The demoralisation of immigration to the United States because of the war-is shown by the enormous decrease in the number of arrivals at this port durthe number of arrivals at this port during the last 12 months, according to Commissioner of Immisration Elmer E. Greenawalt's report for the fiscal year, ending June 30. Only $220 immisrants arrived here the last year, as against 60,$21 in the previous year, or a loss of nearly 50 per cent; 1913 was a banner year, with 75,000 arriving.

The decrease has been greatest in the last eight months, when only 2272 persons arrived, most of them American citizens. The loss is becoming greater daily, as no passenger-carrying ships are scheduled to arrive here for a month. Mutterings of the coming war in Europe in July began to effect immigration. With the Hamburg-American and North Gerthe Hamburg-American and North Ger-man Lloyd vessels running on regular schedule during July and early in August, schedule during July and early in August, 5100 allens were brought in. England tied up the German boats after that and the decrease became marked. Gradually the figures dwindled until a new low record was established in January with the arrival of only 57 immigrants. This record did not stand long, as February figures dropped nine under those of January, and then in March the arrivals dropped to il. The arrival of one steamable on each the The arrival of one steamship on each the American Line and an Italian line in April raised the figures to 649. May showed only 27, and an Italian line vessel brought in 299 in June.

In the extremely low months the arrivals were principally from the West In-dies and for the most part were American citizens.

Before the war the North German Lloyd and the Hamburg-American line steamships were strong rivals in bringing inmigrants to this port. They led all other companies by a great majority. Other lines engaged in the trade were the Red Star. Allan, American and an Italian line. The German lines were tied up with the Red Star line early in Auup with the Red Star line early in Au-gust. The British Government requisi-tioned most of the Allan Line boats, which tied up the service. This left only the American line and the Italian line in the field.

Great Britain took over the steamships
Haverford and Merion, of the American Line, early in the year, leaving the Dominion the only steamship in the service. Italy's recent entry into the war has crippled the Italian lines.
Philadelphia now has only one pas-singer vessel on European schedule. This steamship, the Dominion, is now on het way here from Liverpool, but there is not a passenger in cabin or steerage on board. Fear of the dangers of the war zone is the cause.

When the decrease in the number of immigrants became evident the Depart-ment of Labor found that many of the immigration inspectors had little or no work to do. In order to save money a plan of monthly vacations without pay was arranged. This schedule still is in effect and the men are compelled to take their 'vacations' in their turn.

At this port the establishment of a branch of the Labor Distribution Bureau, under the direction of Commis-sioner Greenawalt, gave work to many whelmed when the vast army of unemployed began filing applications for employment early in the year.

The detention house for immigrants at Gloucester, which is rated as the best of its kind in the country, is almost silent today. Only a few immigrants are files in the country, is almost silent today.

today. Only a few immigrants who have been detained from a recent ship are there. They have the entire building to themselves. Formerly not less than 100 immigrants were detained there daily. One of the chief sufferers from the decline in immigration is Mrs. Mary Palmer, a widow, who has a contract for furnishing meals to the detained immigrants at 6 cents each a day. The more immi-grants the greater profit for her, and but a few immigrants means a loss.

3500 MAY JOIN CLUB OF MYSTERY TONIGHT

If They Enrol Membership Will Reach 10,000 and Secret Will Be Revealed.

Will 3500 members be enrolled at the neeting of the mystery club tonight? That is the question that every member of the club is asking today, for 3500 is the number needed to bring the total membership up to 16,000. The membership has been increasing at a remarkable rate for the last four weeks, doubling at each meeting. Four weeks are the membership. meeting. Four weeks ago the membership totaled 1200; the following week it was 2500, and last Saturday the membership had doubled again to 5000. The club grew so quickly this week that an extra meeting was called on Tuesday night to admit 1500 members. According to that schedule the club will have the 10,000 nembers tonight.

The organization about which so much mystery hangs was founded some time ago by H. C. Stone, rector of the Holy Trinity Chapel, 22d and Spruce streets, Mr. Stone invited several young men to his house one night to enjoy some music. He provided refreshments and the seven He provided refreshments and the seven men had a pleasant evening. The fol-lowing week he asked each man to bring a friend, and they had more music, refreshments and a good time. Each week the club doubled. Each week Mr. Stone provided the refreshments. Finally the club grew to a hundred members and the meetings were held in the Holy Trinity clubhouse. Soon pool rooms, shuffleboards, planos, games of all kinds and a library were installed in the clubhouse at 2216 Spruce street. Where the money came from Mr. Stone would not divulge, but said he would outline his plans when the club reached 10,000. The 100 members smiled at the enormous fig-ure, but Mr. Stone kept right on increasing the club. Refreshments, picnics and hundreds of dallars' worth of printing were used to swell the roll.

AMERICAN SOCIALISTS WILL UNITE COMRADES IN EUROPE FOR PEACE

Congressman - elect Meyer London Announces Plan to Organize Working People of Warring Countries in Effort to End War.

The sentiment for peace among the locialists and trade unionists of Europe and America is growing. Folowing the peace demands and manifesto published by the Socialists of Germany with the official approval of the censor comes now what is regarded as a semiofficial reply of the locialists and trade unionists of Great Britain, the statement of J. Ramsay MacDonald, leader of the powerful Socialist and Labor group in the House of Commons, indorsing cordially the stand taken by the Socialists of Germany, The hopes aroused by this statement are further strengthened by the announcement of Socialist Congressman-elect Meyer London, of New York, that a delegation of American Socialists and trade unionists will shortly sail for Europe in an endeavor to unite the organized working people of the belligerent countries in one great and concentrated demand. for the cessation of the war.

By ED L. KEEN (Copyright, 1915, by the United Press.) LONDON, July &

"I welcome wholeheartedly the German Socialist manifesto calling upon the workers of other belligerent countries to use their endeavors for peace," declared J. Ramsay MacDonald, noted English labor leader, in an interview today.

"It is only the beginning, and must be regarded as such. I regret that it deals so much with the past, because we are not in a temper to discuss that just yet. At the same time I think it is the duty of the working classes of other belligerent countries to respond to this manifests and state on what conditions they are pre-pared to support a peace propaganda."

MacDonaid is the leader of the Inde-pendent Labor party, the powerful So-cialist wing of the British labor move-

"The people of Great Britain entered this war to ward off certain dangers and secure conditions under which that could be done," said MacDonaid. "They responded to the cail of Bejgium, and while so doing made up their minds that this would be the last of the great European wars.

would be the last of the great European wars.

"They are now told that they should decide to listen to no peace talk until Belgium has been further devastated by being fought over right up to the utmost border and until Germany is brought to her knees. If these things were necessary to secure the ends for which our people, at any rate, entered the war, I would say nothing against them, however horrible they might be. But if we are still trying to reach our original goal and have not been turned aside by the impulses of mere militarism. I think it is our duty, as well as to our interest, to accept what we desire, provided we can really get it, at whatever stage of the military operations it may be. tions it may be.

"Military operations are not ends in themselves, but at best only the means to an end. Indeed, I hold that after the time comes when we can get what we want by negotiation, every life sacrificed criminal waste. "Consersely, it is no use talking about stopping the war before we can reach our goal. The problem, therefore, is how the people of the various countries can get into touch with each other, how they car make their desires, their hopes, their fears understood by each other, and how, from that knowledge and understanding, they can come to settlements which will secure them against domestic militarism and foreign attack.

"It is as a first and essential step in that understanding that I welcome the manifesto of the German Social Demo-crats and believe the working classes of other belligerent countries should express novement propelled by American Socialists and trade union representatives to unite the Socialists of the belligerent European nations for a gigantic effort to stop the war will be under way within week, it was announced today by Meyer London, New York's Socialist Congress "A delegation of Americans with mediation as its object will be on its way to Europe within a short time," said London. "It will tour the belligerent countries and seek to combine the Socialists and trade unionists for a grand assault against the forces that are allowing this war to be Now is the most opportune moment for the movement, the 4,500,000 Social Demo-crats in Germany have taken the initia-tive and announced they want the war to stop. I believe that their action is all that was needed to fire the Socialists of England, France, Italy and Beigium to a realization that it is in their power to stop this slaughter.

"The one great force that has worked against us so far is fear that the other side would not play fair, but now that the Germans have announced they desire no territorial additions, nor to inflict punishment, all that is needed is to shove the move that will push them over the brink of peace. The Americans intend to supply the push."
