

AMERICANS CAN TEACH THE REST OF THE WORLD THE GENTLE ART OF PLAYING

ENJOYING LIFE AT ATLANTIC CITY
This trio of Philadelphia girls knows how to make the most out of life while at the shore.

PLAYING ROQUE IN FAIRMOUNT PARK
A. D. Moniot, 19th and Diamond streets, is one of the champion players of this fascinating game. He may be found with his mallet and ball almost any clear day.

WOMEN YACHT RACERS SHOW THEIR SKILL
Miss B. Vernon, skipper of the Neptune, handling her craft during the women's yacht race, which featured the annual race week of the Atlantic Yacht Club, Sea Gate, Long Island.

Copyright International News Service.

FRANCES STARR "SHOOTING" THE WAVES
The well-known actress is having the time of her life "aquaplaning" on the breakers at Lake George, where she is spending the summer.

Photo by Paul Thompson.

ANOTHER ROQUE ENTHUSIAST
William Hoppack, 2153 Natrona street, is one of Moniot's closest rivals for the roque honors of the city.

SHILOH WOMEN'S BAND GIVES SINK-PHONY CONCERTS
Under the soup-spoon baton of Mrs. Harold Randolph, who is wearing an aluminum dipper helmet, these women of Shiloh, N. J., play every day on kitchen instruments for charity.

HERE'S AN EQUAL SUFFRAGE BALL GAME
Prominent New York society people and theatrical luminaries enjoying themselves at a summer resort. From left to right—J. W. O'Bannan, catcher; Mrs. Horace Wadsworth, at bat. In background—Horace Wadsworth, Holbrook Blinn, Mrs. Page and Elise Hackett, daughter of Mary Manning and James K. Hackett.

Photo by Paul Thompson.

PHILADELPHIANS WHO LOVE THE QUIET GAME OF QUOITS
Strawberry Mansion is the scene of all variety of sports, from baseball and tennis to roque and quoits. John Goff, Frank Volloq and Ben Perdy are playing their favorite game on the green of Fair mount Park.