

Evening ILLUSTRATED Ledger

WEDNESDAY
June 23, 1915

PICTURES FROM NEAR AND FAR MAKE CLEARER THE VARIED NEWS OF A BUSY WORLD

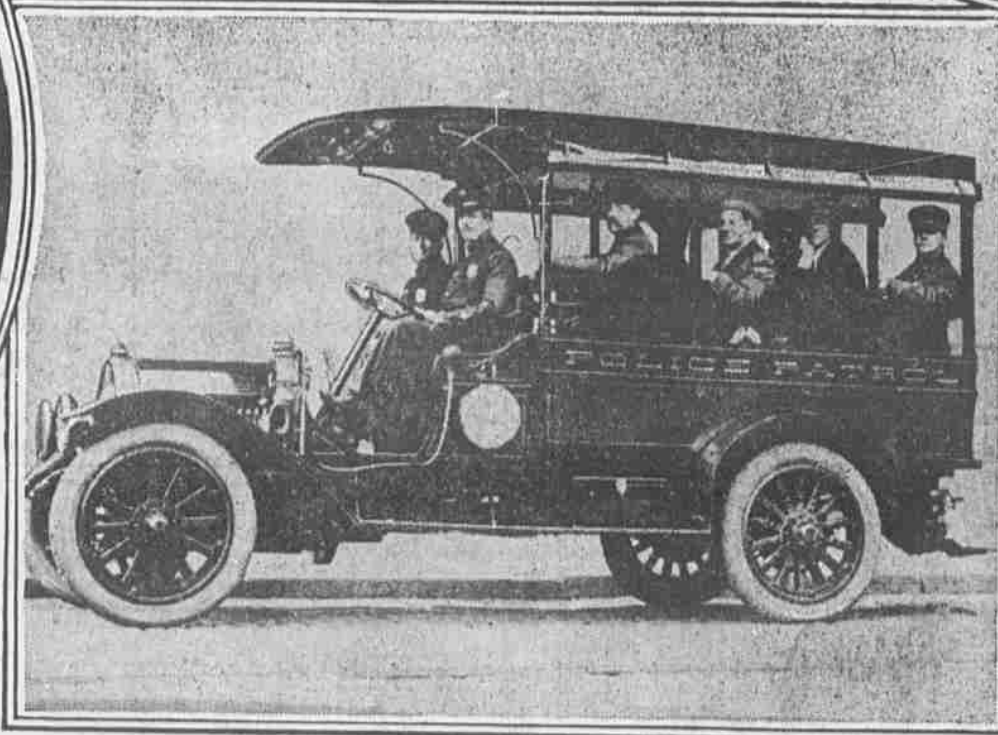

ITALIANS BOARD CARS FOR FRONT
The soldiers of King Victor followed the example of the warriors of the other fighting nations in chalking up their carriages with legends signifying patriotism and expectation of early victory.

WAR AEROPLANE CAUGHT "UP A TREE"
Photo by International News Service.
This photograph, taken in France, shows a military biplane, which caught the tree tops by its lower plane, its momentum causing the tail plane to rise, as here seen. The pilot stuck to his post.

GENERAL OF THE ARMY OF JITNEY DEFENSE
Richard Costello, as president of the Philadelphia Jitney Association, announces his men will fight all efforts to curb them if they have to battle till the last spark plug is exhausted.

WEST PHILADELPHIA'S NEW POLICE PATROL WAGON
The men of the 21st District Station, at 82d street and Woodland avenue, are very proud of their auto patrol car. Police Chauffeur Rightmeyer is shown at the wheel in the front seat.

THE LINKS FOR RELAXATION
Ellis A. Gimbel was caught by the camera man as he sought escape from business cares on the slopes at Pottersdam.

GERMAN SOLDIERS WILLINGLY CHANGE GOOSE STEP TO TURKEY TROT
Military discipline is so rigid that it is no doubt a great relief to be able to abandon one's self to the one-step now and then. In this picture a pink-haired soldier is shown acting the part of the "lady," since, of course, real members of the fair sex are scarce in the war zone.