

PERSONS, SCENES AND EVENTS THAT FIGURE IN THE NEWS OF THE DAY FROM DIVERS SOURCES

MONUMENT OF SHELLS TO WAR'S VICTIMS

An odd memorial erected on one of the eastern battlefields by living Austrian soldiers in honor of the dead.

MODEL FOR "GODDESS OF PROSPERITY"
Miss Florence Cassassa, of Brooklyn, was chosen from 200 competitors by promoters of "Electrical Prosperity Week."

GREAT BRITAIN USES ITS WAR HEROES AS OPEN-AIR ORATORS IN EFFORT TO STIMULATE LARGE FLOW OF RECRUITS

Edward O'Dwyer, winner of the Victoria Cross, is shown speaking to a throng by the side of one of the famous lions around the Nelson Monument, in Trafalgar Square, London. This is a new plan of the Government to reinforce its poster advertisements calling for the youth of the land to come to the aid of the hard-pressed Empire.

CANADIAN GIRL RUSHES ACROSS OCEAN TO WED HER WOUNDED SOLDIER LOVER

Miss Ruth Stonehouse received word in her Canada home that her fiance, a member of one of the early Dominion contingents, had been wounded and might die. She sailed at once, to find her soldier improved and ready to have the ceremony performed.

AN INDUSTRY VASTLY STIMULATED BY THE ARMAGEDDON IN EUROPE

German workmen are shown busily turning out artificial limbs for the men who will return from the battlefields of France and Russia without any. It is to be noted that the operators are middle-aged. The younger men are at the front losing the arms and legs which must be replaced.
