

Evening ILLUSTRATED Ledger

FRIDAY
July 2, 1915.

PERSONS AND SCENES THAT FIGURE IN THE VARIED NEWS OF THE DAY FROM FAR AND NEAR

THE SCHUYLKILL AND ITS LIFE ON THE WARM AFTERNOONS OF SUMMER
This view down the river is from the balcony of the Crescent Club's boathouse. Perhaps no other river in the United States, with the possible exception of the Charles, in Massachusetts, is so alive with all forms of water activities on summer days. All varieties of craft from the canoe and racing shell to the high-powered and high-priced cruising motorboat ply its surface.

QUEEN DENIES PRO-GERMAN UTTERANCE
Queen Victoria of Sweden is quoted as having said on a recent visit to her mother, the Grand Duchess of Baden: "My heart is with Germany." Now she issues a statement repudiating the remark.

HE WALKS WITH DETERMINATION
A snapshot of George W. Henry, president of the Frankford Board of Trade, whose pace shows how he "gets there."

VICTIMS OF GERMAN GAS BOMBS IN FLANDERS TRENCHES
Many of the British soldiers who inhaled the asphyxiating gases released by the Germans collapsed and died where they fell. The gas is said to have a dissolving effect on the tissues of the lungs, and puts out of action permanently those whom it does not quickly kill.

3900 WEST PHILADELPHIA BOYS LEARNING TO SWIM IN POOL
Twenty-two instructors were required to handle the rush that began when the West Branch Y. M. C. A. announced free swimming lessons for every public-school boy living west of the Schuylkill whose age is between 10 and 14. The two-weeks-from-June 15 to July 15 season is the longest in the city.

A YOUNG MAN, BUT A JUDGE
Judge Raymond C. MacNelle presides over the Juvenile Court. He is one of the youngest men on the city's bench.