cretonnes and Velvets Predominate in Atlantic City-Excitement in Cape May Over Movies-Day's Events in Wildwood.

ATLANTIC CITY, Aug. 10.

THE modish Boardwalk girl, on warm ruidry cays, prefers all white attire; but when the first cool breezes blow, she supes forth in a perfect phantasmagoria e coloring. Cretonnes of fantastic pattens are having a big revival as a dreas obrie, and it is no unusual sight to see a giti wearing cretonne pumps, with coatput and chapeau all in the name lutit storing, for cubist designs predominate. Now that August is here, the smartlyarrared girl must have her autunm bonset. These that have made their appearand on the walk are characterized by their simplicity and their grote-queness, Veloris and beavers form the toundation for such decointion as a single car of cars a pair of cars or a bird nest, in whith nestles a robin redbroast! Many attractive costumes were worn by members of the younger set at the workend dance held at the Hotel Chel-ers, where Philadelphia fashionables love Mr.

to congregate. Mus Leona Megargee wore an exquisite Mus Leona Megargee word an exquisite white hand embroidered mousseline gown stred with pink rowebudgs. A pink chif-um chapeau completed her attire. Miss Misam Megargee, her sister, chose a white princess lace robe and a white pic-ter at sure hat.

Mass Marie Garrity wore a white transsavent hat of Georgette crepe with her dainty white lingerie frock.

Miss Pauline Ayre choce a black maline bat with her white ruffled net frock, which was built with a plak taffeta boilice.

CAPE MAY, Aug. 10.—Saillog, boating, dancing and all the other amusements which take up the time of society at the seashore were thrown in the shade lately seashore were thrown in the shade lately when a local motion-picture company took possession of the Stockton Bathing Pavil-ion. One could not use this bathhouse, as that place was already turned into a make-up room. Actors and actresses in fetching bathing suits strolled about the back up followed directions given in fetching bathing suits strolled about the bach and followed directions given in load, stephtorian tones by an overworked ind unifring director. People came from the new Cape May Hotel in their motors, some walked from their cottages, others make in bicycles. They came from every direction and they perched themselves on hermote of the bithhouses and stord on the roots of the bathhouses and stool on that bots of the bathhouses and stool on thats just to got a simpse of the re-hearmal.
