DONALDSON BREAKS BALTUSROL RECORD WITH CARD OF 70 Three of Four Players in Semi-

WHEN COMPANY HAS GONE

Chicago Golfer Makes Sensational Score in Fourth Round of National Open Championship at Short Hills.

BALTUSROL CLUB, Short Hills, N. J., June 18.—James A. Donaldson, Glenview Club, of Chicago, this afternoon broke the record of the course with a 70 which nobody thought would be done under the pressure of so late a stage of the compe-tition. Previously he had not been going so well. His card follows:

Out 5 3 4 6 3 4 4 4 3—36 In 3 4 3 5 4 4 5 3 3—34—70 Francis Ouimet and Chick Evans, star amateurs, had a bad time of it this morning in the third round. Each took an 50, Evans' putting being uncertain, while Ouimet tended to general wildness, as in his qualifying round.

Among professionals Robert MacDonald more than held his own with 73, which gives him the formidable total of 222. Jerome Travers returned a 73, which, with his 147 yesterday, makes him 221 and puts him for the time being in the lead.

Wilfred Reid, late of England, always a possibility, virtually held his own with a 75. Tom McNamara, Boston, was cautious with 74, making him 223, only a stroke over MacDonald. Walter Hagen, Rochester, present champion, was again rather high with 76, which means that there will be a new title-holder.

Following are the early scores, showing the his and out total for the day, yesterday's score and total for the three rounds: Emmett French, York, Pa. 30 36 75 156 231 Otto Hackbarth, Finedale., 42 37 79 155 234 Isaac Maxile. FINE TENNIS SEEN AT STATE MATCHES final Round at Haverford From Merion Club.

HAVERFORD, Pa., June 18.—Three of the four players who qualified for the semifinal round of the singles of the Pennsylvania tennis tournament at Haverford proved to be from Merion, W. H. Tilden, Jr., Germantown, brilliant young player, being the only exception.

Tilden opposed Wallace Johnson, one of the best-known players in the country, in the feature match of the day, which was watched by a large and appreciative gallery. Tilden's great height gives him a wonderful service, which is extremely hard to return, and his overhead play is also very good, while his back-and drive is as pretty a shot as is ever seen on Johnson played a cool, accurate placing game, keeping his opponent contin-ually on the run, while Tilden came to the net at every good opportunity, inter-cepting some of Johnson's drives for clear kills. The other semifinal match also produced brilliant tennis.

also produced brilliant tennis.
Young Joe Armstrong, former Harvard star, opposed Craig Biddle in a close contest. Armstrong played a very pretty game, and frequently forced the play, but Biddle was alert and resourceful, his shots being well almed and paced so that neither players gained a distinct advantage.

In the doubles Stanley Pearson and L.
C. Wlater, of Germantown, met Craig
Biddle and F. E. Dixon in a contest features by brilliant ground strekes and Dixon's net play. Pearson and Wister displayed excellent teamwork, and many flast rallies occurred in the first set. Richard Crozier and W. H. Tevis Huhn met Armstrong and Rowland Evans, Jr., and a close match resulted, Crozier makand a close match results, ing many swift volleys for clean aces. Evans also showed up well, while Huhn classed a steady placing game. Johnson played a steady placing game. tested every point sharply.

Charley White will be unable to lefthook aspiring lightweights into dream-land for at least three weeks. He had a small hone removed from his middle right finger Wednesday at a New York hospital, and he will be forced on the side lines for that period. At that, White could show up many of the lightweights with his left hand while his right dangled Sam Robideau, total lightweight, fresh from a win over Walter Mohr, will ap-pear in the line-up of the Point Breeze Park baseball team tomorrow afternoon.

He has been signed up by Manager Ed-die McLoughlin for the season. Sam may hold down the keystone sack posi-tion. The park nine will play Southwark National Bank tomorrow. 15-year-old Lad in Tourney

WANT NEWARK CLUB

Harrisburg Fans Hope to Bring International League Nine There.

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 18.—Granted an extension of time of 24 hours from last night within which to raise a suf-ficient guarantee, local baseball en-thusiasts were confident today of bringing the Newark International League team to Harrisburg.

One of the leaders at noon said: "I'm sure we've put it across."

The Newark management asked a $5000 guarantee, which is being raised by the sale of season tickets.

West Walnut Wants Games

West Walnut Wants Games

The West Walnut C. C., of West Philadelphia, fresh from its victories over Delco Fraternity, of Darby, and the Philadelphia Electric Club is seeking new inurels and would like to arrange games with frat-class home teams in or out of the city paying fair guarantees. After looking over the line on any manager familiar with star ball players of West Philie will notice that West Walnut has some of the best players in that part of the city. The present line-up is: DeWald, catcher; Farley, Mulhern and Pone, pitchers, McLaughlin, first hase: Farley, second base: Keane, sheristop and captain, Gersghty, third base: Rau, left field; O'Connell, centre field, and Clark, right field. Pope, who pitched against the "Live Wires," allowed but four hits. The winning run was scored when Gersghty hit a single with two men on the bases in the Bith inning. Rain them stopped the agame, Much credit also must be given to the base and Ryan for their heavy hitting and unlimited amount of "pap." Any manager wishing to book this star aggregation for either failurday or Sunday games communicate with Manager Walter J. Haffey, SE Bouth 50th street, or phone woodland feet D, before 4 50 p. m.
