouse Mrs. McLean won out, 3-6, 7-5, 8-6, earning the right to play Mrs. George W. Wightman, nee Hotchkiss, in the third round, who easily disposed of Miss May B. Snyder, Pittsburgh, in two sets. Miss Molla Bjursteds was another easy winner, and after she defeated Miss E. Lindlay, of the West Side Tennis Club, 6-2, 6-0, asked J. M. Jennings, chairman of the Tournament Committee: "Has I to play again today?" The reply made or Miss Eleanora Sears was, "No, you hasn't," and both came in for some good-

of the opening set, lost the fifth, won the six, and, after Mrs. McLean had captured the sevenish and eighth, Mrs. Wallach took the ninth and the set. The second set was much more hotly contested and was not decided in Mrs. McLean's fevor until 12 games had been played.

The seven-minute rest between the second and third sets did Mrs. McLean a great deal more good than it did Mrs. Wallach, for the latter than the set of the seven-minute rest between the second and third sets did Mrs. McLean a great deal more good than it did Mrs. Wallach, for the latter than the set of the seven-minute rest between the second and third sets did Mrs. McLean a great deal more good than it did Mrs. Wallach, for the latter than the set of the seven-minute rest between the second and third sets did Mrs. McLean a great deal more good than it did Mrs.

great deal more good than it did Mrs. Wallach, for the latter was visibly tired, and it was apparent right at the start of the deciding set. The type of tennis that Mrs. Wallach plays (she is a "getter") is much more tiring than the placing same of Mrs. McLean, and after they had fought hard for is games Mrs. Wallach was almost ready to drop.

She managed to last out the 13th and 14th games, but lost them both and the

Another feature of the play in the secend round was the victory gained by Mrs. A. J. Drexel Paul, Merion, over Mss Florence Ballin, one of the best West Side cracks, in three sets, 6-3, 1-6, 7-5.

By the appearance of the draw, now that the third round has been reached, Mrs. Wightman has much the harder task ahead of her. Tomorrow she must play Mrs. McLean, and unless an upset occurs, on the following day she will meet Mrs. T. A. Cabot, of Longwood, or Miss Eleanora Sears. In the bracket above is Mrs. Robert LeRoy, one of the West Side Tennis Club's leading players.

SAILOR TAYLOR MEETS LANKY ROSEN TONIGHT

Elongated West Philadelphian and Navy Champ Clash at Fairmount-Ring Notes.

Two heavyweight matches are booked as the feature attraction of the weekly show at the Pairmount A. C. tonight. In the final fracas, Sam Taylor, billed as heavyweight champion of the United States navy, will appear in combat with Joe (Lengthy) Rosen, of West Philadelphia. Gus Hunt and Jack Russell are the other gigantic hunks of humanity schedway Club Thursday night. Tormy Welsh, of West Philadelphia, will mingle with Wille Hannon, of Point Breeze, in the semi.

Gray's Ferry boasts of four brother box ers, all former amateur champions. They are Ray Hamilton, Jack Hamilton, Eddie Carlin and Stanley Hinckle. Hamilton is the real name of the Fighting Four.

Charley White, of Chicago, is the busiest lightweight in the ring at the present tree. He is booked for two rights in one week. Tonight, at Boston, the left-hook bearcat will tackle "our own" Charley Thomas and next Tuesday night White will tackle Young Brown at Billy McCarney's American Sporting Club, New
