CAPE MAY, Aug. 5.—Some one cleverly summed up the weather conditions and the golf tournament news in a few words. Here it is: "General Humidity and Colo-nel Bogey had a serious clash on Mon-day at the Cape May Golf Club with reday st the Cape May Golf Club with regard to the ladies' tournament. The General averred that, considering the torrid conditions which he had created, the ladies should stay in the seclusion of the cooling breezes on the porch. The Colonel contended, on the other hand, that it was his day for the amusement of the fair visitors and the general had exceeded his authority in meddling with established conditions. Of course some of the ladies pityingly took the part of the old General, but a larger number defied him and started off on their regular weekly point-scoring medal-play tournament." Mrs. W. M. Weaver won in Class A. Mrs. H. M. Langdon was victor in Class shalk, Mrs. R. E. Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Morrison. These Are the Weeks When Parents Should Be Deciding the Question of Schools

Within a few weeks many of the best boarding schools in the country will open, and between now and opening day parents must decide what school best meets the peculiar needs of their boys and girls. Don't let it go until the eleventh hour. Begin thinking about the matter today and you will have time enough to go over the different schools thoroughly. Come to Ledger Central and let us help you. Our representatives have visited all of the best schools in the East and it will be an easy matter for us to advise you.
