TWO weddings took place yesterday | uncle, the Hon, James F. Price, Mayor of Wilmington. Afternoon in East Lansdowne when

Miss Mabel Lagasse was married to Mr. William Johnson, and her sister, Miss Vivian Lagasse, became the bride of Mr. William Bradley. The sisters, who are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lagasse, had originally planned to be married in St. John's Church, East Lansdowne, but at the last Mr. and Mrs.

Johnson decided to be married by the magistrate. Mr. and Mrs. Bradley were married in St. John's Church by Deacon W. Taylor.

Both sisters wore satin gowns, orange blossoms and pearls and carried shower bouquets of bride roses. They were at-tended, respectively, by a bridesmaid and two flower girls.

A reception followed the two weddings at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lagasse, to which about 200 guests were invited. Mr. and Mrs. Bradley had been child-hood swethearts, but Mr. and Mrs. John-

OCEAN CITY, Aug. 26 -- All the interest this week is centred around the Ocean City Yacht Club, as the tennis tour-naments have started, the men's singles having begun last Saturday morning, with an entry list of 75 men, the winner of the semifinals to play Mr. Harvey Lake. who won the championship of South Jer-sey last year. The ladies' singles and the ladies' doubles will also be played off this week, and many of the younger set from Pittaburgh, New York and Philadelphia have entered. The cups this year have been carefully chosen and are by far the most attractive prizes that have ever been offered.

offered. Another feature of the Ocean City Yacht Club this year is the Huick five-passenger touring car that stands in the large hall of the club waiting to be de-livered to the lucky person who will be come the owner for one doilar. It is amusing to see the numerous people who are debating what they shall do with it if they win it. Among the members and their guests seen around the club are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence C.
