

CANADIAN PACIFIC LED DOWNWARD TURN

Sales Aggregating $800,000 of New York City Bonds Made on Curb. NEW YORK, June 29.—Operations on the Stock Exchange in the early hours today were largely a repetition of yesterday. There was marked hesitation of investors and several reasons could be given for this state of affairs. Foremost of the causes was, probably, the weakness in the foreign exchange market, there being very little demand for re-exports, and the fear of liquidation of the market for Canadian Pacific, which was another decline in France to another low record.
