OFFICERS WHO RESIGN ACTING WITHIN LAW

Garrison Discovers That United States Cannot Hold Up Resignations.

WASHINGTON, June 26 .- That the Government cannot lawfully refuse to timerent army, navy or marine corps of 'Acers' resignations after they have served clusion reached today by War and Juslice Department officials.

Hitherto resignations have not been nu-marque enough to be troublesome. The European war has created such a demand. however, among American munition manufacturers for experts in their oc-cupations that they have been offering conference salaries, and retirements from the service threatened to become em

Secretary Garrison took the view that an officer should have some better reason than a mere desire for higher pay for quitting the service even in peace time if his resignation was inconvenient to the Government. Accordingly, after accepting four ordnance officers resigna-tions recently, he deferred action on two others and asked the Justice Department for a ruling.

The resignations were those of Lieutenan-Colonel C. C. Horney, in charge of the Government powder plant at Pleatinny, N. J., and Major W. A. Phillips, on a duty at the Frankford Arsenal, Phila-

The question he put was:

"Whether the President must accept the sresignation of an army officer as a matter of right to be accept the resignation as matter of right resting in the President's sound discretion?"
The only law bearing on the subject that the legal experts had found today was section 1521 of the Revised Statutes.

es follows:

"Each cadet shall sign articles, with the consent of his parents or guardian if he be a minor, and if any he have, by which he shall engage to serve eight years unless sooner discharged."

The two departments view was that this law authorized the President and Secretary of War to compel an officer to serve for eight years and that his reignation must then be accepted. If offored. nation must then be accepted, if offered Unless further legal authorities should be found, it was believed, therefore, that the two resignations thus far must be

GERMANS REPULSE FRENCH AT LABYRINTH, BERLIN SAYS

Teutons Also Claim Foe's Attacks Break Down in Argonne.

BERLIN, June 26. The German army headquarters staff yesterday gave out the following official statement on the situation in the west: We captured several machine guns after hand-to-hand fighting south of Souther. Repeated enemy advances against the Labyrinth positions were repulsed.

On the western border of the Argonnes an attack of a French battalion against our new positions, which we had pushed forward, broke down under heavy losses. During the final thrust we took another trench and two blockhouses. Three additional machine guns and three mine throwers were captured.

In the Meuse hills attacks commenced by the French to the west of Detranches falled completely. East of Detranches we recaptured a stubbornly defended communication trench from the enemy.

At Leintrey, east of Luneville, minor enemy enterprises were repulsed.

BODIES OF TWO MORE PHILADELPHIANS WASHED UP BY SEA

The bodies of Philip Arnold, 18 years old, 2113 Spring Garden street, and Frank Brigham, 16 years old, 1401 South Broad street, two of the eight Philadelphians drowned last Sunday, were washed ashore today. Life guards found Arnold's body in the surf at the foot of Arkansas avenue, and that of Brigham was found under the Million Dollar Pier, a half-mile from where he was drowned.

BURST WATER MAIN UNDERMINES STREETS

The bursting of a six-inch water main at 9th and Filbert streets, shortly before 11 o'clock today, undermined a section of the two streets and caused cave-in which blocked traffic. Shops on 5th street, between Market and Arch streets, were left without water supply. The main was supported on chains during the excavation for relocation of sewers by the City Transit Department. It is thought the chains became loose and allowed the main to sag until it gave way. A large number of workmen were dispatched to the scene by the Department of Public Works, and repairing is now going on.

The appeal states girectly that the people of Germany rectly that the people of Germany rectly that the people of Germany are tired of the war and want peace, and in the name of humanity it calls upon the Government to take the essential step for the realization of this aim. The appeal states in part:

"The managing committee (Vorstand) of the Social Democratic party always has been opposed to a policy of conquest and annexation We now raise anew our sharpest effort against every effort every proclamation the purpose of wh every proclamation the purpose of which is the annexation of foreign territory and the oppression of other nations, enorth and proclamations, which have become public in Germany, particularly through the demands of great economic associations as well as through speeches of leading non-Socialist, politicians. ing non-Socialist politicians

Even the recital of such efforts serves "Even the recital of such efforts serves further to postpone that pance which is warmly desired by the whole nation. The people want peace. If this war which daily demands new sacrifices is not to draw itself out needlessly, to endure until the full exhaustion of all the nations in it, one of the participating powers must offer the hand of peace.

MUST TAKE FIRST STEP.

"Germany, who was attacked by greatly superior forces, has thus far victoriously defended herself against all her enemies; brought their starvation plan to haught, and demonstrated that she is unconquerable, should take the first step to bring about reace. about peace.

"In the name of humanity and culture, and supported by the favorable military situation brought about by the bravery of our comrades in arms, we demand of the Government that it make known fur readness to enter peace negotiations in order to put an end to this bloody conflict "We expect our Socialist comrades in other belligerent lands to exert their influences on their own Governments this same sense." Great importance is attached to the appeal of Vorwaerts in view of the numer cal strength of the Socialists of Germany and the fact that the Government has taken no steps to prohibit its publication. In Socialist circles in this city it was de-clared that the Government has probably consented to the publication of the ap-peal upon the suggestion of the Socialism, who pointed out that now that German has successfully warded off the attack of her enemies, cleared Galicia of the Russians and is occupying the most favorable military position, she could conclude peace on most advantageous terms without loss of prestige or terri-tory. ### ANNAPOLIS INVESTIGATORS AVOID HAZING DISCLOSURES

Officials Evidence Fear That Academy Work Will Be Affected.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 26. - Naval Academy "cribbing" investigators steered clear today of Midshipman Reagel's and sertion that hazing is as rampant in the institution as it ever was.

Officials did not try to conceal their fear of the effect another hazing inquiry would have on the work at the academy. It was considered certain also that as order from Secretary Daniels for an investigation will and all hopes of a cruis through the Panama Canal or a visit to the San Francisco Exposition this year. It was for these reasons that an effect It was for these reasons that an efforwas made to keep further having testimony out of the record. The defense is expected to open Monday, however, and on this side, it is feared, there will be such anxiety to let having alone. The plan of the defense apparently will be is show that upper classmen compelled their juniors to violate examination rules for the former's benefit on penalty of beins unmercifully hazed.

unmercifully hazed Professor R. H. Bonilla, of the action demy's modern language department, one demy's modern language department, offer of the witnesses, severely criticised the institution's methods. The text becks were not the best, the work was too difficult for the amount of time dayout do it and the examinations lacked clearness, he said.
