HAVERFORD AWARDS 42 DIPLOMAS AS SPEAKER PRAISES THEIR WORTH

Dr. Luther, President of Trinity College, Tells Graduates Higher Education Produces a Better World.

Philadelphia Would Be More Useful and Better Governed. He Says, If All Persons Living in City Had College Training.

Philadelphia would be a more useful and a better-governed city if every man and woman in it more than 21 years old had a college degree, in the opinion of Dr. Slavell Sweeten Luther, president of Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., who delivered the commencement address today at Haverford college.

"The indictment of business men and others 10 years ago that the colleges were not producing the kind of men the country needs," said Doctor Luther. "would not hold good today, It was a serious charge, and it caused deep concern to colleges all over the country. It has taken 10 good years to re-establish the institutions of higher learning in the confidence of the country.

"The student is made to work harder teday than his father was 40 years ago, and he learns more." Dector Luther then turned to the alumni members. "We have all heard of the college graduate who knows more than his father," he continued, "but your sons know more than you did at their age and educa-

Would it not be a great thing to have a completely educated city? Philadel-phia, for instance. If every man and woman in Philadelphia more than 21 years old had a college degree it would be a libiter city in which to live, a more useful city and a better governed city." FORTY-TWO DEGREES AWARDED.

Forty-two graduates received degrees in arts and sciences at the commence-

Order Sending Three Regiments to Philippines Suspended at Gen. Funston's Re-

WASHINGTON, June IL-At the request of General Funsion, in command of United States troops along the Mexican border, the War Department today suspended the recent order transferring to the Philippines the 9th and 18th cavalry regiments and the 27th regiment of infantry, now at the border posts.

Punston reported unexpected difficulties in handling the Red Cross relief supplies, requiring more men to guard the supplies along the border than would be at his disposal if these regiments were removed at once. The scarcity of food in northern Mexico is so serious that he proposes to take no chances of bandit raids on hose shipments.

The subcommittee met a little more than a week ago and framed a bill which that it had made a demand on the Villista authorities in the State of Chihushua to suspend the sentence of execution passed by military court upon George Marx and S. Franklin, presumably American citisens, for circulating counterfeit money at Juarez. Consul Edwards, at Juarez, was instructed to notify the Villista authorities that "no summary measure must be taken" in the case until the United States has examined the evidence against the men.
