

THE NEWS OF THE WORLD AT A GLANCE AS RECORDED BY THE EVER-PRESENT CAMERA MAN

Copyright by Underwood & Underwood
ALLIES LAND AT DARDANELLES UNDER COVER OF GUNS OF BATTLE FLEET
The photo shows the Indians of the British forces marching away from the beach to take up their camp inland.

NO LONGER MRS. TOWER, Jr.
Mrs. Georgianna Burdick Tower was granted a divorce yesterday from Charlemagne Tower, Jr., son of the former Ambassador to Germany. The divorce was granted on the charge of desertion, and the papers impounded.

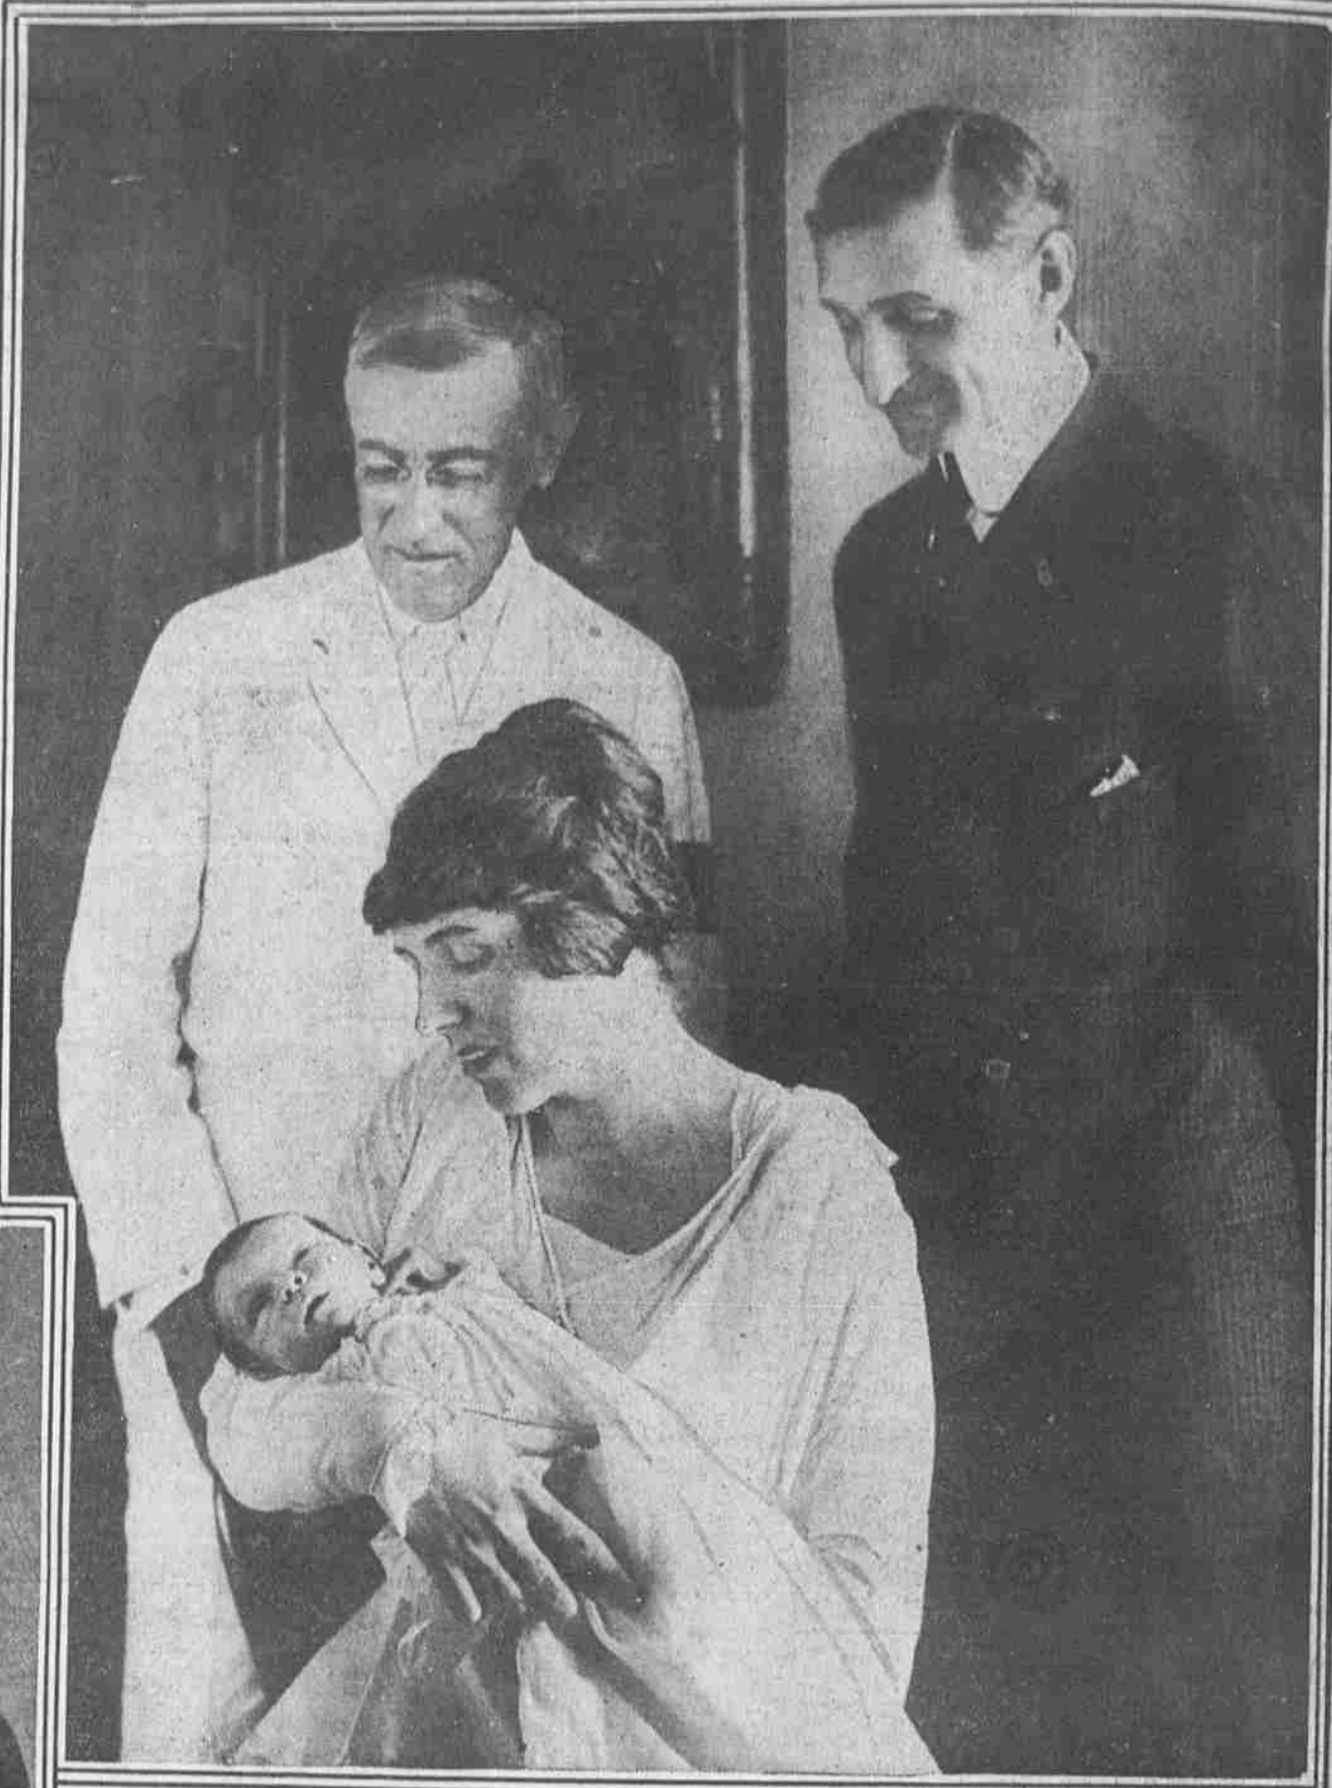

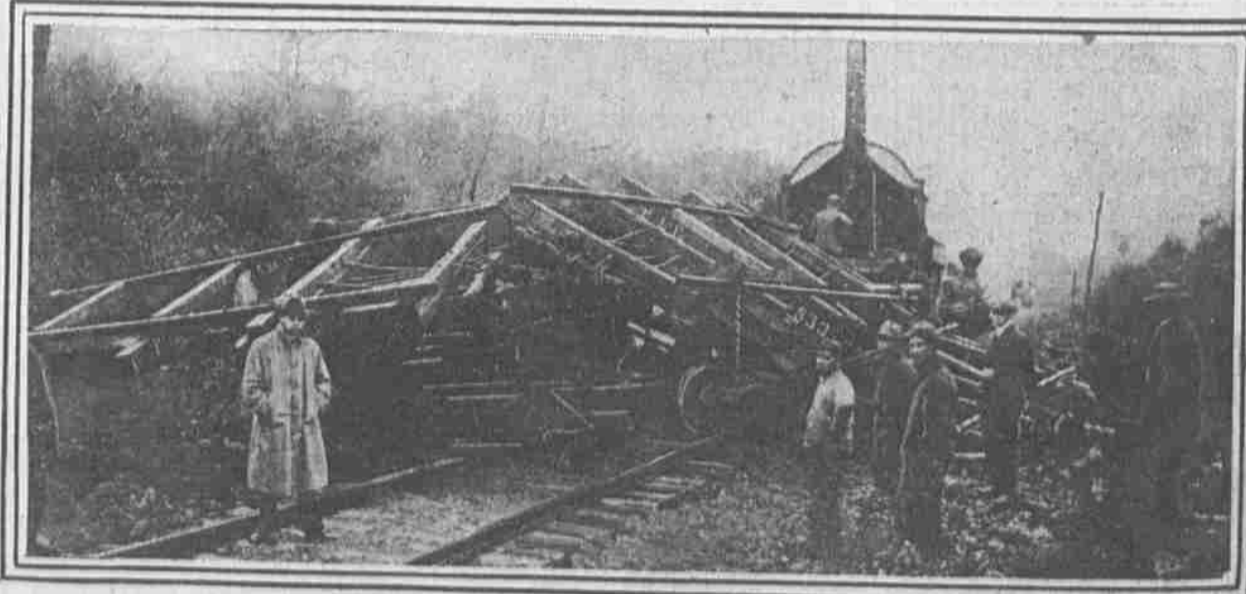

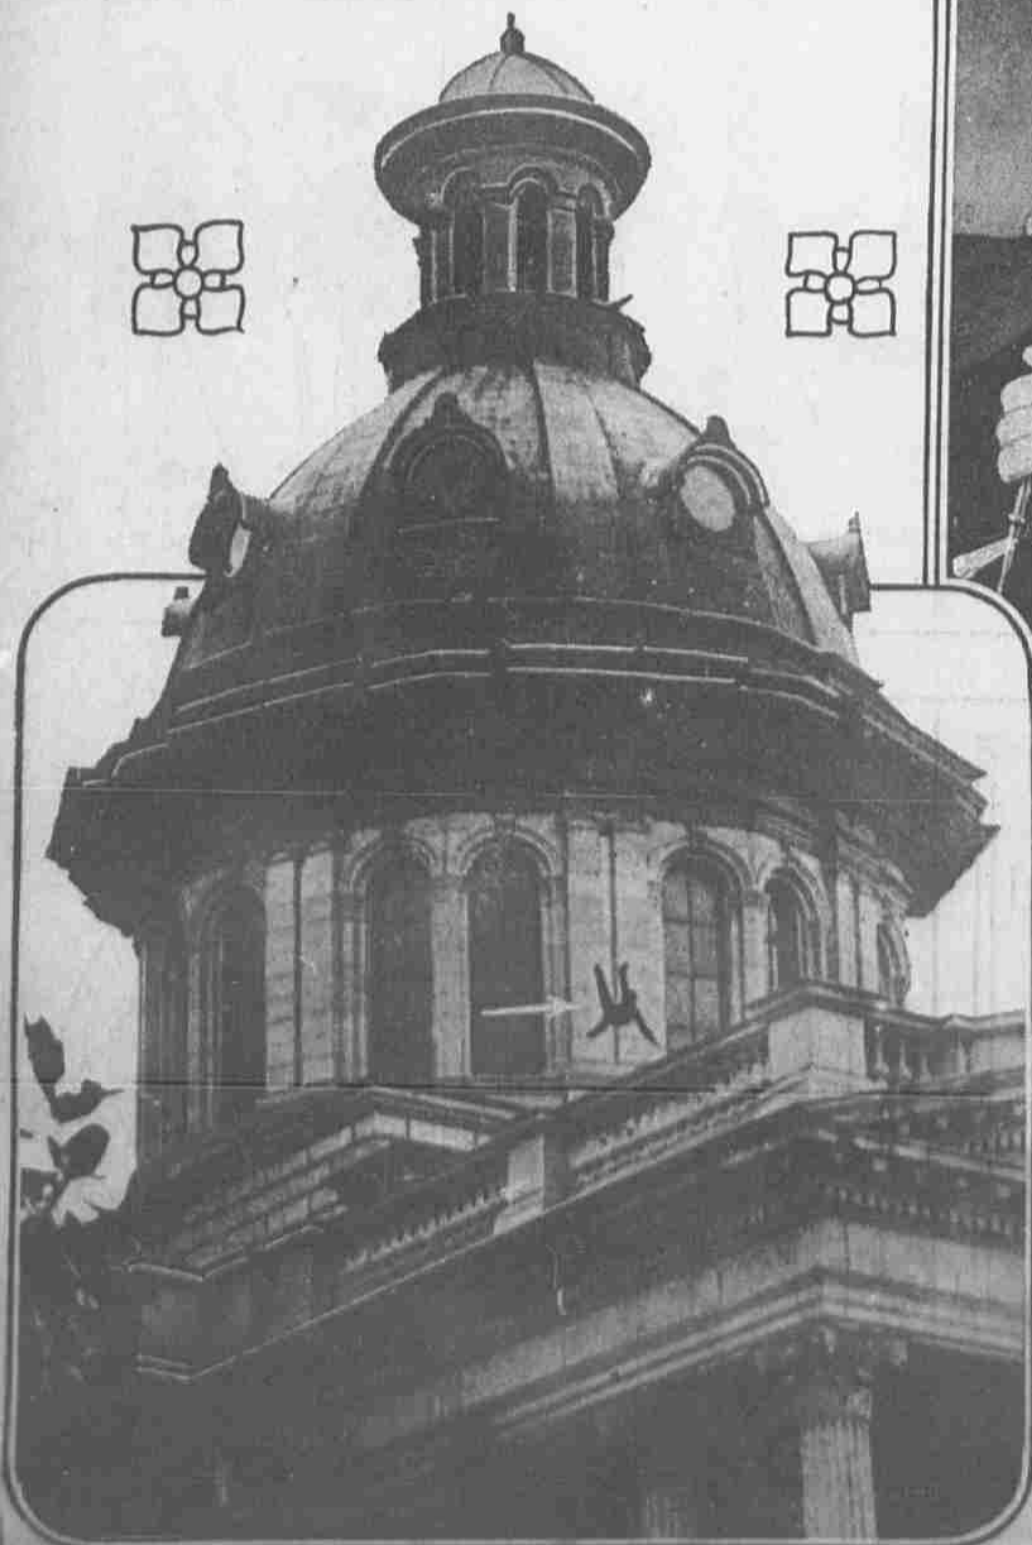

Photo by Harris & Ewing.
NEWEST WHITE HOUSE BABY HAS HER PICTURE TAKEN
Little Miss Ellen Wilson McAdoo, aged about two months, has just submitted to the camera, and her first picture, in company with her mother, who was Miss Eleanor Wilson; her father, Secretary of the Treasury W. G. McAdoo; and her grandfather, the President, is herewith reproduced.

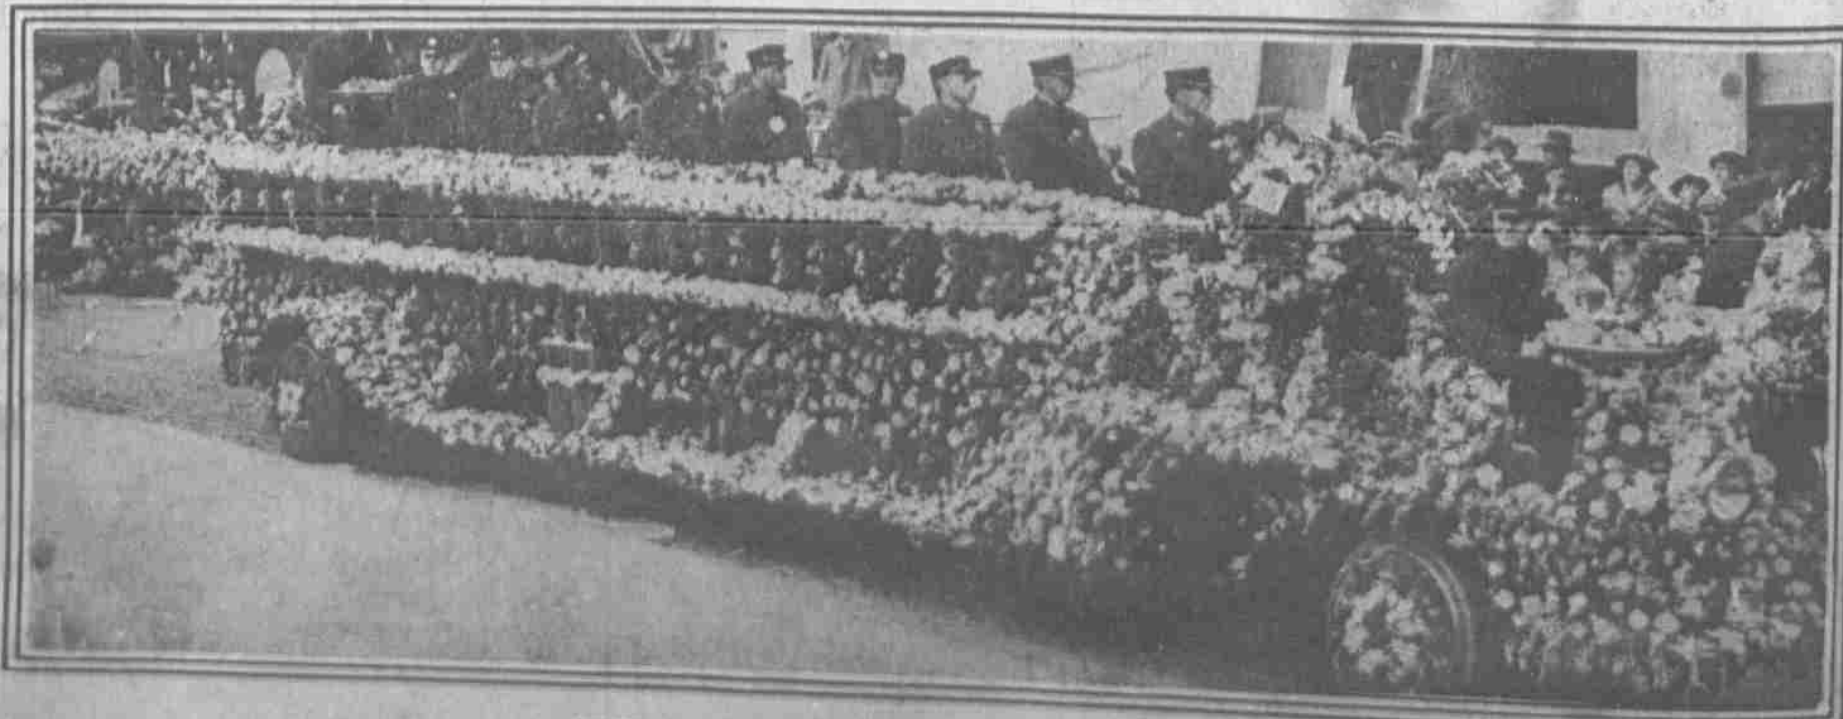

MAJOR DEANE C. HOWARD
He is a member of the Army Medical Corps and a graduate of Columbia University.

SEVEN COWS PILED UP THE FREIGHT CARS ON THIS TRACK
An unusual wreck near Cold Springs, Pa., on the Susquehanna and New York Railroad. The engine was pushing the cars. Near a culvert seven cows got on the track. All were hit and killed, and the cars piled on top of them, causing long delay in traffic.

"HUMAN FLY" CAUGHT IN MIDAIR AS HE SLIPS AND FALLS
H. H. Gardner recently climbed the courthouse in Camden, N. J. Pictures of the feat were printed in the Evening Ledger at the time. The other day Gardner started to climb the dome of the State Capitol at Columbia, S. C., but fell.

TONS OF ROSES MARK PORTLAND'S FLORAL FESTIVAL
Millions of the finest roses and other choice flowers were used to decorate vehicles in several parades which were features of the Annual Rose Festival, held in Portland, Ore., June 9 to 11. The picture here shows a truck entered by the Portland Fire Department, and gives some idea of the lavish use of roses for decorations.