

Evening Illustrated Ledger

FRIDAY
August 13, 1915

THE DAY'S VARIED NEWS OF A WORLD'S DOINGS TOLD IN TIMELY SNAPSHOT AND PORTRAIT

AMATEUR SOLDIERS HEAR POINTS ON MILITARY TRAINING
The business and professional men who compose the "rookies" gathered at Plattsburg, N. Y., are shown here seated in a great semi-circle while they listen to a talk from Captain Dorey, who is in charge of the encampment.

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.

FORMER AMBASSADOR AS A PRIVATE

Robert Bacon (with mustache), who once represented the United States at Paris, is shown standing in line at Plattsburg and looking no more important than the rest.

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.

$42,000,000 IN BRITISH GOLD-HAULED THROUGH CITY UNDER HEAVY GUARD

The Bank of England recently shipped this bullion to New York by way of Halifax, the transporting being done by a battleship surrounded with cruisers and destroyers. Men armed with automatic guns stood guard continuously.

Photo by Underwood & Underwood.

RUSSIAN PRISONERS MAKING WIRE FOR THE ENEMY

The photo shows a temporary outdoor wire factory in Germany where Russian prisoners of war are set to work manufacturing wire to be used in making entanglements for the strengthening of trenches at the front.

Photo by Int. News Service.

MEN MUST WAR WHILE WOMEN MUST WEEP

A typical scene at a station in Vienna shortly before the train carries off the men to the theatre of war. The sweet hearts of some of the men have the privilege of accompanying them to the platform and are happy to spend the last few moments with them.