"Yes," she retorted as abruptly. "For money!" Amy drew back. "You mean—you actually mean that you toady to my uncle and amuse him in order that he may—that you might—oh, it is too horrible to mention!"

"I cannot believe there is anything the matter with you, Miss Amy," protested Dr. Weems, peering at her through his spectacles. "I am dying—dying of curiosity. Physician, can you cure that disease?" she asked with a winking laugh that revealed heartache to the great specialist.

It's more than an extra good soap that softens water and makes heavy suds. Fels-Napha soap contains as much naphtha and other harmless cleansers as will best do the work.

Your part of the weekly wash is the easy part. The 30 minutes soaking dissolves the grease and loosens the dirt so that out it comes with a few rubs—you save your back and half the time.
