

THE DAY'S VARIED NEWS OF A WORLD'S DOINGS TOLD IN TIMELY SNAPSHOT AND PORTRAIT

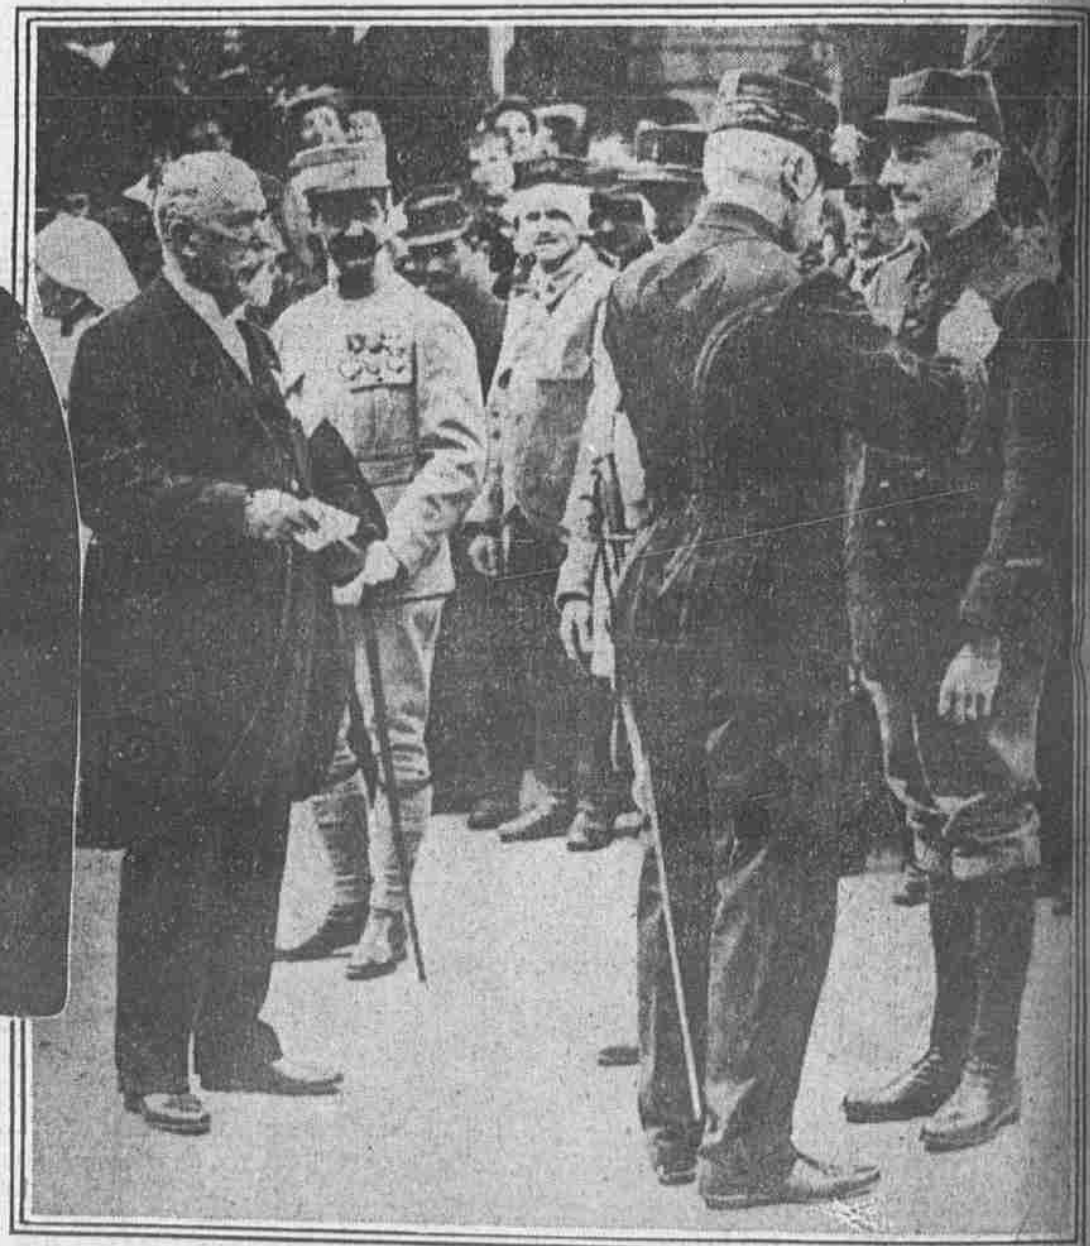

HARRY KONOLLMAN AND HIS HOME ON NORTH STREET, ON THE ROOF OF WHICH HE RUNS A POULTRY YARD AND A GARDEN. HE HAS A GARAGE ON THE FIRST FLOOR

SHOWING HOW KONOLLMAN OPERATES FARMS ON TWO DIFFERENT ROOF LEVELS

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.
CONQUEROR OF WARSAW
Prince Leopold.

PROUDEST MOMENT OF A FATHER'S LIFE
General Gallot, of the French army, pins a military medal, won by bravery, on his son at a review at Neuilly, France.

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., CAMP WHERE BUSINESS MEN ARE TAKING A COURSE IN MILITARY TRAINING. The picture shows the line-up for the distribution of equipment. Some of the recruits are in their first uniform. Others have not yet had time to put aside their citizens' clothes.

AN ENGLISH GUN IN THE DARDANELLES
One of the English guns in action on the Gallipoli Peninsula. Its crew have affectionately christened the powerful weapon "Annie," and have painted the name on one of the two cylinders.