

ATLANTIC CITY HAPPY OVER FOURTH CROWDS; BREAK PAST RECORDS

Even the Ocean Hardy Accommodates Throngs, Which Make Up for Backward Easter Season. Cafes Cheat a Little.

ATLANTIC CITY, July 6.—Smiling hotelkeepers and business men are numerous here today, and the banks have had big increases in deposits, the fruits of the best Fourth of July holiday this resort ever has had.

The crowds of this town varied much on Sunday night, especially as the hour of midnight approached. From 15 minutes before the hour of 11 until midnight the streets were thronged with people.

Amusement places open. Every amusement place on the island was open on Sunday, the theatres, motion picture houses, and many of the restaurants.

There were such vast crowds in the ocean on Sunday and Monday that "crowds" is hardly a suitable term to be used.

colored Keith and de Mont had a series of acrobatic and foolish dances and Henry and Jessie, roller skating artists, worked wonders in a small rink.

Up-to-the-minute feminine creations on pretty models, who mingle among beautiful surroundings, and an abundance of music in keeping with the situations are the features of "The Fashion Show."

Selections from the best scenes of the famous operas are given by the Maratti Opera company, which is featured at Croas Kay.

Comedy and music intermingled with many novelties form an attractive vaudeville bill at Woodside Park.

Increasing weekly attendance indicates that this form of amusement is meeting the approval of the park patrons.
