PHOTOPLAY SALARIES BROUGHT OUT BY COURT

Chaplin's Presidential Income and Some Other Large Pay Envelopes in the Movies

EDWIN McKIM
A new Lubin manager

By the Photoplay Editor

In a lawsuit recently brought by the Essanay Company to restrain Helen Dunbar from appearing with another organization some interesting evidence of the actual salaries, and not the press-agent variety, of movies players was brought out. Miss Dunbar's grievance, strangely enough, was in part that the Essanay Company desired to star her. She was receiving $40 a week, and she objected to further honors unless receiving a proportionate increase of wage.

In the course of the trial weekly salaries were mentioned as follows: Charlie Chaplin, $1200; William Farnum, $1000; Marguerite Clarke, $500; Mary Fuller, $500; Mabel Normand, $500; Maurice Costello, $00; J. Warren Kerrigan, $400; Earle Williams, $200.

The Universal will present Emmett Corrigan, the famous actor, in "The Governor and the Boss," by James Barcus. This play was produced under the management of Al Holbrook in 1911.

Henry B. Walthall is the "cartoonist" who drew the picture of the school teacher used in "Temper." He not only was supposed to have drawn it in the schoolroom scene, but really did draw it—before the scene was enacted. However, he has quite a talent for drawing.

Lubin, of Philadelphia, announces the engagement of Edward McKim, who was identified with various different companies and whose last play, "The Confession," in five acts, was filmed by him in the record-breaking time of 12 days and scored an instantaneous success.

Mr. McKim was born in Pittsburgh and made his professional entrance on the speaking stage as Philistus in "Damon and Pythias." His success on the speaking stage was such that soon he became leading man for Marie Wainwright and made a tour of the country in Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night."

After being leading man in various plays, especially leading man in "The Man of the Hour," Mr. McKim turned his attention to the direction of photoplays and succeeded in making an enviable record for himself.

At Lubin's he makes a specialty of comedies, but not of the "slapstick" kind.

"Birth of a Nation" Opposed

The Emancipation and Civic Rights League, the Socialist Party, labor unions and churches, through a joint committee, have appealed to Director Porter for a permit to use the City Hall plaza for a protest meeting against the showing of the photoplay, "The Birth of a Nation."

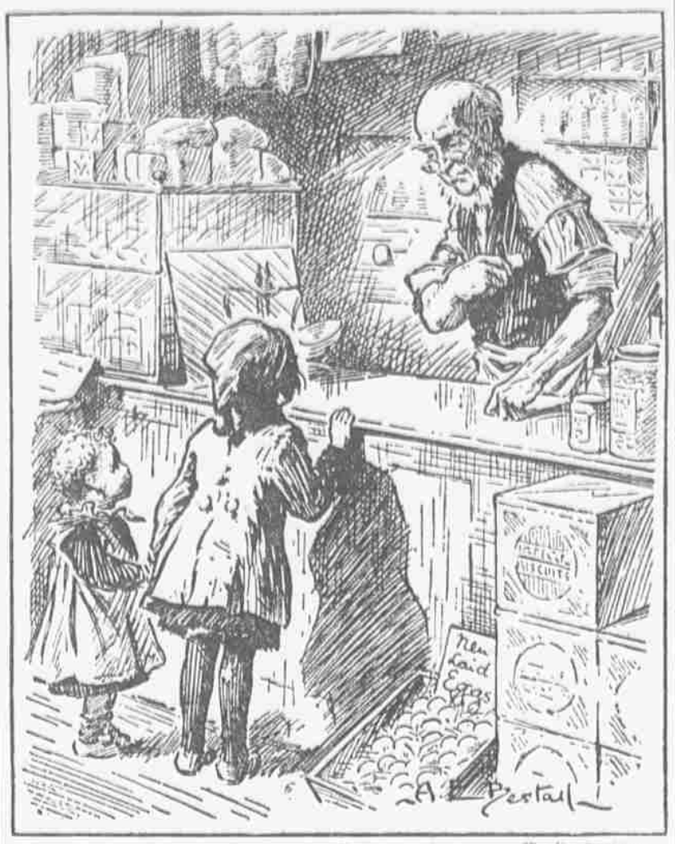
FOR A GOOD CAUSE



—The Passing Show.

"Please do you sell Garibaldi biscuits?"

"Yes, my dear."

"Then will you give us a penn'orth, 'cos' mother says she must do 'er bit to 'elp the I-tallians?"

THE PADDED CELL

"This poem of mine," declared the poet proudly, "is strictly and entirely original."

"It is kind of you to say that," said the editor. "It relieves somebody else from a great responsibility."—Somerville Journal.

Interested, Too

Blinks—I just saw a fight between a bulldog and a mastiff, and during fifteen minutes I was watching more than fifty men were standing around! How can people take an interest in such things?

Jinks—I can't imagine! Which dog won?

Wouldn't Mix

Wife—I suppose there will be a crowd at our silver wedding next week, and it might not be a bad idea to have a plain clothes policeman in the house.

Husband—No, my dear. It would never do to have a copper at a silver wedding.

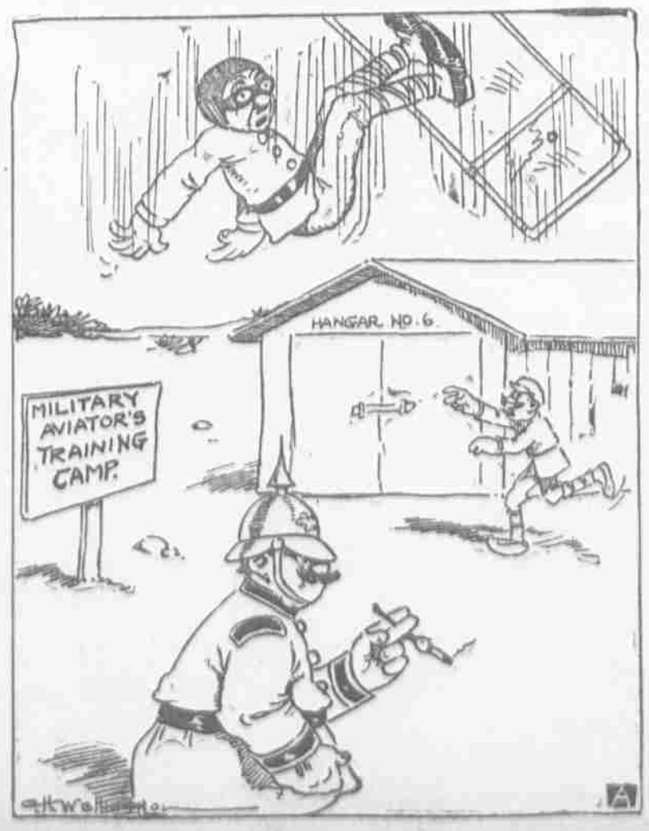
WHEN THE WIFE GETS WEIGHED

Providing

New Mistress—Now, Lena, are you a good cook?

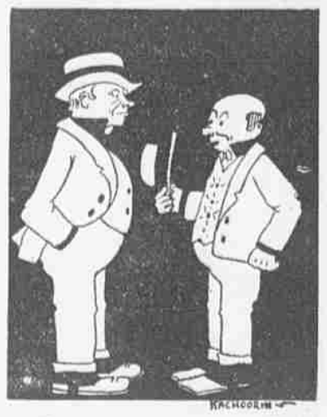
Lena—I think so, ma'am—if you don't help me.

—AND THE WORST IS YET TO COME



—Sketch.

The Son—Farver, your prodigal son's come 'ome.
His Father—Oh, 'as 'e! Then 'e can go back until veal's less than two-an'-six a pound!



"They are starting to send animals through the mails."

"How do you know?"

"Why only yesterday I received a letter with a seal on it."

An Enlightened Farmer

"On what do you base your assertion that country people are brighter and more intelligent than city people. Hy?" asked the summer boarder.

"Why, right here in my almanac," replied Farmer Hyperbole Medders. "It says in the cities the population is a lot denser than in the rural districts."—Judge.

More Like It

"Well, Billy, spending your vacation here, I presume?"

"Not exactly, Kitty, I'm spending my bank account here."

Some Fruit

"According to the narrative," said the professor, "William Tell's arrow split the apple in twain and one of the seeds, falling to the ground, sprouted and in time grew into a tree and bore fruit. What kind of apple do you suppose it was?"

"A pippin," replied the brightest youth in the class.—Exchange.
