

PLACES AND PERSONS THAT FIGURE IN THE DAY'S OUTPUT OF NEWS FROM DIVERS SOURCES

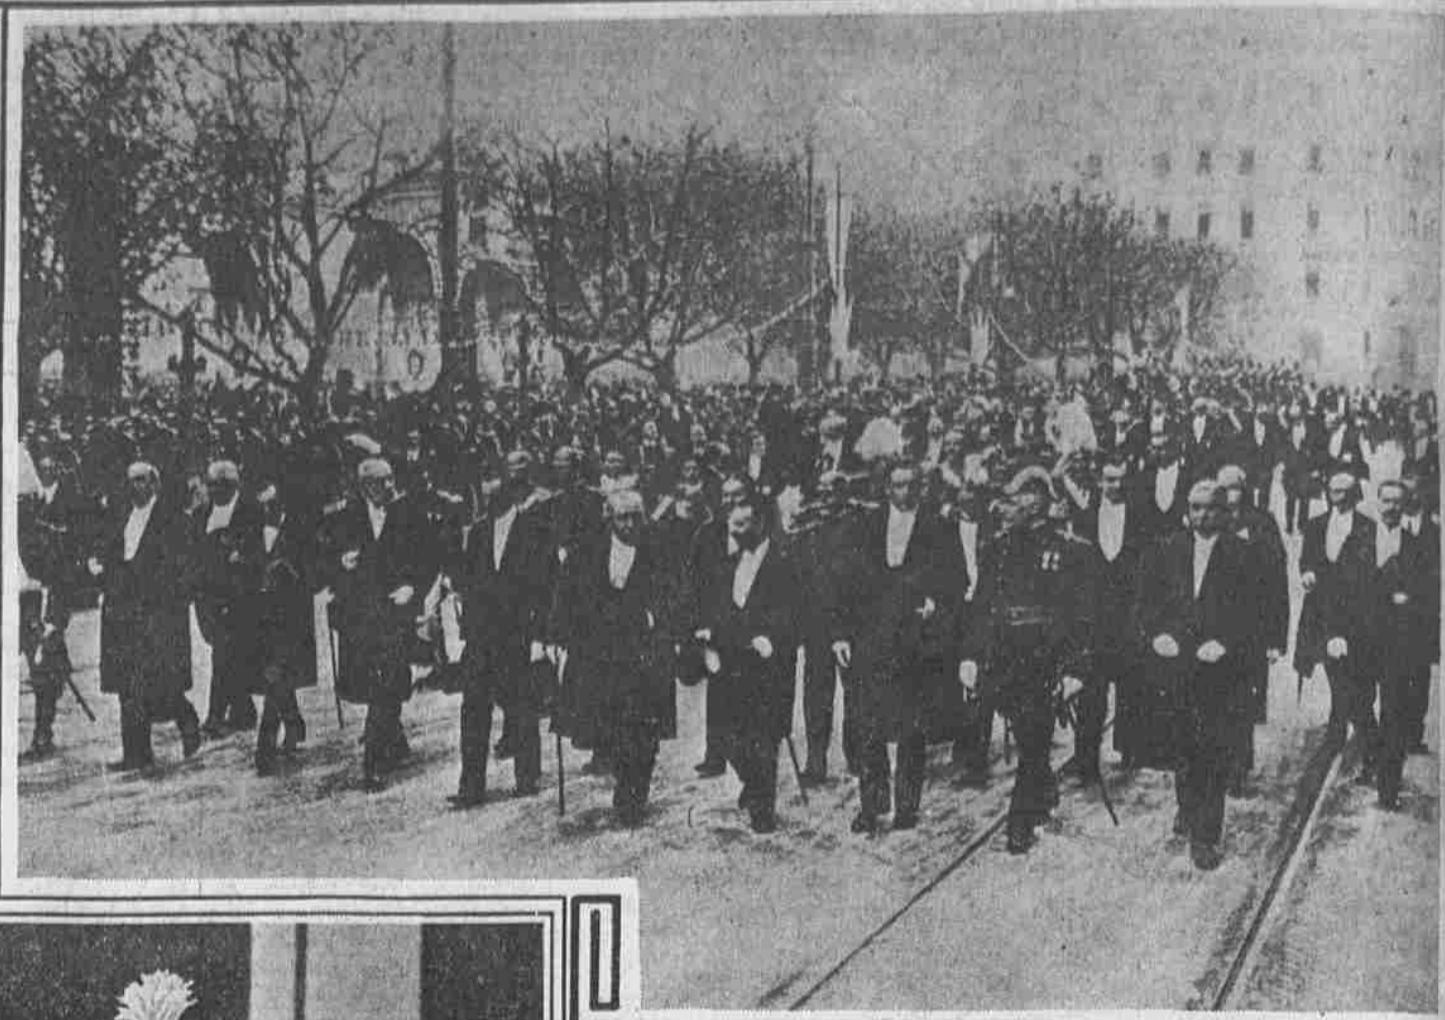

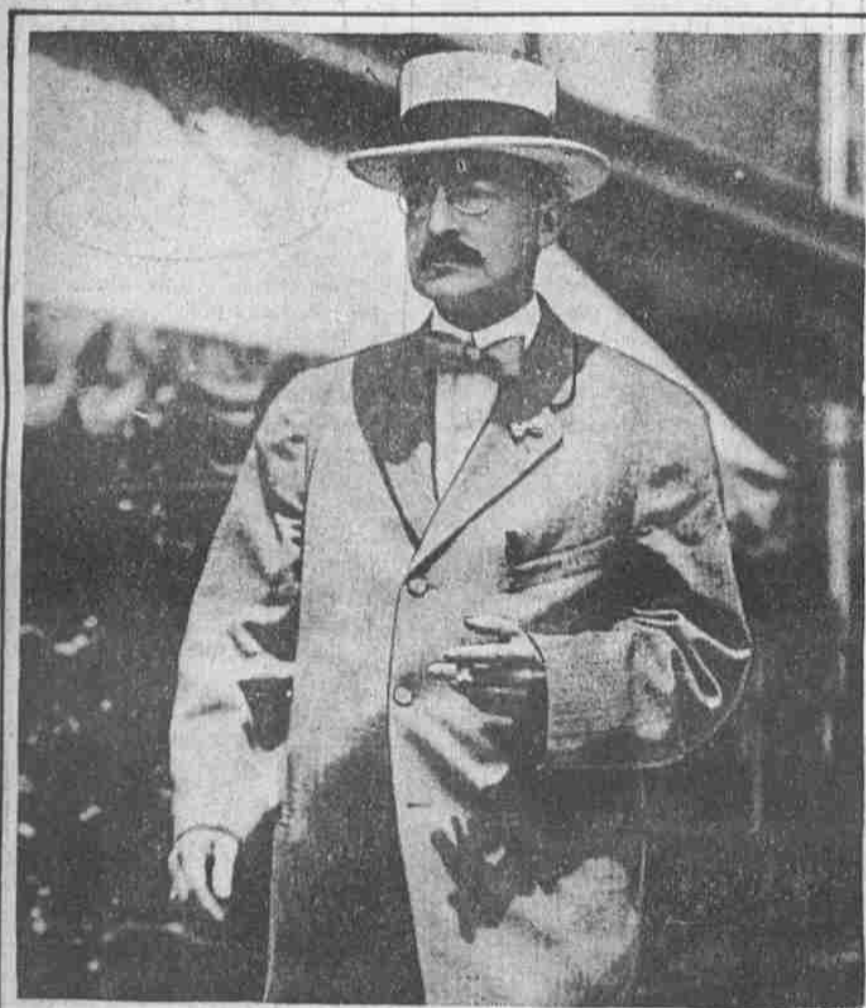

Photo by Modern Photo Service.
ARGENTINA CELEBRATES HER INDEPENDENCE DAY
At first glance they would appear to be German troopers, but they are soldiers of the South American republic saluting the flag as part of the celebration of Argentina's 105th anniversary as an independent power. The date is May 25.

Photo by Modern Photo Service.
ARGENTINA'S PRESIDENT IN ANNIVERSARY PROCESSION
The Chancellors of Brazil and Chili and high functionaries of the government and of the foreign diplomatic corps are escorting the President from the cathedral after the Te Deum in honor of the anniversary.

RETIRED, BUT STILL ACTIVE
Henry L. McCaffrey, secretary of the 40th and Market Streets Business Men's Association, has just retired from active service in McCaffrey's grocery. He was "snapped" in front of his home, 36 North 40th street.

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
QUEEN OF SPAIN PRESENTS STANDARD SHE MADE HERSELF
At the annual ceremonies of the Academy of Infantry, at Toledo, Spain, Queen Victoria of Spain presented the academy with its new standard and at the same time delivered a patriotic address. The Queen had worked the design of the standard herself.

POLICEMAN AND ATHLETE, TOO
Harry Fryckberg is the best broad jumper in Philadelphia, the low hurdles champion, a member of the Philadelphia police force and, as indicated by the picture, a member of the National Guard.

SCOUTS IN THE ARMY FIGHTING THE GREAT WHITE PLAGUE
At the Cresson State Sanatorium the boys and girls have been formed into an organization of scouts to fight tuberculosis. They are active and intelligent in the crusade. In the picture Miss Allison, head nurse, is pinning the scout arm-band on a recruit.

CONFISCATED WELLS FOR POOR OF MEXICO CITY
On several occasions recently the water supply of the City of Mexico has been cut off. Water was sold at high prices, and, as a last resort, a number of wells were taken by force and the poor came for miles to get their water. This picture shows such a gathering.