DREADNOUGHT ARIZONA GLIDES DOWN WAYS INTO THE EAST RIVER

World's Greatest Sea Fighter Successfully Launched at Brooklyn Navy Yard Before Vast Crowd of Onlookers.

NEW YORK, June 12.—The superdread-nought Arisons, the most powerful bat-ileship in the world, was successfully launched this afternoon at the Brooklyn Navy Yard. She took the water at 1:10 o'clock.

The launching and christening of the Arizona passed off without incident. While 15,000 persons in and around the navy yard and thousands upon the Brooklyn and Manhattan bridges and other points of vantage cheered, and the Brooklyn Navy Yard marine band crashed out martial music, the giant man-of-war slid down the ways and plunged into the waters of East River.

Although Governor Hunt, of Arizona, had brought a jug of the first water that rippled over Roosevelt dam for the christening, it was not used. Miss Esther Ross, of Prescott, called "the prettient girl in of Prescott, called "the prettiest girl in Arisons," amashed a bottle of champagne against the hull as she exclaimed:

"I christen thee Arizona." prayer was delivered by Bishop At-

Among those on the stand were Secre tary of the Navy Daniels, Rear Admiral Usher, commandant of the Brooklyn Navy Yard, and Mayor Mitchel.

Secretary Daniels in an address preced-ing the launching asserted that the Ari-zons was the fourth ship to be constructed at the Brooklyn yard and de-clared every navy yard should be able to build the country's naval craft. He

The backbone of the navy still is the powerful dreadnought that can keep the seas in any weather and which, with its great armament of powerful guns and secondary batteries, and with protection against submarine torpedo, can concen-trate its power.

We will, if we are wise, make every navy yard capable of constructing our naval craft. Two years ago we could build only in one yard on the Atlantic and one yard on the Pacific coast. In a time of national crisis this capacity of all our navy yards to do actual construction as well as compare work would of all our navy yards to do actual construction as well as repair work would be of inestimable value." The Secretary declared that while dreadnoughts are to be constructed at the Brooklyn yard, a destroyer and colliers are being built at the Mare Island yard, and the largest transport ever authorized by Congress is about to be constructed at League Island, Philadelphia, its keel being laid today. At the Boston yard, he said, a supply ship is under construction, and submarines are to be built at Portsmouth, N. H. He added that the 11 battleships now under construction or just completed make "a very credible showing" for the American navy for one year. American navy for one year.

After the launching Secretary Daniels and other notables were guests at a luncheon at the navy yard.

ARIZONA SPEEDILY BUILT.

The Arizona is a great triumph for Rear Admirsl Nathaniel R. Usher, head of the Brooklyn navy yard, and his subordinate directors. She was built in 15 months, or three months less time than the pri-vately built Pennsylvania. On the ways on which the Arisona was constructed the California will be begun at once. The California will be the first electrically driven battleship in the world, which will be a thousand tons larger than the craft launched today.

The Arizona, in the opinion of Secre-tary Daniels, could meet and vanquish the Queen Elizabeth, the best ship in the the Queen Elizabeth, the best ship in the British navy.

She will be able to throw from her 12 14-inch rifles a broadsides of 16,800 pounds a distance of 20 miles, and engage in effective target practice at 12 miles. She will displace 31,400 tons light and more than 32,000 tons when fully equipped and manned. The nearest approach to such a tonnage is made by the four new dreadnoughts being turned out for Germany and the four under construction for Javan. These ships displace about 2000

Japan. These ships displace about 30,000 On the water line she will measure 600 feet and will have an over-all length of 608 feet. Her beam is 97½ feet and her mean draft almost 29 feet. She will have five decks, with a bridge and two plat-forms. There are 24 main traverse water-tight compartments and about 400 com-partments in all. She will develop about 15,000 horsepower and make almost 22 knots.

A "litney" should be compelled to carry a passenger from Shink street to Eric avenue for 5 cents.

A taxical should he allowed to charge $2.50 for carrying a passenger the same distance.

Similarly, a "litney" should carry a passenger from the Delaware to 63d street for 5 cents.

A taxical should be allowed to charge $2.50 over the same routs.

That is a comparison of rates for "litneys" and taxicals as deemed equitable by the Law Committee of Councils and inserted in secret session in the two bills to regulate "litneys" and "taxia" in the city.

The taxicals will be allowed to charge $0 cents for the first mile or fraction thereof and 10 cents for each additional quarter mile, if the ordinances become effective. "litneys" will be prohibited from charging more than 5 cents for 6 miles.

The ordinances will be before Councils next Wednesday.

STRUGGLE FOR LIVES STARTED BY "JITNEYS"

City Flooded With Protests Against Proposed Unfair Legislation by Councils.

Thousands of handbills and hundreds of petitions are to be circulated in defense of the "jitneys" against proposed legislation in Councils that would drive them from the streets.

The Law Committee of Councils secret session applied amendments to the pending "litney" ordinance that would prohibit the "litneys" from charging more than a cents for a six-mile ride. A parallel taxicab-regulating ordinance allows the "taxis" to charge $2.50 for a six-mile ride on a basis of rates of 50 cents for the first mile or fraction thereof and 10 cents for each additional quarter mile. "Jitneya" and taxicabs must each pay bond of $2500. A meeting to organize the "litney" drivers of the city was held last night in the Parkway building and in a storm of denunciation of Councils a plan was formulated to distribute 10,000 handbills and circulate 600 petitions against Councils' contemplated action. The handbill

"The Jitney is the carriage of the man or woman who cannot afford to own an automobile. That is the reason why those In power are giving the corporations power to drive the jitneys off the streets. Are you going to submit to this tyranny? Haven't you as much right to ride in an automobile as your rich neighbor? Let us show those who are trying to pull off this deal that the people will not stand for it. Sign a petition to Councils and see your Councilman and tell him you will not stand for such a rotten deal. He needs your vote at the next election and make it plain that he will not get it if he does not get on the job and stop this attempt against the right of the people to enjoy the same privilege as the

It is the third organization of its kind to spring up since the "Jitneys" came into popularity. The men arranging for the meeting were Samuel S. K. Helss, of 5001 North Broad street; J. D. Beauchmain, 2125 Oxford street; Charles Helleg, 2022 North 13th street, and Harry Pollock, 1840 South Street; and Harry Pollock, 1840 South

Opposed to the general tone of protest and denunciation that predominated at the Parkway meeting was the statement made by John H. Fow, attorney for the "Jitney Bus Association." the body of which Richard Costello is president.

Fow said that the amended ordinance with its $50 license fee and six-mile rides for a nickel is not only satisfactory to the "Jitney Bus Association." but that those provisions actually were suggested by Richard Costello, president of the as ociation.

The "jitney" ordinance will be reported to Councils by the Law Committee next Wednesday. It then will be called up for action in Common Council either on action in Common Council either on Wednesday, June 30, or Thursday, July 1.

EXPOSES HIS ROOMMATE IN NAVY SCHOOL INQUIRY

Summer Cruise Must Be Postponed as Result of Scandal.

Result of Scandal.

ANNAPOLIS, June 19.—The first testimony regarding the existence of an advance copy of the last examinations in the modern languages department was given today by Midshipman Edward H. Jones to the court investigating examinations at the Naval Academy. Jones is the roommate of Midshipman T. W. Harrison, Jr., one of the defendants.

Jones said he saw this paper on the desk of his roommate the night before the examination. He identified it as a copy of the examination, which was shown him today, but said that it had the heading cut off when he saw it on Harrison's table. He stated he understood the paper came from Midshipman James Moss, another of the defendants. He said that Moss often received mathematical works through the mail, but that he did not brove with seat them. through the mail, but that he did not now who sent them.

All hope has been abandoned of starting the summer cruise tomorrow morning. There are 13 midshipmen from the ships still to be called by the Judge Advocate, and 19 who must verify their testimony. This is a big day's work in itself, but there remain all the midshipmen who are to be called by the 16 defendants. The exact number of these witnesses is not known, but their examination will take two or three days and will postpone the start of the cruise until the middle of next week.

FIRE-BLIGHT CAUSES LOSS TO FRUIT CROP OF STATE

Output Reduced From 100 to 10 Per Cent., Expert Says.

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., June 19.-Fireblight attacks on apple and pear orchards in the southern half of Pennsylvania ards in the southern hair of Pennsylvania have reduced the crop prompets from 190 per cent. to less than 10 per cent. Dr. John P. Stewart, experimental pomologist of the Pennsylvania State College, said today. After visiting the affected districts, Doctor Stewart pronounced the outbreak to be the most serious he had ever observed in the State.

Doctor Stewart described the orchards attacked as offering the appearance of woodland swept by forest fires. The dis-case affects the blossoms and twigs of pears, apples and quinces.

According to Doctor Stewart there is to simple remedy to correct the situation no simple remedy to correct the situation. Constant removal of all diseased parts, making the cuts well beyond the external evidence of the injury, disinfecting large wounds and frequent washing of the pruning tools with dense lime-sulphur solution or corrosive sublimate, were the most reliable methods of control, he said.

Police Court Chronicles

A five-mile drunk, with an endless umber of complicated drinks along the route, is enough to bring dismay to any man. But Ezekiel Handls, who has a farm near Frankford, thought he was an exception to the rule. He is known as "Zeke" to his intimate friends-and the police. He cultivated the acquaintance of the latter while on his riotous tour. Zeke rode downtown to a very swell hotel. After tipping the walter he picked up a menu and pointed to the wine list. "See that," said Zeke; "I'm going to start at the top and drink all the way to the bottom."

The waiter—give him credit—pointed out the danger of such a task to the deter-nined guest, but Zeke vowed he would not be sidetracked. He started with a modest beer and proceeded up Broad street. He then took a whisky, a high-ball, a gin rickey, a Manhattan and s sliver gin fizz. This brought him to Columbia avenue. A brandy, a milk punch, an ale and a "Mamie Taylor" brought him to Lehigh avenue.

Down Lehigh avenue he went and dotted the line of march with an absinthe frappe, creme de menthe and some Vermouth At Front street and Lehigh avenue Zeke was still able to talk to policemen and he proudly showed his wine list, with the drinks ticked off, as he had sampled them. He was cautioned to go home, but frowned upon the advice. Several doses of benedictine, and a number of other drinks which had the bar-tenders guessing, finally brought Zeke to within six of the end of the menu-and, ncidentally, to Front street and Girard There the concoctions of the night re belied against him, and while Zeke was running in a circle around Front street and Girard avenue with a quart bottle of whicky he was captured by Policeman Midgett. True to his name, he is small, but, although Zeke is three times his size, he brought him to the Front and size, he brought him to the Front and Master streets station.

Zeke attempted to show Magistrate Scott how far he had to go on the list of drinks, but couldn't find the place he "left off."

As the prisoner declared that he would finish the job as soon as he was discharged, the Judge sent him to the House of Correction for three months.
