"ROOM AT THE TOP" THE BUSINESS MOTTO OF THE MAN WHO WON

Energy and Good Judgment as Lemon Merchant Developed Traits That Crowned C. C. A. Baldi's Career With Success.

Many persons downtown remember little Italian boy who sold lemons in a basket which was almost as hig as himsalf. They were good lemons-big, juicy and so'ld. Before starting on his route each day, the boy any that there were no "specks" or seconds in the lot, so you couldn't pick out a bad lemon if you tried. The lemon was a more respected fruit In those days than it is now, and no one would dream of speaking about it in a alighting tone.

That there are worse things in the world than a lenion is shown by the little vender's path to success. Let us follow hlm.

Business Increased in a very short time, and very soon he had the lemon contract with most of the Philadelphia hotels.

The cellar of his home, then at 103 South 8th street, was used as a headquarters, and he found it necessary to press his two younger brothers into service to help supply the trade. One day he bought every lemon in the city at the rate of 51.26 a box. Two or three days later the fruit jumped in va ue by leave and hounds and the youthful lemon merchant sold the lemons at the rate of $7 and $8 a box.

Then he and his brothers rented a stall in the Farmers' Market, 22d and Spring Garden streets, and this was the official start of C. C. A. Baldi & Brothers, who have since branched out in many other lines of business.

WIDENED SPHERE OF ACTIVITY. WIDENED SPHERE OF ACTIVITY. When the lemon business was well un-der way, Charles, who is now better known as C. C. A., became ambitious to broaden his experience and accepted a position as interpreter and timekeeper with a contractor at Pottsville, Pa. His hours were long. He was the first one at work in the morning and the last one to leave at night. He ate when he got the chance.

the chance. One day young Baldi had charge of a job to open a pass through the bottom of a mountain. The blastins unearthed many tons of coal. Baidi was told to fill several big excavations with the coal, but realizing its value, he used dirt for the fill and made arrangements to put the coal on the market. Jumping to this city, he cented a coal vari at 12th and the chance. city, he rented a coal yard at 12th and Washington avenue and launched into the coal business on a small scale.

The customers who bought his lemons also bought his coal, and the other two Baldi brothers also helped out in this new venture. The coal business soon grew to large proportions and Charles Baldi then gave his sole attention to it.

While collecting bills one day, Baldi met an undertaker, who spoke slightingly of the Italians and boasted of the fact that he had a corner on the burial business. Baldi reminded the man that it was bad business policy to speak so of his it burst and all fellow countrymen, and finally told him over the heart. here would be another undertaker in he Italian colony within 60 days. In less han that time a sign was displayed, "C. A. Ba'di & Bros., Undertakers," in a op on 8th street below Christian.

The same spirit which dominated the hox who sold lemons was more emphatic in Bald the undertaker. Things reached such a stage, it is said, that the estabhad eight or nine funerals in a single day. store at Windrim and Olney avenues.

When the coal and undertaking business was in a flourishing condition, Baldi entered the real estate business and bought a number of properties, which he improved. His spirit of speculation did not end there. Near his office on 8th street there was a tannery which spread

The men were arrested last night by Mounted Policeman Franz, of the Front and Westmoreland streets station, on complaint of Harry Lepper, special officer for the Society for the Prevention Cruelty to Animals. At Instance of Gifford Pinchot, Washington Party Men Resolve to Keep Identity.

The first move to keep intact the present Progressive party machinery in preparation for a Presidential campaign to be waged by the third party in 1916 teating against the dismissal of Scott was taken by the Pike county committee of the Washington party last night, at the request of Gifferd Pinchet, who was the Progressive candidate for United States Senator last year.

A resolution introduced by Mr. Pinchot was unanimously adopted. It pledged the Pike County Progressives to stick by their party and refuse to return to the Republican ranhs. The resolution read: "Resolved, By the County Committee of the Washington party in Pike County, Fennaylvinia, that we will maintain our party organization, and that we urgs all other branches of the Progressive party to do the same, and to be ready to sup-to do the same, and to be ready to sup-port a Progressive party candidate for President in the election of 1916." The Finchots, Gifford and Amos, have been the only Progressive leaders who consistently have been opposing the re-turn of Progressives to the kepublican ranks since the election last November.

The "slating" of Paul N. Furman, of Philadelphia, for the $5200 a year job as chief of the bureau of statistics in the Department of Labor and Industry, has occasioned considerable comment among political leaders. Since the old Public Service Commission was thrown out of office by Governor Brumbaugh, it has office by Governor Brumbaugh, it has been generally understood that the place would go to Walter H. Gatther, of Pitts-burgh, who formerly was secretary to Governor Tener and who was named by Governor Tener to be a member of the Public Service Commission. Powerful political influence has been behind Galther for the statistican's tob for the statistician's job.

Police Court Chronicles

The appetizing odor of roast chicken was wafted near Policeman Dan Quinn just as he was beginning to think of his dinner. Thick clouds of smoke carried the scent, and following the smoke trail. Guinn discovered two weary travelers sit-ting beside a bonfire at 2d street and Columbia avenue. They were puffing old clay pipes and seemed to be perfectly con-tented. A big chicken in the middle of the fire, surrounded by a dozen potatees, no doubt had a streat deal to do with no doubt had a great deal to do with their contentment.

They blinked indifferently at the cop through the smoke, but neither moved as much as a foot. "Will you join us?" asked one of the

Here you see the latest addition to a distinguished line of cars—a true Paige every inch of it—a car built to realize an ideal-a car that must not and cannot be judged from the standpoint of its astounding price alone.

When we say that this new Paige Six "36," has been built to realize an ideal we are speaking accurate, literal truth.

From the very beginning it has been the unfaltering purpose and policy of the Paige Company to build high class, dependable motor cars.

It has been the purpose and policy of the Paige Company to achieve a Standard of Quality and Value-not merely a standard of Price.

If you happen to know an owner of our larger, seven-passenger Six "46," you know precisely what we mean when we speak of Value and Quality.

All of the careful manufacturing, all of [the painstaking attention to detail, all of the sturdy, reliable qualities which characterize the larger Six and have made it a pre-eminent Six of the year will be found in this newer and smaller five-passenger Paige Six "36."

The New Paige Six "36" Is Here

We realize that there are a vast number of people who. do not require a large seven-passenger car.

But all of these people want a "Six," for they know that this is the day of the "Six" in quality cars.

Furthermore, they want a "roomy" car-a luxurious car-a "smart" car-an economical car.

In a word, there is an enormous demand for just such a car as the new Paige Six "36"

Glance at the illustration on this page and you will see that—from the radiator to tire carrier—this car is a five-passenger reproduction of the larger Six "46."

This body design has proved to be a sensation of the year No amount of money could buy more graceful lines or smarter appearance.

Inside the car you will find a great, big, comfortable tonneau and a broad driver's seat with upholstery of genuine leather which means ease and freedom from crowding for all of the five passengers.

Like the larger Six "46" you will find this car equipped with the world-famous Gray & Davis starting and lighting system.

Like the larger Six "46" you will find this car equipped with cantilever springs which insure easy, comfortable riding no matter what the road conditions may be-a velvety acting cork insert multiple disc clutch—forced feed lubrication system and the unequaled Rayfield carburetor.

CAMDEN, N. J.

Haddon Garage, Haddon Ave. and Carman St.

No. 41

When you raise the hood of this car, you will see an accessible, powerful six cylinder motor-3"x5"-which is a crowning in motor construction.

We might attempt to tell you about the performance of this remarkable power plant, but we much prefer to have you ride in the car and establish the facts for yourself.

Then, you will realize what true six-cylinder Flexibility and Power really mean.

For the first time, perhaps, you will experience the indescribable sensation of riding in a car that is practically throttle controlled—a car that travels smoothly at a slow walking pace or the speed of the winds without change from high gear.

Low First Cost "Upkeep" Expense

Best of all, this is a car that any man can afford to drive. The Six "36" weighs but 2600 pounds and is equipped with oversize 4-inch tires. With this car you can enjoy true six cylinder motor comfort without the penalty of excessive "upkeep" expense, Space will not permit us to name even one-half the surprisingly good features embodied in the latest Paige.

But-accept our assurance-there is a tremeadous surprise in store for you when you first inspect this car,

Then-and only then-you will appreciate what a truly great achievement it represents.

Then, we predict, your first query will be-"How is it possible to build such a car for $1095?"
