

PERSONS, SCENES AND EVENTS THAT FIGURE IN THE NEWS OF THE DAY FROM DIVERS SOURCES

HOLE THAT COST AUSTRIA $100,000

It is estimated that this was the sum expended in the bombardment of San Marino, smallest republic on earth, when this wine cellar was the only thing struck. The other shells fell harmlessly in the fields.

JEWISH FAMILIES FLEEING FROM WAR-TORN GALICIA

Chief sufferers in the see-saw fighting around Russian borders have been the Jewish inhabitants, who, sympathizing with no one nation in particular, have suffered alike from all the armies engaged.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT THE BAYONET'S DEATH THRUST

The closeness of the opposing trenches to each other on the western front has made the British realize that if the Germans are to be driven out of France and Belgium it must be largely at the point of the bayonet, hence thrusting tournaments are now popular.

PERISCOPE IS LATEST TOY

The prominence given to the activities of the submarine in the war was bound eventually to be reflected in the toy world.

URCHINS OF THE STREET JOYFUL AT PROSPECT OF PICNIC

The picture was taken at 9th and Race streets when the American Rescue Workers took several score of youngsters off for a day in the open at Willow Grove Park.

CANADIAN GENERAL AT WELSH EISTEDFODD

General Sam Hughes is shown surrounded by participants in this, the survival of ancient Druidical rites. A contest for musicians is always included. The fete was held at Bangor, Wales, August 3.

J. P. MORGAN RETURNS TO WALL STREET

Note the awe on the face of the woman passing. The financier snapped on his first day out after his recovery from the wounds inflicted by the demented Holt.

SEEN AT THE CHELSEA YACHT CLUB'S FESTIVAL

Mrs. L. F. Rubin, as milkmaid, and Commodore Whan at the opening of the festivities carried on by the popular Atlantic City organization.