H. M'GRATH IS STAR ALL-AROUND RUNNER AT TELEPHONE GAMES

Gets Firsts in 100 and 220-Yard Dashes at P. R. R. Field-Wins Broad Jump and Second in Shot-put by Way of Extra Work.

P. R. R. Y. M. C. A., Philadelphia,

The Spare Pair Athletic Association of the Bell Telephone Company held its fourth annual outdoor athletic meet this afternoon on the P. R. R. Y. M. C. A. neld, 44th and Parkside avenue. A large crowd of friends and relatives were on hand to cheer the telephone company's employees.

employes.
Several hundred athletes participated in the 19 events which were scheduled.
The Spare Pair Band of 25 pieces, under the feadership of G. W. Roberts, played national airs to the crowd between the athletic events. The events were carried out under the supervision of L. H. Kinnard, who was director, and Manager J. H. Carroll. The latter is president of the Spare Pair Athletic Association.
The final races of the 100-yard dash were the Spare Pair Athletic Association.

The final races of the 100-yard dash were highly interesting, H. J. McGrath winning the men's final in 192-5 seconds. Smith gave him a good fight, being less than a foot behind him at the finish. In the boys' final, Lomax won rather easily in 124-5 seconds, Lare coming out second. McGrath, the young Mercury A. C. lad, starred in the meet, winning the high jump, 100-yard dash and 220-yard dash. This 220-yard dash he only won after a jump, 100-yard dash and 220-yard dash. This 220-yard dash he only won after a great spurt at the finish. It was a pretty race. McGrath covering the distance in 22 seconds flat. Good time.

The various events in the tug-of-war between the Philadelphia Division and the Eastern Division have been highly exciting for the spectators. The heavy-weight event was won in two straight heats by the Philadelphia Division, the pulling of Fry at "anchor" featuring. The middleweight tug-of-war was won by the Eastern Division in the first heat and by the Philadelphia Division in the second. The third heat was won by the Eastern Division by a mere sixteenth of an inch.

H. J. McGrath's work in the jumps and dashes was commendable. In the running broad jump he made 20 feet 7 inches, while Mathers, who came out a close second, jumped 20 feet 6 inches. The high jump, too, he won, by one inch, over Mulholland, who came out second, McGrath's winning mark being 5 feet 7 inches. The 100-yard dash final was easy for him his time being 10.25 seconds. In for him, his time being 102-5 seconds. In the 220-yard dash his spurt at the finish just brought him out first, covering the distance in the good time of 23 seconds. He also came out second in the shot-put, throwing it 35 feet 1½ inches, while Smith, who won the event, threw it 36 feet 5 inches.

Bill Phillips Released

NEWARK, N. J. June 22.—William Phillips, manager of the Newark Federals, was released today and William McKechnie, third baseman of the ciub, was appointed in his place. Disantisfaction over the recent showing of the Newark Feds under Phillips was one of the reasons for making the change. The other was to reduce salary bills.

Phillips was a star pitcher in the big leagues about 15 years ago. He managed the pennant winning Indianapolis clubs in the Federal League in 1913 and 1914 and was kept in that position when the club was transferred to Newark this

FEDERALS WILL BUILD BIG PARK IN NEW YORK FOR SEASON OF 1916

Finley J. Shepard and Henry C. Frick Reported Behind Plans for Rival Ball Club-Stadium to Be Biggest in Country.

NEW YORK, June 19.-The Federal League will have a club in New York city in 1916. The team will be transferred city in 1918. The team will be transferred from one of the other cities in the western end of the Federal circuit.

The backer of the New York Federal League club, whose name will not be announced for some time, is reputed to be a millionaire several times over. The playing field for the Federals already has been procured. It is 580 feet long and 540 feet wide, is in the heart of the city, 20 blocks nearer to the down-

Horse King, Fenmouse and Polarius also any posts supporting the upper tier of the grandstands.

Fourth race, the Long Beach handicap the plans have been drawn by Architect Comstock, of New York, who de-relative to placing a club in New York.

The field that the Federals will use in Manhattan in 1916 is the same field upon which they obtained an option nearly a year ago, and which was exercised just recently when the necessary backing for the club was secured.
Finley J. Shepard, who married Helen Gould, and Henry C. Frick, multi-millionaire, have been reported as the men be-hind the New York Federals, but the Federal League leaders will not make any statement at this time.

CROSS BEATEN BY DUNDEE Freddy Welsh and Lustig in Dancing

NEW YORK, June 19.—With 12,000 of the fight fans looking on at Ebbets Field, in Brooklyn, last night, Leach Cross was outpointed by Johnny Dundee. Cross had the satisfaction of staggering Dundee in the 19th round, but the bell brought the bout to a close before Leach could follow up his advantage.

The Welsh-Lustig bout was a mastery exhibition of the terpsichorean art. Lustig could not hit Welsh because Freddy would not let him. Freddy danced all over the canvas in most approved modern fashion, and the blows the champion landed had about as much power and effect as a mess of cream puffs,

NELSON AND HOUCK IN DRAW

Principals in Main Bout at Fairhill A. C. Break Even.

Johnny Nelson and Willie Houck boxed six hard, fast rounds to a draw in the final bout at the Fairhill Athletic Club last night. Nelson had the advantage at long range, while Houck excelled at infighting.

Paddy Bedley and Danny Murphy went six rounds to an even break in the semi-wind-up. Whitey Baker proved to be too experienced for Jimmie Burks, who substituted for Duke Bowers, in the third contest, and the referee stopped the bout in the fifth round. In the other contests, Bobby McLeod won from Pat Feener, while the referee stopped the bout between Joe Phillips and Gus Anderson, as the latter was too big for his opponent. the latter was too big for his opponent.

J. C. DAVIDSON LANDS ATLANTIC GOLF TITLE AT WILMINGTON CLUB

In Final of Junior Tennis Columbia C. C. Man Defeats Fellow Clubman, E. B. Eynon, Jr., 5 up and 4 to Play in a Rather Indifferent Exhibition

WILMINGTON, Del., June 18 .- J. C. Davidson, of the Columbia Country Cha, Washington, won the Middle Atlantic Golf Association championship at the Wilmington Country Club today. In the final round he defeated a fellow clus member, E. B. Eynon, Jr., after a rather indifferent exhibition of golf, 5 up and 4 te play. Davidson returned a really good medal score 33 out, and three over fours to the fourteenth coming home, but that was the result of his high-class putting the one redeeming feature of the match. Davidson won four holes of the first way and lost two, so was 2 up at the
