SEATON MAY BE TRADED

Former Philly Star Suspended by Manager Magee.

NEW YORK, June 24.—Tom Seaton, the famous pitcher of the Brookfeds, is in bad with Manager Magee. Seaton failed recently to report for morning practice, and just before the final game of the series between the Brookfeds and the St. Louis team Magee declared Seaton had been suspended for five days.

It was also rumored yesterday that the former Philadelphia pitcher would shortly figure in a deal that will land him with another club in the Gilmore organization. Seaton's pitching this season has not been up to its usual standard and he has lost many followers through his indifferent work.

It was also announced yesterday that Tex Westerzil, the little third baseman, had been released to the Chicago Whales. President Gilmore and Robert B. Ward, the owner of the Brookfeds, had arranged for a big trade between the Chicago team and Brookfeds, which would involve Steve Evans and Catcher Land, but the deal fell through at the last moment. The Brookfeds will receive a player later from Chicago for Westerzil.

SCRAPPLE

THE JOKES OF YESTERYEAR

—Punch.

A Clean Breast of It

The magistrate—Oh! You admit making counterfeit money, then?

Prisoner (airily)—Well, the fact is, your washup, the supply of the genuine article is so extremely limited, and things generally are so very tight commercially, that a poor fellow must do something these times to turn an honest penny!

Very Much So

He—Do you think it would be proper for me to place a reverent—er—kiss upon your fair hand?

She—I should consider it decidedly out of place.
